The Life, Letters and Work of Frederic Leighton Mrs. Russell Barrington,1906 Frederic Leighton KerenRosa Hammerschlag,2017-07-05 Keren Rosa Hammerschlag s Frederic Leighton Death Mortality Resurrection offers a timely reexamination of the art of the late Victorian period s most institutionally powerful artist Frederic Lord Leighton 1830 1896 As President of the Royal Academy from 1878 to 1896 Leighton was committed to the pursuit of beauty in art through the depiction of classical subjects executed according to an academic working method But as this book reveals Leighton s art and discourse were beset by the realisation that academic art would likely die with him Rather than achieving classical perfection Hammerschlag argues Leighton s figures hover in transitional states between realism and idealism flesh and marble life and death as gothic distortions of the classical ideal The author undertakes close readings of key paintings sculptures frescos and drawings in Leighton's oeuvre and situates them in the context of contemporaneous debates about death and resurrection in theology archaeology and medicine The outcome is a pleasurably macabre counter biography that reconfigures what it meant to be not just a late Victorian neoclassicist and royal academician but President of the Victorian Royal Academy
