Island Endurance Ryan Lash, 2025 Many look to Ireland's Atlantic islands as timeless places resistant to change Island Endurance offers an alternative perspective examining two neighboring islands where people have cultivated their heritage to confront new challenges and opportunities across centuries To the west Inishark is a landscape of ruins with monuments from a medieval monastery alongside the remnants of a village that endured privation and isolation before its evacuation in 1960 To the east Inishbofin remains home to a small community of nearly 200 that bustles every summer with thousands of visitors drawn by the island's reputation for hospitality and distinctive local heritage Combining archaeological discoveries with folklore and ethnography author Ryan Lash explores how islanders from three different historical eras encountered altered and reimagined traces of the past Fifteen years of fieldwork reconstruct more than a millennium of creativity from the development of pilgrimage traditions at the shrines of monastic saints to the reuse of medieval monuments for local devotions in the 19th and 20th centuries to the repurposing of ruins for managing livestock and guiding tourist trails in the 21st century Attuned to the sensory dynamics and other than human elements of landscapes Lash illustrates the power of quartz pebbles picnics and sheep farming to generate vital perceptions of place time and belonging Islanders have continually and creatively adapted their heritage to foster shared experiences negotiate collaborative relations and sustain livelihoods amid adversity Island Endurance shows us that the illusion of timelessness has always relied on the creativity of heritage

Queer/Early/Modern Carla Freccero, 2006-01-16 In Queer Early Modern Carla Freccero a leading scholar of early modern European studies argues for a reading practice that accounts for the queerness of temporality for the way past present and future time appear out of sequence and in dialogue in our thinking about history and texts Freccero takes issue with New Historicist accounts of sexual identity that claim to respect historical proprieties and to derive identity categories from the past She urges us to see how the indeterminacies of subjectivity found in literary texts challenge identitarian constructions and she encourages us to read differently the relation between history and literature Contending that the term queer in its indeterminacy points the way toward alternative ethical reading practices that do justice to the aftereffects of the past as they live on in the present Freccero proposes a model of fantasmatic historiography that brings together history and fantasy past and present event and affect Combining feminist theory queer theory psychoanalysis deconstruction and literary criticism Freccero takes up a series of theoretical and historical issues related to debates in queer theory feminist theory the history of sexuality and early modern studies She juxtaposes readings of early and late modern texts discussing the lyric poetry of Petrarch Louise Lab and Melissa Ethridge David Halperin s take on Michel Foucault via Apuleius s The Golden Ass and Boccaccio s Decameron and France s domestic partner legislation in connection with Marguerite de Navarre s Heptameron Turning to French cleric Jean de L ry s account published in 1578 of having witnessed cannibalism and religious rituals in Brazil some twenty years earlier and to the twentieth century Brandon Teena case Freccero draws on Jacques Derrida s concept of spectrality to propose both an ethics and a mode of interpretation that acknowledges and is inspired by the haunting of the present by the past
