Pacific Voices Talk Story Conversations Of American Experience Vol :

Pacific Voices Talk Story Margo King-Lenson, 2004 Volume three continues this first ongoing book series concerning Pacific Islanders in the mainland today Why Because not enough attention is given to Islanders in the Asian Pacific American model Not enough is out there that honestly reveals who we are to others or even to ourselves In this volume Islanders from Hawaii to Chuuk to Cook Islands confront their American experience upfront and personal with editor Margo King Lenson herself a Pacific Islander of Samoan Filipina descent in search of heritage identity and meaning in America Reppin' Keith L. Camacho, 2021-05-27 Explores the critical insights and creative energies of Pacific Islander youth From hip hop artists in the Marshall Islands to innovative multimedia producers in Vanuatu to racial justice writers in Utah Pacific Islander youth are using radical expression to transform their communities Exploring multiple perspectives about Pacific Islander youth cultures in such locations as Aotearoa New Zealand Australia Hawai i and Tonga this cross disciplinary volume foregrounds social justice methodologies and programs that confront the ongoing legacies of colonization incarceration and militarization The ten essays in this collection also highlight the ways in which youth throughout Oceania and the diaspora have embraced digital technologies to communicate across national boundaries mobilize sites of political resistance and remix popular media By centering Indigenous peoples creativity and self determination Reppin vividly illuminates the dynamic power of Pacific Islander youth to reshape the present and future of settler cities and other urban spaces in Oceania and beyond The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History David K. Yoo, Eiichiro Azuma, 2016-01-04 After emerging from the tumult of social movements of the 1960s and 1970s the field of Asian American studies has enjoyed rapid and extraordinary growth Nonetheless many aspects of Asian American history still remain open to debate The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History offers the first comprehensive commentary on the state of the field simultaneously assessing where Asian American studies came from and what the future holds In this volume thirty leading scholars offer original essays on a wide range of topics The chapters trace Asian American history from the beginning of the migration flows toward the Pacific Islands and the American continent to Japanese American incarceration and Asian American participation in World War II from the experience of exclusion violence and racism to the social and political activism of the late twentieth century The authors explore many of the key aspects of the Asian American experience including politics economy intellectual life the arts education religion labor gender family urban development and legal history The Oxford Handbook of Asian American History demonstrates how the roots of Asian American history are linked to visions of a nation marked by justice and equity and to a deep effort to participate in a global project aimed at liberation The contributors to this volume attest to the ongoing importance of these ideals showing how the mass politics creative expressions and the imagination that emerged during the 1960s are still relevant today It is an unprecedentedly detailed portrait of Asian Americans and how they have helped change the face of the United States Pacific Studies , 2006 Papers form a formal symposium which convened in February 2005 during the annual meetings of ASAO on Lihue Kauai Island Hawaii Serials in the British Library, 2008 Amplified Voices, Intersecting Identities: Volume 2, 2020-10-26 The contributors to Amplified Voices Intersecting Identities First Gen PhDs Navigating Institutional Power in Early Careers overcame deeply unequal educational systems to become the first in their families to finish college Now they are among the 3% of first generation undergraduate students to go on to graduate school and then become faculty in spite of structural barriers that worked against them These scholars write of socialization to the professoriate through the complex lens of intersectional identities of race ethnicity gender sexuality ability and social class These first generation graduate students have crafted critical narratives of the structural obstacles within higher education that stand in the way of brilliant scholars who are poor and working class Black Indigenous Latinx Asian immigrant queer white women or people with disabilities They write of agency in creating defiant networks of support of sustaining connections to family and communities of their activism and advocacy on campus They refuse to perpetuate the myths of meritocracy that reproduce the inequalities of higher education In response to a research literature and to campus programming that frames their identities around need they write instead of agentive and politicized intersectional identities as first generation graduate students committed to institutional change through their research teaching and service Contributors are Veronica R Barrios Candis Bond Beth Buyserie Noralis Rodriguez Coss Charise Paulette DeBerry Janette Diaz Alfred P Flores Jos Garcia Cynthia George Shonda Goward Luis Javier Penton Herrera Nataria T Joseph Castagna Lacet Jennifer M Longley Catherine Ma Esther Diaz Martin Nadia Yolanda Alvarez Mexia T Mark Montoya Miranda Mosier Michelle Parrinello Cason J Michael Ryan Adrián Arroyo Perez Will Porter Jay Sablan Theresa Stewart Ambo Keisha Thompson Ethan Trinh Jane A Van Galen and Wendy Champagnie Williams Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience Sang Chi, Emily Moberg Robinson, 2012-02-13 This unique work presents an extraordinary breadth of contemporary