and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen's Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover

No Coward Soldiers Waldo E. Martin, 2009-06-30 In a vibrant and passionate exploration of the twentieth century civil rights and black power eras in American history Martin uses cultural politics as a lens through which to understand the African American freedom struggle In the transformative postwar period the intersection between culture and politics became increasingly central to the African American fight for equality In Freedom Songs in the exuberance of an Aretha Franklin concert in Faith Ringgold's exploration of race and sexuality the personal and social became the political Engines of the Black Power Movement James L. Conyers, Jr., 2006-12-26 The decade of the 1960s was an era of protest in America and strides toward racial equality were among the most profound effects of the challenges to America's status quo But have civil rights for African Americans been furthered or even maintained in the four decades since the Civil Rights movement began To a certain extent the movement is popularly perceived as having regressed with the real issues tabled or hidden With a view to assessing losses and gains this collection of 17 essays examines the evolution and perception of the African American civil rights movement from its inception through today Encyclopedia of the Harlem Renaissance: A-J Cary D.
