My Elephant Can Do Almost Anything:

My Elephant Can Do Almost Anything Anke de Vries, 1996 The owner of a remarkable elephant proudly describes his pet's feats including balancing on the coffeepot hanging from the ceiling and walking a tightrope The Delineator R. S. O'Loughlin, H. F. Montgomery, Charles Dwyer, 1929 Children's Books from Other Countries Carl M. Tomlinson, United States Board on Books for Young People, 1998 Every child is entranced by the magic of story regardless of national boundaries Many of the most memorable childhood stories have their origins in other countries Exposing children to this multi national body of literature introduces them to the great diversity of people and cultures that populate the world at a young age enabling them to become more thoughtful and generous individuals Children's Books from Other Countries is a complete and current guide to international children's literature The concept of a bibliography of international children's literature is not new In the past many books have accomplished this task The last two decades however have not yet produced a current reference source devoted to international children's books Children's Books from Other Countries wonderfully rectifies this lack of attention An introductory essay provides an overview of the field including a discussion on the rationale of sharing international books with children a brief history of the children's literature movement related books and awards and basic information about the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY and its American branch the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY An annotated bibliography contains over 700 titles from 29 different countries printed between 1950 and 1996 All titles are available in English many have been translated and others have originated in other English speaking countries The titles are organized by genre and have been selected for their high quality They are primarily targeted for children ages 0-14 although a few outstanding young adult titles are included Winners of the Mildred Batchelder Award and the Hans Christian Andersen Medal are listed in the appendix Indexes include Author Title Index Country of Origin Index and Subject Index Affordable and readable this timely resource is certainly a must for librarians and teachers and other professionals working with children Sponsored by the United States Elephant Dance Tammie Matson, 2009-10-01 It's the middle of the night in the Namibian desert when zoologist Tammie Matson wakes with a start to find two elephants standing beside her tiny tent She makes a promise If you just let me survive tonight I will give up Africa I'll give it all up Just don't let them stand on me It's not a promise she will easily keep At 29 Tammie has spent nearly half her life in Africa her first love working as a conservationist But as her 30s approach Tammie is conscious of not having ticked those boxes no house no kids and no husband Broke and with her visa running out it seems like Africa may just force her to give it up after all On returning to Australia Tammie lands a job at the Worldwide Fund for Nature WWF in Sydney There she meets Andy a charismatic Brit and Africa suddenly has a rival But she's not ready to give up on the elephants yet From the magic of Bushmanland to the banks of Chobe River in Botswana to the civil strife of Assam India Elephant Dance takes us to the heart of a conservationist's fight to find a way for elephants to live peacefully in a world with too many people too few resources and the increasing threat of climate change

Passionate funny and moving Elephant Dance is also a classic story of self discovery love and the courage it takes to follow your calling especially when it takes you places you least expected
