Run Heather Baxter,2015-06-30 Winning the spiritual Race does not depend upon how fast you Run it is determined by how you Run There is a right way and wrong way to Run Having an organized Training plan is your only chance to make it to the Finish Line This book study will become a personal Training manual Run will give you instructions and resources that will equip you to win the Race The Christian life is often described as a Race one designed by God In it we are called to fulfill His purposes for us We need to be in spiritual shape Trying to run a marathon is very different from Training to run a marathon Lets get fit we cant quit when the going gets rough We can go through all the religious stunts but unless there is a desire to Train to be like Jesus few make it and many fall to defeat A great factor in success is consistency We may start out in front leading but if we do not stay consistent we become entangled in the affairs of this life God has called you to Run the Race set before you Fall on your knees through this study and embrace your Race Its possible to Run the entire Race and even cross the Finish Line only to realize you have been disqualified because you did not Run in such a way Life is not a game with no lasting consequences The way we Run has eternal consequences Lace up friend you have a Race to win Run the Race

had dominated their competition for at least five years upending a century's worth of preconceived notions of what marathoners could do. By decade's end they had lowered the world record a total of 13 minutes, won 27 major marathon titles and swept every Olympic and World Championship held in the 1980s. And in their careers only once did all four American women—Joan Benoit, Grete Waitz, Ingrid Kristiansen, and Portugal's Rosa Mota—square off in the same race at the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics in the first ever Women's Olympic Marathon. Such was their talent that Benoit, the world record holder, entered the race as the underdog. She'd had knee surgery in April and no one least of all Benoit herself was certain she could hold up for 26 miles against her three rivals. Waitz, the former world record holder, was the favorite; she had destroyed the field at the 1983 World Championships and had never lost a marathon she had finished. Kristiansen, who had beaten Waitz twice in the summer of 1984, albeit at shorter distances, was considered the fastest woman in the race; she held world records at 5,000m and 10,000m and would break Benoit's marathon record in 1985. Mota had beaten Kristiansen at the 1982 European marathon championships and was already earning a reputation for raising her level in the biggest races. This is their story and the story of the first women's Olympic Marathon.

Miracle Run Corrine Morgan-Thomas, Gary Brozek, 2009-03-03 The inspiration for the Lifetime movie and a guide for parents confronting their autistic children's journeys to adulthood. Parents of autistic children often wonder: What will happen to our kids when they grow up? Can they work? Have relationships and their own families? Here is the poignant story of one woman watching her autistic boys reach adulthood. A single mother barely making ends meet, Corrine Morgan Thomas could hardly afford doctors for her twins, Stephen and Phillip. After their diagnosis of autism, no one else thought these boys would ever amount to anything. But Corrine managed single-handedly to keep the boys out of institutions and in regular school. And their inspiring story became Lifetime television's Miracle Run. The real miracle though was what happened where the movie left off: when Stephen and Phillip graduated to face adult autism. From their diagnosis to the present day when the boys have grown into young men leading happy lives, Corrine's eye-opening story is full of candor, humor, and most of all, hope.

Reborn on the Run Catra Corbett, 2018-05-15 This is a story you'll love and never forget. Christopher McDougall, author of Born to Run and Natural Born Heroes. Aside from her rock star looks, Catra Corbett is a standout in the running world on her accomplishments alone. Catra is the first American woman to run over one hundred miles or more on more than one hundred occasions, and the first to run one hundred and two hundred miles in the Ohlone Wilderness, and she holds the fastest known double time for the 425 miles long John Muir Trail, completing it in twelve days, four hours and fifty-seven minutes. And unbelievably, she's also a former meth addict. After two years of addiction, Catra is busted while selling and a night in jail is enough to set her straight. She gives up drugs and moves back home with her mother, abandoning her friends, her boyfriend, and the lifestyle that she came to depend on. Her only clean friend pushes her to train for a 10K with him, and surprisingly, she likes it and decides to run her first marathon after that. In Reborn on the Run, the reader keeps pace with Catra as she runs through difficult terrain and extreme weather is stalked by animals in the wilderness and nearly dies on a training run but continues on smashing running records and becoming one of the world's best ultrarunners Along the way she attempts suicide loses loved ones falls in love has her heartbroken meets lifelong friends including her running partner and dachshund TruMan and finally faces the past that led to her addiction Seventh Regiment Gazette ,1913 Go Design Patterns Mario Castro
