The Lost Salt Gift of Blood Alistair MacLeod, 1983 The Lost Salt Gift of Blood Alistair Macleod, 1991-10 The Lost Salt Gift of Blood Alistair MacLeod, 2010-12-17 The stories of The Lost Salt Gift of Blood are remarkably simple a family is drawn together by shared and separate losses a child's reality conflicts with his parents' memories a young man struggles to come to terms with the loss of his father Yet each piece of writing in this critically acclaimed collection is infused with a powerful life of its own a precision of language and a scrupulous fidelity to the reality of time and place of sea and Maritime farm Focusing on the complexities and abiding mysteries at the heart of human relationships the seven stories of The Lost Salt Gift of Blood map the close bonds and impassable chasms that lie between man and woman parent and child

Conversations with Alistair MacLeod Christine Evain, 2010-11 This volume accessible to all of Alistair MacLeod's readers and fans offers the transcript of an in depth interview with Alistair MacLeod which took place in Windsor during the Spring of 2009 It is introduced by Douglas Gibson Alistair MacLeod's long time editor and trusted friend Alistair MacLeod has been described as a quiet literary giant and there is no better way of encapsulating his talent and character in only three words He is the recipient of many literary awards including the IMPAC award and thirteen honorary degrees In the interview Alistair Macleod throws light on the creative process and gives us insight into his craft As his comments come in response to questions on each individual story as well as on the novel No Great Mischiefs the transcript is divided into sections dedicated to each one of the stories and the novel Quotes from previous interviews have been added and organized thematically in a section entitled Collected Comments from Previous Interviews The last part of this volume includes the summaries of these works The aim of these summaries is to refresh the reader's memory and guide him through the conversation with Alistair Macleod and also to provide useful references for all students academics and enthusiastic readers wishing to embark on a critical analysis of Alistair MacLeod's work The Lost Salt Gift of Blood [text (large Print)] MacLeod, Alistair, 1995

Alistair MacLeod Irene Guilford, 2001 Including personal interviews background information and criticism this collection of essays examines renowned Canadian author Alistair MacLeod's life and the writing of his novel No Great Mischiefs Various literary critics explore themes present in his work such as memory versus myth and the blending of history One of the chief contemporary fiction writers MacLeod has won such honors as the Dartmouth Book Award for Fiction the Raddall Award for Fiction and the Trillium Award for Fiction Selected Stories from the Southern Review Lewis P. Simpson, Donald E. Stanford, James Olney, Jo Gullledge, 1988-03-01 In the twenty years of its existence the second series of the Southern Review continued the editorial orientation of the first series by presenting a range of regional and cosmopolitan works of fiction This anthology is a collection of twenty five short stories from the nearly three hundred published in the journal between 1965 and 1985 The editors have sought to illustrate the diversity of subject matter and the tremendous range of tone voice and technique that have characterized short fiction in the Southern Review Although many of the contributors to Selected Stories from the Southern Review are southern the collection also includes national and international new and established writers The focus of the anthology is on literary merit rather than regional considerations Abroad by Nadine Gordimer which depicts the experiences of a white South African visiting his son in Zimbabwe is in the collection along with John William Corrington's Pleadings the powerful account of an incident in the life of a south Louisiana attorney Mary Lavin's The Face of Hate addresses life amidst the conflict in Northern Ireland and Elizabeth Spencer's The Cousins explores the entanglements and coming of age of five young adults on a European vacation Joyce Carol Oates's Dente interweaves the personal and political aspects of a Soviet American literary conference and Robb Forman Dew follows the adventures of two naive Natchez girls in New Orleans in Two Girls Wearing Perfume in the Summer From Louis D Rubin's tentative young newspaperman in The St Anthony Chorale to William Mills's sure footed X ray technician in Sweet Tickfaw Run Softly Till I End My Song from Rita Dove's compelling Secondhand Man to John E Wildeman's Satirical Surfiction these are characters and stories from the new series of the Southern Review which offer resounding proof that the brilliant publishing tradition originating with Cleanth Brooks and Robert Penn Warren has been preserved by a magazine that still maintains its national literary reputation Cape Bretoniana Beaton Institute of Cape Breton Studies,2005-01-01 Nova Scotia's Cape Breton Island is a beautiful region with a unique community whose history and ethnic composition have resulted in the evolution of a powerful sense of identity and place While outsiders may think only of the island's perennial economic woes and long economic dependence on coal mining and steel production it is also the home of a rich vibrant and distinct culture Brian Douglas Tennyson's Cape Bretoniana is the first bibliography to gather together all known publications relating to the history culture economy and politics of Cape Breton Island With more than 6000 entries it not only provides a comprehensive listing of publications and post graduate theses but also detailed annotations on the listings Each entry lists the author title place of publication publisher date of publication volume and issue number in the case of periodicals and page references followed by a brief description of the item Cape Breton has never been so thoroughly documented This bibliography will help to ensure that even in a world becoming increasingly homogenized by the forces of globalization unique cultural identities like Cape Breton's can be preserved and nurtured The English Short Story in Canada Reingard M. Nischik,2017-04-20 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian Alice Munro The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada particularly since the 1960s This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are covered with in depth examination of exemplary stories by prominent writers such as Margaret Atwood and Alice Munro The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2000 One number each year includes Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature A Comprehensive Bibliography of English-Canadian Short Stories, 1950-1983 ,1988 This bibliography endeavors to record every short story written in English by a Canadian author and first published during the period 1950-1983 and contains 20 000 citations to stories by more than 5 300 authors. Organized alphabetically by author's last name, it includes references to anthology and story collection appearances by these authors, thus providing a complete publishing history of each story cited. Hundreds of Canadian periodicals and dozens of anthologies were searched; in addition, the bibliography cites appearances by Canadian stories in foreign books and periodicals.
