Lost Stories:

After Postmodernism Christopher K. Coffman, Theophilus Savvas, 2020-12-18 Several of American literature's most prominent authors and many of their most perceptive critics and reviewers argue that fiction of the last quarter century has turned away from the tendencies of postmodernist writing. Yet the nature of that turn and the defining qualities of American fiction after postmodernism remain less than clear. This volume identifies four prominent trends of the contemporary scene: the recovery of the real, a rethinking of historical engagement, a preoccupation with materiality, and a turn to the planetary. Readings of works by various leading figures including Dave Eggers, Jonathan Franzen, A. M. Homes, Lance Olsen, Richard Powers, William T. Vollmann, and David Foster Wallace support a variety of arguments about this recent revitalization of American literature. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Textual Practice.

The Search for Smilin' Ed Kim Deitch, 2010-01-01 Launched on his latest investigation by a remark from his brother about a shared childhood favorite, Y know I heard that when Smilin' Ed died, his body was never found. Deitch begins to uncover some truly amazing things about the kiddie show host and his malevolent sidekick Froggy the Gremlin. Meanwhile, Deitch's muse and nemesis Waldo the Cat abandons Deitch to hang out with some demon buddies, and soon both Waldo and Deitch are closing in on the mysteries of Smilin' Ed and Froggy. Ranging across the entire twentieth century, replete with flashbacks, stories within stories, and guest appearances from other Deitch regulars, The Search for Smilin' Ed is a narrative whirligig that shows Deitch at his wildest and woolliest. For those whose heads have started to spin at the complexity of Deitch world Deitch scholar Bill Kartalopoulos offers a lengthy essay on the ins and outs of this ever evolving ever expanding world where fantasy reality and satire combine clash and are sometimes downright indistinguishable p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 13 9px Arial color 424242 LeBron Jeff Benedict,2023-04-11 The first definitive biography of basketball legend LeBron James by the acclaimed author of Tiger Woods LeBron is unquestionably the greatest basketball player of the 21st century Off the court LeBron s political activism outspoken stance on racism and social injustice have helped build a social media presence that includes 117 million followers on Instagram and 51 million followers on Twitter He is an international brand worth billions of dollars He doesn t just have huge endorsement deals with some of the biggest corporations in the world LeBron sits on boards of directors and has an equity stake in the companies he sponsors He has forged a close friendship with President Barack Obama and clashed publicly with President Donald Trump As a child LeBron was a lost little boy living in a public housing project in Akron Ohio His mother who had LeBron when she was just sixteen would disappear for days at a time Scared and alone LeBron rarely attended school He was dirt poor and fatherless And he had never played organised basketball Yet he would become the most successful and most popular athlete that the United States has produced this century bringing success to the Cleveland Cavaliers Miami Heat and Los Angeles Lakers To tell this epic story Benedict has done exhaustive research digging through thousands of pages of primary source documents articles books and hundreds of hours of video footage He s also conducted hundreds of interviews with the people who were intimately involved with LeBron from the beginning of his life to the present He shows the initial slow rise of a star that suddenly transformed into a speeding comet during his senior year of high school It is a unique and unmissable insight into one of the world s greatest athletes The Horror Sensorium Angela Ndalianis,2012-09-26 Horror films books and video games engage their audiences through combinations of storytelling practices emotional experiences cognitive responses and physicality that ignite the sensorium the sensory mechanics of the body and the intellectual and cognitive functions connected to them Through analyses of various mediums this volume explores how the horror genre affects the mind and body of the spectator Works explored include the films 28 Days Later and Death Proof the video games Resident Evil 4 and Doom 3 the theme park ride The Revenge of the Mummy transmedia experiences associated with The Dark Knight and True Blood and paranormal romance novels featuring Anita Blake and Sookie Stackhouse By examining how these diverse media generate medium specific corporeal and sensory responses it reveals how the sensorium interweaves sensory and intellectual encounters to produce powerful systems of perception
