Manhattan Psalter:

The Manhattan Psalter Juanita Colon, 2002 Sister Juanita entitled this work The Manhattan Psalter reflecting her background as a New Yorker and as a Latina The language is contemporary It began as a personal project of appropriation of the Psalms as her own prayer BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Calling All Angels Erin Wathen, 2024-09-03 Step into Advent with this captivating study and devotional where angelic encounters come to life echoing the timeless message of overcoming fear What would you do if you were not afraid Life can be daunting filled with uncertainty and fears It wasn't any different two thousand years ago when Jesus was born An aged priest is told he is about to become a father for the first time A young woman is told she is going to give birth outside the protection of marriage A simple carpenter is asked to believe the impossible A group of shepherds night on a hill is interrupted by a bright host of angels in the sky Yet each of these encounters begins with the same refrain do not be afraid Those words though are not just words of comfort they are an invitation and a calling from God In this captivating Advent study and devotional pastor Erin Wathen challenges us to take this timeless message and apply it to our lives today Calling All Angels asks us to contemplate what would change in our relationships vocations congregations and communities if we have the courage to overcome our fears like Mary Joseph Zechariah and the Shepherds in the story Included in this book are Weekly studies perfect for individuals or groups Questions for reflection and discussion Daily reflections Worship resources including liturgies prayers and children's moments An uplifting playlist to accompany you through the Advent season Free videos featuring the author are available online perfect for beginning weekly studies sparking meaningful conversations and deepening your understanding of that week's story Step into Advent where stories of angelic encounters come to life echoing the timeless message of overcoming fear Just like the characters in the nativity story we're invited to embrace courage and join in God's transformative work Psalms for Preaching and Worship Roger E. Van Harn, Brent A. Strawn, 2009-04-10 Psalms for Preaching and Worship a key addition to the critically acclaimed three volume Lectionary Commentary Despite the rich resources available for studying the Psalms few are as focused on their place in worship and preaching as is this volume The responsorial Psalms of the Revised Common Lectionary are here taken up in careful and often illuminating interpretation with attention also to their interaction with other lectionary texts The many ways that psalms can function meaningfully in the liturgical life of congregations are explored especially in John Witvliet's concluding section I know of no work that combines practice and substance better than this lectionary commentary Patrick D Miller Princeton Theological Seminary A fascinating book well organized well written and edited thorough and informative An excellent resource not only for preachers using the Revised Common Lectionary but also for those wishing to preach a series of sermons on the Psalms In addition worship leaders and worship committees will appreciate the many excellent ideas for using the Psalms in worship Highly recommended Sidney Greidanus author of Preaching Christ from the Old Testament and Preaching Christ from

Genesis Here is something even better than a simple completion of The Lectionary Commentary which would be cause enough for gratitude Serious attention paid to this one book could go a long way toward remedying the scandalous neglect of the treasure of the Psalms in too much contemporary worship Marguerite Shuster Fuller Theological Seminary Contributors Nancy R Bowen William P Brown Walter Brueggemann Richard J Clifford Nancy L deClaiss Walford Jennifer S Green Karl N Jacobson Rolf A Jacobson Melody D Knowles Eunny P Lee Joel M LeMon James Limburg J Clinton McCann James K Mead Carol A Miles Luke A Powery Stephen Breck Reid Sandra L Richter Cynthia L Rigby Kathryn L Roberts Brent A Strawn Beth LaNeel Tanner Roger E Van Harn Raymond C Van Leeuwen J Ross Wagner Gerald H Wilson John Witvliet Christine Roy Yoder

Elizabeth F. Caldwell, 2024-01-02 Lent is an ideal time to step back and reflect on the deeper movements of the spirit and Elizabeth Caldwell helps readers do this through a simple but profound approach Pause Spending Lent with the Psalms invites us to take up the spiritual practice of encountering sinking into and deeply engaging with one psalm each week during Lent and Holy Week The season of Lent encourages Christians to consider a different pace one of slowing down noticing pausing than what our dominant culture values The invitation to pause with the Psalms begins on Ash Wednesday starting with a mark of ashes on our foreheads that reminds us that in spite of our failures things we have done or failed to do we belong to God Readers are then guided into an exploration of Psalm 51 and the theme of a clean heart Each chapter helps readers to connect an image drawn from that psalm such as paths faces blessing tables waiting thanksgiving listening being alone or abandoned and hands with their own lives At the close of each chapter readers are invited to try a different prayer practice to help them continue to reflect on the theme and psalm each day This intentional engagement without feeling burdensome opens just enough space and time for a creative spiritual practice to flourish sustaining the life of faith

The Poets of Ireland David James O'Donoghue, 1892 The Vision of Rubeta Laughton Osborn, 1838 Behind Manhattan Gables Edward Augustus Rand, 1896 Black and White Manhattan Thelma Wills Foote, 2004-10-28 Race first emerged as an important ingredient of New York City's melting pot when it was known as New Amsterdam and was a fledgling colonial outpost on the North American frontier Thelma Wills Foote details the arrival of the first immigrants including African slaves and traces encounters between the town's inhabitants of African European and Native American descent showing how racial domination became key to the building of the settler colony at the tip of Manhattan Island During the colonial era the art of governing the city's diverse and factious population Foote reveals involved the subordination of confessional linguistic and social antagonisms to binary racial difference Foote investigates everyday formations of race in slaveowning households on the colonial city's streets at its docks taverns and marketplaces and in the adjacent farming districts Even though the northern colonial port town afforded a space for black resistance that setting did not Foote argues effectively undermine the city's institution of black slavery This history of New York City demonstrates that the process of racial formation and the mechanisms of racial domination were central to the northern colonial experience and to the founding of the United States Religion and Art in the Heart of Modern Manhattan Aaron Rosen, 2017-07-28 When you're in New York the sculptor Louise Nevelson once said you're in perpetual resurrection She might have said the same thing about St Peter's Lutheran Church set in the heart of midtown Manhattan In the 1970s the church made a radical move scrapping its neo gothic building for a sleek modern structure in the shadow of a skyscraper The transformation was not just architectural Inside Nevelson created a shimmering chapel while over the years artists and designers such as Willem de Kooning Kiki Smith and Massimo and Lella Vignelli produced works for the sanctuary This fusion of modern art architecture and design was complemented by an innovative jazz ministry including funerals for Billy Strayhorn and John Coltrane and performances by Duke Ellington and other jazz legends For the first time this volume examines the astounding cultural output of this single church Just as importantly the story of St Peter's serves as a springboard for wider reflections on the challenges and possibilities which arise when religion and art intersect in the modern city Working from a wide range of disciplines including art history theology musicology and cultural studies a distinguished group of scholars demonstrate that this church at the center of New York City deserves an equally central place in contemporary scholarship General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
