Losing Someone You Love When A Brother Or Sister Dies:

Losing Someone You Love Elizabeth Richter, 1986-01-01 Sixteen young people ranging in age from ten to twenty four describe the fears sorrow and other emotions they experienced when a brother or sister died How To Go On Living When Someone You Love Dies Therese A. Rando, 1991-07-18 An inspiring guide to help you through the mourning process including a comprehensive resource listing and a chapter on finding professional help and support groups The most comprehensive insightful and helpful volume on loss and survival Rabbi Dr Earl A Grollman author of Living When a Loved One Has Died Mourning the death of a loved one is a process all of us will go through at one time or another But wherever the death is sudden or anticipated few of us are prepared for it or for the grief it brings There is no right or wrong way to grieve each person's response to loss will be different Now in this compassionate comprehensive guide previously published as Grieving Therese A Rando Ph D bereavement specialist and author of Loss and Anticipatory Grief leads you gently through the painful but necessary process of grieving and helps you find the best way for yourself Whether the death was sudden or expected from accident illness suicide homicide or natural causes Dr Rando will help you learn to Understand and resolve your grief Talk to children about death Resolve unfinished business Take care of yourself Accept the help and support of others Get through holidays and other difficult times of the year Plan funerals and personal bereavement rituals There is no way around the pain of loss but there is a way through it Dr Rando offers the solace comfort and guidance to help you accept your loss and move into your new life without forgetting your treasured past When a Brother or Sister Dies Claire Berman, 2009-02-17 The trauma of losing a sibling when we are in our adult years is one of the most unrecognized and undertreated areas of psychology There is no other loss in adult life that appears to be so neglected as the death of a brother or sister says bereavement specialist and psychologist Therese Rando And Rando is just one expert author Berman interviews in this moving book about loss We see here how when an adult dies the parents spouse and children of that person become the focus but brothers and sisters most often fall to the sidelines and are left to find a way to deal with the grief and recover alone Yet when a brother or sister dies we lose our longest lifetime companion someone with whom we have shared an intimate family history And in most cases that was someone for whom we had conflicted feelings shared identity yet competitive feelings pride yet jealousy love yet hate Most of us come to make peace with the relationship at some point How to make peace with the death of the sibling which can conjure up a well of feelings from wishing you were closer to wanting to change some past events you shared can haunt an adult But author Claire Berman who lost her own sister to heart disease in the week of September 11 2001 when America lost its innocence takes us into the emotional world of sibling loss showing us how to understand and navigate the aftermath of a loss that can leave adults feeling angry confused guilty empty or just like Berman wanting to hit that speed dial button still marked with her sister's name Handbook for Those Who Grieve Martin M Auz, 2015-02-25 How can I best help someone who has lost a loved one How do I talk to a child about the death of a family member What do I need to think about before I plan a funeral Confusion bewilderment and a lack of direction commonly surface in the aftermath of a death It s also the time when dealing with the issues and emotions of the experience can lead to making hasty or unwise decisions In this revised edition of Handbook for Those Who Grieve Martin M Auz and Maureen Lyons Andrews offer concise practical topic based lists and suggestions to help people immediately after a loss Rather than philosophizing theologizing or rationalizing the authors draw on their research and personal experiences to provide short but solid answers to help grieving people successfully deal with the countless issues and varied emotions that a person s death is sure to thrust upon them

Losing Someone You Love Tracy A. Phillips, 2009-01-01 Explores the emotions involved in the wake of a loved one s death and offers suggestions on how to help children and teens cope with their grief

Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one s funeral or memorial occasion The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage the book is divided into eleven chapters There are tributes for mothers fathers children spouses and soulmates friends siblings and other close relatives soldiers and victims of war or violence pets and general readings appropriate for men women or any loved one These selections will also prove helpful for clergy counselors and hospice hospital and funeral professionals Appendices list resources and support organizations and each selection is indexed by author title and first line A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film novel or celebrity s funeral so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context
