Composing the Music of Africa Malcolm Floyd,2018-12-17 First published in 1999 this volume explores the great diversity of music created by African communities is reflected in this book which discusses the ways in which a wide range of musical forms are composed and performed from Egypt to South Africa and from Ghana to Kenya As two composers explain here this diversity provides much inspiration for western contemporary composition Particular attention is paid to the contexts generate musical creativity Ceremonies and festivals celebrating birth death marriage or rites of passage provide the impetus for much composition and performance enabling young people to pick up early on some of the techniques and styles of which they then become the new exponents The book also looks at the role played by formal music education programmes and bodies such as the South African Music Rights Organization and the South African Broadcasting Corporation in fostering musical activity as well as the contribution of composers to the social and political changes that have dominated South African life in recent years Love, Money, and HIV Sanyu A. Mojola,2014-05-10 Sanyu A Mojola examines how young African women who suffer disproportionate rates of HIV infection compared to young African men navigate their relationships schooling employment and finances in the context of economic inequality and a devastating HIV epidemic Mojola argues that the entanglement of love money and the transformation of girls into consuming women lies at the heart of women s coming of age and health crises Shrouded Witness Francis Omondi,2025-06-30 The history of Christianity in Africa has often been told as a story of Western missions As such the contributions of local converts in shaping mission praxis and impacting the success of Christian witness on African soil has often been ignored In this study Dr Francis Omondi seeks to rectify historic omissions by exploring the role of African converts such as Reuben Omulo in establishing the Anglican Church in the Nyanza Province of western Kenya Utilizing Johannes Kritzinger s encounterological approach Omondi presents the growth of the church in Central Nyanza as the result of complex and dynamic encounters between Luo culture and Church Mission Society CMS theology Examining seven areas of belief and praxis such as contextual understanding interpretation of religious and cultural tradition and perspectives on the role of religious leaders he explores how CMS missionaries were impacted and ultimately transformed through their encounters with the Luo people and vice versa Filled with practical implications for the church in Kenya and beyond this study highlights the radical and often surprising power of encounter as the gospel becomes incarnate in all cultures and all places Lakes Catherine Chambers,Nicholas Lapthorn,2007 Where is the world s deepest lake What is a tarn How were the Great Lakes formed Mapping Earthforms looks at the physical features that shape our landscape The series explains how these features have developed how they support and challenge living things today and how they might change in the future The series shows how the lives of people plants and animals are shaped by their environment and how this environment is changing

Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Global Black Narratives for the Classroom: Africa, the Americas and the Caribbean BLAM UK,2023-12-06 Rather than reserving the teaching of Black history to Black history month Black narratives deserve to be seen and integrated into every aspect of the school curriculum A unique yet practical resource Global Black Narratives for the Classroom addresses this issue by providing primary teachers with a global outline of Black history culture and life within the framework of the UK s National Curriculum Each topic explored in this essential book provides teachers and teaching assistants with historical geographic and cultural context to build confidence when planning and teaching Full lesson plans and printable worksheets are incorporated into each topic alongside tips to build future lessons in line with the themes explored Volume II of this book explores the following parts Part 1 guides teachers through planning and delivering lessons focused on Africa Pupils will benefit from developing a diverse and accurate understanding of the changing nature of Africa throughout history linking the continent s social history with its geographical features Part 2 The Caribbean builds upon the lesson plans of Part 1 to further highlight the interconnectedness of diaspora cultures in influencing the musical visual and religious practices of the Caribbean and Central America Part 3 begins by addressing the incorrect assumption that the history of Black people in the Americas begins and ends with plantation slavery Instead this section proposes a range of in depth lesson plans on the diverse histories cultures and experiences of Black people within the United States Created by BLAM UK this highly informative yet practical resource is an essential read for any teacher teaching assistant or senior leader who wishes to diversify their curriculum and address issues of Black representation within their school It is published in two practical and comprehensive volumes Volume 1 covers Britain and Europe whilst Volume 2 includes Africa the Americas and the Caribbean Each volume can be used individually for teaching but when used together they provide a truly global perspective on black history and culture

The Nature of Entrustment Parker MacDonald Shipton,2007-01-01 This groundbreaking book addresses issues of the keenest interest to anthropologists specialists on Africa and those concerned with international aid and development Drawing on extensive research among the Luo people in western Kenya and abroad over many years Parker Shipton provides an insightful general ethnography In particular he focuses closely on nonmonetary forms of exchange and entrustment moving beyond anthropology s traditional understanding of gifts loans and reciprocity He proposes a new view of the social and symbolic dimensions of economy over the full life course including transfers between generations He shows why the enduring cultural values and aspirations of East African people and others around the world complicate issues of credit debt and compensation The book examines how the Luo assess obligations to intimates and strangers including the dead and the not yet born Borrowing lending and serial passing along have ritual religious and emotional dimensions no less than economic ones Shipton shows and insight into these connections demands a broad rethinking of all international aid plans
