Pacific Northwestern Spiritual Poetry:

Pacific Northwestern Spiritual Poetry Mark Stahley,1998 Pacific Northwestern Spiritual Poetry ,1998 The Pacific Northwest Raymond D. Gastil,Barnett Singer,2010-04-23 The Pacific Northwest for the purposes of this book mostly Oregon and Washington has sometimes been seen as lacking significant cultural history Home to idyllic environmental wonders the region has been plagued by the notion that the best and brightest often left in search of greater things that the mainstream world was thousands of miles away or at least as far south as California This book describes the Pacific Northwest's search for a regional identity from the first Indian European contacts through the late twentieth century identifying those individuals and groups who at least struggled to give meaning to the Northwest experience It places particular emphasis on writers and other celebrated individuals in the arts detailing how their lives and works both reflected the region and also enhanced its sense of self Greatest hits, 1976-2000 Dan Raphael,2001 In the Mystery's Shadow Susan H. Swetnam,2019-04-30 As our lifespans continue to grow longer millions of people every year spend time caring for the elderly and dying some as professionals some as volunteers and some through their loving but demanding care for parents spouses or other family members or friends In her book In the Mystery's Shadow Susan Swetnam draws on her experience serving thousands of ill and dying clients often in hospice programs as a certified massage therapist and also on her experience of caring for her own husband who died young of cancer She explains how this sometimes difficult work offers not just the fulfillment of giving comfort to people who need it but also moments of breathtaking wonder moments that hint at the untold complexity of being human and affirm our sacred connections with each other She writes of the hard lessons caregivers learn about themselves while at the same time knowing the strange and humbling sense of being used in the service of God's love Insightfully connecting end of life care with the liturgical year Swetnam invites those who care for the sick and dying whether professional or volunteer to stay awake to the sacred implications of their labors Poet's Market 34th Edition Robert Lee Brewer,2021-12-07 The Most Trusted Guide to Publishing Poetry fully revised and updated Want to get your poetry published There's no better tool for making it happen than Poet's Market which includes hundreds of publishing opportunities specifically for poets including listings for book and chapbook publishers print and online poetry publications contests and more These listings include contact information submission preferences insider tips on what specific editors want and when offered payment information In addition to the completely updated listings the 34th edition of Poet's Market offers Hundreds of updated listings for poetry related book publishers publications contests and more Insider tips on what specific editors want and how to submit poetry Articles devoted to the craft and business of poetry including how to track poetry submissions perform poetry and find more readers 77 poetic forms including guidelines for writing them 101 poetry prompts to inspire new poetry Poetry and the Religious Imagination Francesca Bugliani Knox,David Lonsdale,2016-04-22 What is the role of spiritual experience in poetry What are the marks of a religious imagination How close can the secular and the religious be brought together How do poetic imagination and religious beliefs interact Exploring such questions through the concept of the religious imagination this book integrates interdisciplinary research in the area of poetry on the one hand and theology philosophy and Christian spirituality on the other Established theologians philosophers literary critics and creative writers explain by way of contemporary and historical examples the primary role of the religious imagination in the writing as well as in the reading of poetry Everyday Annunciations Susan H. Swetnam, 2024-09-08 A spiritual guidebook and memoir for navigating life's challenges with a call to trust in God's grace and say yes How are we to understand the surprises life brings the events and upsets that challenge what we believe about ourselves and our purpose In Everyday Annunciations Susan Swetnam encourages readers to imagine how their own upheavals might function as everyday annunciations invitations to partner creatively with God in new ways Reflecting on six Renaissance paintings depicting Mary's response to her own annunciation Swetnam unflinchingly acknowledges the difficulty of regrouping when life changes radically Drawing on Mary's example wisdom figures both historical and contemporary Scripture and powerful personal narrative Everyday Annunciations offers constructive hope for those struggling to find a way forward when life catches them by surprise Saskatchewan Writers University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004 The more than 175 biographies in this volume together tell the story of writing in Saskatchewan As David Carpenter notes in his Introduction to the volume The writers whose lives are told in these pages are part of an extraordinary cultural community that has touched and been touched by the people and landscape of this province Betting on the Night Dennis Held, 2001 Betting on the Night Charles Bukowski, King of the Underground A. Debritto, 2013-09-25 This critical study of the literary magazines underground newspapers and small press publications that had an impact on Charles Bukowski's early career draws on archives privately held unpublished Bukowski work and interviews to shed new light on the ways in which Bukowski became an icon in the alternative literary scene in the 1960s Denise Levertov Dana Greene, 2012-09-30 Kenneth Rexroth called Denise Levertov 1923 1997 the most subtly skillful poet of her generation the most profound and the most moving Author of twenty four volumes of poetry four books of essays and several translations Levertov became a lauded and honored poet Born in England she published her first book of poems at age twenty three but it was not until she married and came to the United States in 1948 that she found her poetic voice helped by the likes of William Carlos Williams Robert Duncan and Robert Creeley Shortly before her death in 1997 the woman who claimed no country as home was nominated to be America's poet laureate Levertov was the quintessential romantic She wanted to live vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale She wanted the persistence of Cezanne and the depth and generosity of Rilke Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times Vehement and strident her poetry of protest was both acclaimed and criticized The end of both the Vietnam War and her marriage left her mentally fatigued and emotionally fragile but gradually over the span of a decade she emerged with new energy The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself Through all the vagaries of life and art her response was that of a primary wonder In this illuminating biography Dana Greene examines Levertov's interviews essays and self-revelatory poetry to discern the conflict and torment she both endured and created in her attempts to deal with her own psyche her relationships with family friends lovers colleagues and the times in which she lived Denise Levertov A Poet's Life is the first complete biography of Levertov a woman who claimed she did not want a biography insisting that it was her work that she hoped would endure And yet she confessed that her poetry in its various forms lyric political natural and religious derived from her life experience Although a substantial body of criticism has established Levertov as a major poet of the later twentieth century this volume represents the first attempt to set her poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life The Bell Tolls for No One Charles Bukowski, 2015

From the self-illustrated unpublished work written in 1947 to hardboiled contributions to 1980s adult magazines The Bell Tolls for No One presents the entire range of Bukowski's talent as a short story writer from straight up genre stories to postmodern blurring of fact and fiction An informative introduction by editor David Stephen Calonne provides historical context for these seemingly scandalous and chaotic tales revealing the hidden hand of the master at the top of his form The uncollected gutbucket ramblings of the grand dirty old man of Los Angeles letters have been gathered in this characteristically filthy funny compilation Bukowski's gift was a sense for the raunchy absurdity of life his writing a grumble that might turn into a belly laugh or a racking cough but that always throbbed with vital energy Kirkus Reviews Born in Andernach Germany and raised in Los Angeles Charles Bukowski published his first story when he was twenty-four and began writing poetry at the age of thirty-five His first book of poetry was published in 1959 he would eventually publish more than forty-five books of poetry and prose He died of leukemia in San Pedro California on March 9 1994 David Stephen Calonne is the author of several books and has edited three previous collections of the uncollected work of Charles Bukowski for City Lights Absence of the Hero Portions from a Wine Stained Notebook and More Notes of a Dirty Old Man Religion
