Ruslan and Ludmilla Alexander Sergeyevich Pushkin, 1994-10-01 Critical Masses Russell J. Dalton, 1999 This book investigates how citizens in the United States and Russia have used the democratic process to force their governments to address the horrendous environmental damage caused by the nuclear arms race It is the first in depth comparative study of environmental activism and democracy in the two countries Critical Masses focuses on two crucial areas the Hanford Reservation in Washington State and the Mayak Complex in Russia that were at the heart of their nations nuclear weapons programs examining how the surrounding communities were affected It explores nuclear weapons production how both governments concealed environmental and health dangers from people living nearby and how Russian and American citizens think about environmental issues And it provides insights into the process of democratization in Russia and the limits of democracy in the United States as well as the development of nuclear policy in the post Cold War era Under the Sky of My Africa Catharine Theimer Nepomnyashchy, Nicole Svobodny, Ludmilla A. Trigos, 2006-05-30 A wide ranging consideration of the nature and significance of Pushkin s African heritage Roughly in the year 1705 a young African boy acquired from the seraglio of the Turkish sultan was transported to Russia as a gift to Peter the Great This child later known as Abram Petrovich Gannibal was to become Peter s godson and to live to a ripe old age having attained the rank of general and the status of Russian nobility More important he was to become the great grandfather of Russia s greatest national poet Alexander Pushkin It is the contention of the editors of this book borne out by the essays in the collection that Pushkin s African ancestry has played the role of a wild card of sorts as a formative element in Russian cultural mythology and that the ways in which Gannibal s legacy has been included in or excluded from Pushkin s biography over the last two hundred years can serve as a shifting marker of Russia s self definition The first single volume in English on this rich topic Under the Sky of My Africa addresses the wide variety of interests implicated in the question of Pushkin s blackness race studies politics American studies music mythopoetic criticism mainstream Pushkin studies In essays that are by turns biographical iconographical cultural and sociological in focus the authors representing a broad range of disciplines and perspectives take us from the complex attitudes toward race in Russia during Pushkin s era to the surge of racism in late Soviet and post Soviet contemporary Russia In sum Under the Sky of My Africa provides a wealth of basic material on the subject as well as a series of provocative readings and interpretations that will influence future considerations of Pushkin and race in Russian culture personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age Famous Composers and Their Works John Knowles Paine, Theodore Thomas, Karl Klauser, 1891
