Trauma, Torture and Dissociation Aida Alayarian,2018-03-21 Theoretical material is presented in close conjunction with clinical data in the form of vignettes and case studies to illustrate the key points outlined in this book which focuses on the multidimensional approach to the understanding of childhood trauma It examines the contributions of psychoanalysis emphasising the act of dissociation healthy and unhealthy Specific attention is given to the internalisation of the m other object as the listening other and the dissociated part s that may results in an over idealised yet feared object The final discussion focuses on how patients in therapy become able to transform fears into psychic space and to break away from vulnerability by developing a better sense of self as the result of having the therapist as the listening other

Broke Katherine Porter,2012-01-11 About 1 5 million households filed bankruptcy in the last year making bankruptcy as common as college graduation and divorce The recession has pushed more and more families into financial collapse with unemployment declines in retirement wealth and falling house values destabilizing the American middle class Broke explores the consequences of this unprecedented growth in consumer debt and shows how excessive borrowing undermines the prosperity of middle class America While the recession that began in mid 2007 has widened the scope of the financial pain caused by overindebtedness the problem predated that large scale economic meltdown And by all indicators consumer debt will be a defining feature of middle class families for years to come The staples of middle class life going to college buying a house starting a small business carry with them more financial risk than ever before requiring more borrowing and new riskier forms of borrowing This book reveals the people behind the statistics looking closely at how people get to the point of serious financial distress the hardships of dealing with overwhelming debt and the difficulty of

righting one's financial life In telling the stories of financial failures this book exposes an all too real part of middle class life that is often lost in the success stories that dominate the American economic narrative Authored by experts in several disciplines including economics law political science psychology and sociology Broke presents analyses from an original proprietary data set of unprecedented scope and detail the 2007 Consumer Bankruptcy Project Topics include class status home ownership educational attainment impacts of self employment gender differences economic security and the emotional costs of bankruptcy The book makes judicious use of illustrations to present key findings and concludes with a discussion of the implications of the data for contemporary policy debates Impossibility Fiction Derek Littlewood, Peter Stockwell, 1996 Impossibility fiction is an intergenre that has recently been the resort of many writers searching for new ways of understanding and expressing the real world of the imagination making use of fantasy alternative history and science fiction Coping with ideas that are both impossible and realistically constructed is the ultimate contemporary challenge of our technology The chapters of this book move towards establishing appropriate readings that allow contemporary readers to negotiate unreality a skill that the end of the millennium is making inevitably necessary Such strategies have long been the preserve of literary and cultural study and here a number of well regarded scholars and some new to the field make their contribution to an area that has become increasingly important in recent years From Mary Shelley to Philip K Dick Iain M Banks to J G Ballard taking in African American science fiction Jurassic Park and Kurt Vonnegut and exploring issues of alternative history and ideology feminism the holocaust characterisation and impossible geography this collection is an important source book for all those interested in the literature culture and philosophy of realistic impossible worlds The Homilist , 1866 Criminal Law Directions Nicola Monaghan, 2020 Do your students understand the difference between murder and manslaughter Are they confused by the concept of mens rea and accessory liability Criminal Law Directions tackles these and many more questions introducing students to this exciting area of law The Directions series has been written with students in mind The ideal guide as they approach the subject for the first time this book will help them DT Gain a complete understanding of the topic just the right amount of detail conveyed clearly DT Understand the law in context with scene setting introductions and highlighted case extracts the practical importance of the law becomes clear DT Identify when and how to critically evaluate the law they'll be introduced to the key areas of debate and given the confidence to question the law DT Deepen and test knowledge visually engaging learning and self testing features aid understanding and help students tackle assessments with confidence DT Elevate their learning with the ground work in place you can aspire to take learning to the next level with direction provided on how to go further An extensive selection of online resources accompany this text including DT Multiple choice questions DT Flashcard glossary DT Guidance on answering the end of chapter exam questions Guidance on answering the end of chapter self test questions Additional lecturer resources include DT Diagrams from the text DT A test bank of further multiple choice questions Reimagining Mission From Urban Places Anna

