Managing Hazards In The Transfusion Service:

Managing Hazards in the Transfusion Service Harold B. Anstall, Robert C. Blaylock, Catherine M. Craven, 1993 This volume examines the wide range of hazards associated with blood transfusion and outlines steps that laboratory professionals can take to minimize these risks Close attention is given to transfusion transmissible infections as well as to complications of autologous and apheresis donation and considerations for storage of such donated blood components The authors discuss problems associated with immunologic recognition of blood products such as immune red cell destruction granulocytic febrile reactions allergic reactions caused by plasma proteins incompatibility and sensitization to transfusion and immunosuppressant effects The book also offers guidelines for handling complications arising from transfusion to patients with carcinoma and other underlying conditions

Risk Management in Blood Transfusion: The Virtue of Reality C.Th. Smit Sibinga, H.J. Alter, 2013-06-29 Mr Chairman ladies and gentlemen with great pleasure I like to welcome you in the city of Groningen and hope that you will have an enriching and enlightening discussion on the conference theme on risk management in blood transfusion The organisation of this symposium aims at scientific networking by discussing in an international forum the most important themes of current interest in relation to the state of the art in transfusion medicine Dr Cees Smit Sibinga took the initiative in 1976 to start organising the blood bank symposia as they were named in the beginning Without doubt these symposia have contributed considerably to the development of transfusion medicine To illustrate the fact that these symposia came to my attention I recollect that I have attended the symposium in 1978 chaired by Dr Leo Vroman in my capacity in those days of alderman deputy mayor of the city So it has been a long time since After having been away from Groningen for 18 years I have been inaugurated last week as a mayor and it is a pleasure to be again in your midst The series of annual symposia on blood transfusion have contributed to mark the city of Groningen on the map of the international scientific world A great number of prestigious institutes all over the world involved in the development of transfusion medicine have linked to Groningen and we are proud of that
