The Gardens at Colchester Royal Grammar School Trevor Hearn, 2014-07 This book follows the journey of the development of the gardens at Colchester Royal Grammar School from 1853 when the school moved to its present site in Lexden Road to the beautiful landscaped grounds of today It explores the transformations that have taken place and describes some of the evocative plants to be found within the gardens

Sham Ruins Brian Willems, 2021-11-29 In the middle of the eighteenth century a new fad found its way into the gardens of England's well-to-do building fake Gothic ruins Newly constructed castle towers and walls looked like they were already falling apart even on the first day of their creation Made of stone plaster or even canvas these sham ruins are often considered an embarrassing blip in English architectural history However Sham Ruins A User's Guide expands the specific example of the sham ruin into a general principle to examine the way purposely broken objects can be used to both uncover old truths and invent new ones Along with architecture work by Ivan Vladislavi Tom Stoppard Alain Mabankou Aleksei Fedorchenko Michael Haneke and Sturtevant is used to develop this thesis as well as artifacts such as pre-torn jeans fake histories and broken screen apps Using these examples one of the key questions the book raises is what is it that sham ruins ruin In other words if real ruins are ruins of what they actually are then sham ruins should be considered ruins of what they are not Thus sham ruins are about imposing new meaning where such meaning does not and should not exist They also can show how things we think are functioning well are actually already broken Sham ruins do this and much more by being lies ruses and embarrassments This is what gives them the power with which we can think about objects in new unintended ways

Housing the New Romans Katharine T. von Stackelberg, Elizabeth Macaulay-Lewis, 2017 In the last twenty years reception studies have significantly enhanced our understanding of the ways in which Classics has shaped modern Western culture but very little attention has been directed toward the reception of classical architecture Housing the New Romans Architectural Reception and Classical Style in the Modern World addresses this gap by investigating ways in which appropriation and allusion facilitated the reception of Classical Greece and Rome through the requisition and redeployment of classicizing tropes to create neo-Antique sites of dwelling in the 19th and early 20th centuries The volume across nine essays will cover both European and American iterations of place making including Sir John Soane's house in London the Hôtel de Beauharnais in Paris and the Getty Villa in California By focusing on structures and places that are oriented towards private life houses hotels clubs tombs and gardens the volume directs the critical gaze towards diverse and complex sites of curatorial self-fashioning The goal of the volume is to provide a multiplicity of interpretative frameworks e.g.

object agency enchantment hyperreality memory infrastructure that may be applied to the study of architectural reception This critical approach makes Housing the New Romans the first work of its kind in the emerging field of architectural and landscape reception studies and in the hitherto textually dominated field of classical reception Calendar of the Patent Rolls of the Chancery of Ireland Ireland. Chancery,1800 Calendar of Inquisitions Miscellaneous, Chancery, Preserved in the Public Record Office: 1422-1485 Great Britain.
