Setha Low, Neil Smith

Lost Geography:

Lost Geography Charlotte Bacon, 2002-01-05 In this heartbreaking debut novel Bacon explores the transitions that 60 years visit upon the members of an unforgettable family a Saskatchewan woman her Scottish husband and their daughters who have migrated elsewhere

Millennial Capitalism and the Culture of Neoliberalism John L. Comaroff, Jean Comaroff, Robert P. Weller, 2001-07-05 A special issue of PUBLIC CULTURE this collection of essays forms an empirically grounded conceptual discussion that posits global millennial capitalism as a historical formation

American Empire Neil Smith, 2004-10-29 Annotation American Empire challenges our deepest assumptions about the rise of American globalism in the twentieth century and puts geography back into the History of what is called the American Century

The Politics of Public Space Setha Low, Neil Smith, 2013-01-11 Why is public space disappearing Why is this disappearance important to democratic politics and how has it become an international phenomenon Public spaces are no longer democratic spaces but instead centres of private commerce and consumption and even surveillance and police control The Politics of Public Space extends the focus of current work on public space to include a consideration of the transnational in the sense of moving people and transformations in the nation or state to expand our definition of the public and public space Ultimately public spaces are one of the last democratic forums for public dissent in a civil society Without these significant central public spaces individuals cannot directly participate in conflict resolution The Politics of Public Space assembles a superb list of contributors to explore the important political dimensions of public space as a place where conflicts over cultural and political objectives become concrete

Encyclopedia of Ancient Natural Scientists Paul T. Keyser, Georgia L. Irby-Massie, 2008-11-19 The Encyclopedia of Ancient Natural Scientists is the first comprehensive English language work to provide a survey of all ancient natural science from its beginnings through the end of Late Antiquity A team of over 100 of the world's experts in the field have compiled this Encyclopedia including entries which are not mentioned in any other reference work resulting in a unique and hugely ambitious resource which will prove indispensable for anyone seeking the details of the history of ancient science Additional features include a Glossary Gazetteer and Time Line The Glossary explains many Greek or Latin terms difficult to translate whilst the Gazetteer describes the many locales from which scientists came The Time Line shows the rapid rise in the practice of science in the 5th century BCE and rapid decline after Hadrian due to the centralization of Roman power with consequent loss of a context within which science could flourish

The Routledge Companion to Strabo Daniela Dueck, 2017-03-16 The Routledge Companion to Strabo explores the works of Strabo of Amasia c 64 BCE c CE 24 a Greek author writing at the prime of Roman expansion and political empowerment While his earlier historiographical composition is almost entirely lost his major opus of the Geography includes an encyclopaedic look at the entire world known at the time numerous ethnographic topographic historical mythological botanical and zoological details and much more This volume offers various insights to the literary and historical context of the man and his world The

Companion in twenty eight chapters written by an international group of scholars examines several aspects of Strabo's personality the political and scholarly environment in which he was active his choices as an author and his ideas of history and geography This selection of ongoing Strabonian studies is an invaluable resource not just for students and scholars of Strabo himself but also for anyone interested in ancient geography and in the world of the early Roman Empire

Regions of Risk Kenneth Hewitt, 2014-09-19 An introduction to hazards human vulnerability and disaster paying particular attention to the more severe or novel risks and disaster that affect the general public The book is split into two parts the first of which gives an overview of the field of risk and disaster in terms of three perspectives hazards perspective vulnerability perspective and the active perspective The second part illustrates and develops these ideas in relation to some of the more severe dangers and disasters of the twentieth century for example earthquake risk cities at risk and the civil disasters of war

Geographical Imaginations Indranil Acharya, Ujjwal Kumar Panda, 2022 The book is aimed at providing a short introduction to the divergent ways in which space and place evince themselves in literature With suitable illustrations from some very well known canonical texts the book offers a brief survey of the possible ways of looking at the seemingly impossible relationship between Literature and Geography
