Hofmeister-Pich,Stephan Conermann,2025-10-14 Historically Latin American political entities were structured by different forms of slave labor that until the 19th century depended on transatlantic slave trade from Africa to the Americas In this volume scholars from Brazil Germany and Africa characterize different forms of serfdom in colonial times picture slavery based societies and explore aspects of dependency relations that emerged in the aftermath of abolition in Brazil and Africa

Tropical Alpine Environments Philip W. Rundel,Alan P. Smith,F. C. Meinzer,1994-09 Plants growing in tropical alpine environments at altitudes above the closed canopy forest and below the limit of plant life have evolved distinct forms to cope with a hostile environment characterized by cold drought and fire Unlike temperate alpine environments where there are distinct seasons of favourable and unfavourable conditions for growth tropical alpine habitats present summer conditions every day and winter conditions every night Using examples from all over the tropics this fascinating account reviews for the first time the unique form and functional relationships of tropical alpine plants examining both their physiological ecology and population biology It will appeal to anyone interested in tropical vegetation and plant physiological adaptations to hostile environment as well as to researchers in biogeography and ecology