Ruddick,2020-02-28 Reimagining Mission from Urban Places offers much needed reflection about the nature of mission and about expectations for missional outcomes Using the stories of team members within the Eden Network which emphasises an incarnational approach to urban mission the book demonstrates that at its best mission happens in a shared life rather than being about us telling the listening world Wagering on Transcendence Phyllis Carey,1997 Wagering on Transcendence explores the question of ultimate meaning in literature Through essays Mount Mary College professors from various disciplines analyze several pieces of literature from a variety of genres and authors to show how each depicts the human struggle to find meaning The essays analyze concrete examples of spiritual journeys the ways in which nature can be an avenue of transcendence the transforming effect that the search for meaning can have on the individual how transcendence can be experienced through community the roles of language and story in the quest for transcendence and the wager itself how our bets about the existence of the Divine determine how we live our lives Summary of Darlene Lancer's Conquering Shame and Codependency Everest Media,2022-10-10T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 Shame is the feeling of being a bad or unworthy person It underlies all addictions 2 People often judge us when they re not and we judge ourselves when they are 3 Shame is the feeling of being a bad or unworthy person It underlies all addictions It is inevitable and it is part of our human condition 4 Shame is the feeling of being a bad or unworthy person It underlies all addictions It is inevitable and it is part of our human condition The Language and Imagery of Coma and Brain Injury Matthew Colbeck,2021-04-22 What occurs within coma What does the coma patient experience How does the patient perceive the world outside of coma if at all The simple answer to these questions is that we don t know Yet the sheer volume of literary and media texts would have us believe that we do Examining representations of coma and brain injury across a variety of texts this book investigates common tropes and linguistic devices used to portray the medical condition of coma giving rise to universal mythologies and misconceptions in the public domain Matthew Colbeck looks at how these texts represent or fail to represent long term brain injury drawing on narratives of coma survivors that have been produced and curated through writing groups he has run over the last 10 years Discussing a diverse range of cultural works including novels by Irvine Welsh Stephen King Tom McCarthy and Douglas Coupland as well as film and media texts such as The Sopranos Kill Bill Coma and The Walking Dead Colbeck provides an explanation for our fascination with coma With a proliferation of misleading stories of survival in the media and in literature this book explores the potential impact these have upon our own understanding of coma and its victims Criminal Law Jonathan Herring,2016 Jonathan Herring s unique and bestselling approach of separating out the doctrinal and theoretical aspects of the law alongside expertly selected extracts makes this book enduringly popular with students and teachers Simester and Sullivan's Criminal Law A P Simester,J R Spencer,F Stark,G R Sullivan,G J Virgo,2019-08-22 This is the new edition of the leading textbook on criminal law by Professors Simester and Sullivan now co written with Professors Spencer Stark and Virgo

Simester and Sullivan's Criminal Law is an outstanding account of modern English criminal law combining detailed exposition and analysis of the law with a careful exploration of its theoretical underpinnings. Primarily it is written for undergraduate students of criminal law and it has become the set text in many leading universities. Additionally, the book is used as an important point of reference in academic writing and postgraduate research in England and abroad. Simester and Sullivan's Criminal Law has been cited by appellate courts throughout the world. Review of Previous Edition undoubtedly a first rate companion for any undergraduate or post graduate law course. Since attaining international recognition and citation in appellate courts worldwide, the security of the text's position as a point of academic reference remains as steadfast as ever.

John Taggart Criminal Law Review Homicide and the Politics of Law Reform Jeremy Horder, 2012-07-12 What makes murder murder? How should we understand the difference between intentional and reckless killing? Should offenders be punished differently according to the perceived severity of their crime and when should they be excused? These questions are the topic of intense debate within legal circles and beyond. In the UK, the US and the rest of the world, Jeremy Horder's role as the Law Commissioner for England and Wales on criminal law has given him unique insight into these questions and the debates surrounding them. Here he analyses the recent political and legal reform movements, offering a political history of homicide law reform from the 19th century to the modern era. Using homicide as a starting point, Horder raises deeper questions of who is and should be responsible for making and changing the law. What role should there be for expert bodies, judges and politicians? What role should there be for the general public? These questions invoke strong emotional responses. Horder argues that comprehensive research into and a degree of deference to public opinion on the scope of homicide is essential to the reform process. It is essential principally as a means of conferring true legitimacy on homicide reform in a democracy. Elite or expert opinion alone will never authentically secure such legitimacy. Offering an insider's view into the processes of achieving law reform, Horder expresses criticism of a system that excludes the vast majority of people from consultation on reform of the laws that govern them.

Hollywood Renaissance Sam B. Girgus, 1998-08-13 A study of how films from the late 1930s to the early 1960s portrayed the American ideal.

Personal and Archetypal Dynamics in the Analytical Relationship Mary Ann Mattoon, 1991 The 11th International Congress for Analytical Psychology was held in Paris from 28 August to 2 September 1989. It is no surprise that the theme of Personal and Archetypal Dynamics in the Analytical Relationship succeeded in drawing widely varying and controversial responses. More than ever before, the fifty-five contributors of papers represent Jungian groups from around the globe in every sense. However, while differences of approach are evident throughout this fascinating collection, so too is an ever more significant sense of synthesis. In the end, we all share a common task.