and historical views on Asian America and Pacific Islanders conveyed through the voices of the men and women who lived these experiences over more than 150 years In 1848 the First Wave of Asian immigration arrived in the United States By the first decade of the 21st century Asian Americans were the nation's fastest growing racial group Through a far ranging array of primary source documents Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience shares what it was like for these diverse peoples to live and work in the United States for better and for worse Organized chronologically by ethnicity the book covers a panoply of ethnic groups including recent Asian immigrants and mixed race mixed heritage Asian Americans There is also a topical section that showcases views on everything from politics to class to gender dynamics underscoring that the Asian American population is not nor has it ever been monolithic In choosing material the editors strove to make the volume as comprehensive as possible Thus readers will discover documents written by transnational adopted and homosexual Asian Americans as well as documents written from particular religious positions A Companion to the Regional Literatures of America Charles L. Crow, 2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to American Regional Literature is the most comprehensive resource yet published for study of this popular field The most inclusive survey yet published of American regional literature Represents a wide variety of theoretical and historical approaches Surveys the literature of specific regions from California to New England and from Alaska to Hawaii Discusses authors and groups who have been important in defining regional American literature The Pacific Monthly William Bittle Wells, Lute Pease, 1903

Ulrich's Periodicals Directory ,1989 The Pacific Unitarian ,1912 Feminist Theologies Stephen Burns, Rebekah Pryor, 2023-01-24 This assemblage of feminist theologies represents a series of vital entanglements Chapters are written from different cultures geographies and discourses and brought together around themes as specific and wide ranging as immigration detention hate crime discrimination rites of marriage and partnership and artistic and religious imagination The contributors variously echo celebrate question and contradict each other Despite the complexity and allied as they are with liberation decolonial ecological queer and other theologies these perspectives seek not only to confront and resist the problems oppressions and omissions of hegemonic theologies but also to realize better worlds Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2002 Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Hip Hop and Political Voice for Young South Sudanese Australians Sarah J. Williams, 2024-12-15 Hip Hop and Political Voice for Young South Sudanese Australians Born to Stand Out explores the building of political voice of young South Sudanese Australians to resist racialising discourses particularly through hip hop Presented as an ethnography Sarah J Williams draws on empirical evidence from a youth participatory action research project facilitated by a small nonprofit organisation Footprints Each chapter foregrounds counter narratives young South Sudanese Australian hip hop artists portray in response to over a decade of media and moral panics targeting their communities limiting their sense of freedom and resulting in a rise in youth suicide The core message throughout suggests participants reject any goal of or focus on fitting in Instead based on their conviction that they are born to stand out these activists carve out space in the face of racialising discourses perpetuated primarily by Australian Whiteness Through the lenses of new social movements and theories and perspectives informed by critical race theory and critical Hip Hop pedagogy this book expands race and ethnicity as a central theme by exploring how the political voice of this group of young South Sudanese Australians manifests in important new ways that conventional theories of activism and resistance may not capture Participants embark on consciousness raising practices to reframe and assert their multiple identities whilst establishing themselves as social agents in the world Loving Music Till it Hurts William Cheng, 2020 Loving Music Till It Hurts explores how people's intense love and protectiveness of music can lead to interpersonal conflicts societal injustices and violence But how might we love music even embrace it as vital to human thriving without weaponizing this love What can we do when loving music and loving people seem at odds Controversial History Education in Asian Contexts Mark Baidon, Kah Seng Loh, Ivy Maria Lim, Gül İnanc, Junaidah Jaffar, 2013-08-22 This book examines both history textbook controversies AND teaching historical controversy in Asian contexts The different perspectives provided by the book's authors offer numerous insights examples and approaches for understanding historical controversy to provide a practical gold mine for scholars and practitioners The book provides case studies of history textbook controversies ranging from treatments of the Nanjing Massacre to a comparative treatment of Japanese occupation in Vietnamese and Singaporean textbooks to the differences in history textbooks published by secular and Hindu nationalist governments in India It also offers a range of approaches for teaching historical controversy in classrooms These include Structured Academic Controversy the use of Japanese manga teaching controversy through case studies student facilitated discussion processes and discipline based approaches that can be used in history classrooms The book s chapters will help educational researchers and curricularists consider new approaches for curriculum design curriculum study and classroom research
