New Age Politics Healing Self And Society A Delta:

The Fourth Wave Herman Maynard, Susan E. Mehrtens, 1996-08-31 Applying the concept of historical waves originally propounded by Alvin Toffler in The Third Wave Herman Maynard and Susan Mehrtens look toward the next century and foresee a fourth wave an era of integration and responsibility far beyond Toffler's revolutionary description of third wave postindustrial society Whether we attain this stage of global well being however will depend on how well our business institutions adapt and change The Fourth Wave examines the ways business has changed in the second and third waves and must continue to change in the fourth The changes concern the basics how an institution is organized how it defines wealth how it relates to surrounding communities how it responds to environmental needs and how it takes part in the political process Maynard and Mehrtens foresee a radically different future in which business principles concern for the environment personal integrity and spiritual values are integrated The authors also demonstrate the need for a new kind of leadership managers and CEOs who embrace an attitude of global stewardship who define their assets as ideas information creativity and vision and who strive for seamless boundaries between work and private lives for all employees

Easternization of the West Colin Campbell, 2015-11-17 In this provocative and groundbreaking book Colin Campbell shows that the civilization of the West is undergoing a revolutionary process of change one in which features that have characterized the West for two thousand years are in the process of being marginalized to be replaced by those more often associated with the civilizations of the East Moving far beyond popular trends Campbell assembles a powerful range of evidence to show how Easternization has been building throughout the last century especially since the 1960s Campbell demonstrates how it was largely in the 1960s that new interpretations in theology political thought and science were widely adopted by a new generation of young culture carriers This highly original and wide ranging book advances a thesis that will be of interest to scholars in many disciplines in the humanities and social sciences

Faith and Modernity Philip Sampson, Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 2011-08-05 The distinctive social and cultural developments of recent years are so familiar to us as to become invisible So write the editors in the introduction Although no missionaries worth their salt would try to evangelize without first studying the cultural and spiritual background of their hearers the church in the late twentieth century often does not begin to understand modern and postmodern thinking At the second conference of the Lausanne Committee for World Evangelization in Manila 1989 Dr Os Guinness gave a paper on Faith and Modernity which provoked great interest As part of the response to his paper a conference was held in Uppsala Sweden in 1993 at which an international group of experts probed more deeply into the questions of modernity and post modernity Participants represented the United States Canada India Norway Sweden and the United Kingdom They included such well known experts as Os Guinness James Hunter Lesslie Newbigin Vinay Samuel Elaine Storkey and David Wells Each of them has contributed to this volume covering such topics as What is Modernity Truth and Authority in Modernity Information Technology and Christian Faith New Age Modernity and

Spirituality Modernity and Morality This collection of papers is offered as a resource and a challenge to the church for its mission in the context of the modern world

Firewalking and Religious Healing Loring M. Danforth, 2016-09-29 If the Saint calls you if you have an open road then you don't feel the fire as if it were your enemy says one of the participants in the Anastenaria This compelling work evokes and contrasts two forms of firewalking and religious healing first the Anastenaria a northern Greek ritual in which people who are possessed by Saint Constantine dance dramatically over red hot coals and second American firewalking one of the more spectacular activities of New Age psychology Loring Danforth not only analyzes these rituals in light of the most recent work in medical and symbolic anthropology but also describes in detail the lives of individual firewalkers involving the reader personally in their experiences he views ritual therapy as a process of transformation and empowerment through which people are metaphorically moved from a state of illness to a state of health Danforth shows that the Anastenaria and the songs accompanying it allow people to express and resolve conflict laden family relationships that may lead to certain kinds of illnesses He also demonstrates how women use the ritual to gain a sense of power and control over their lives without actually challenging the ideology of male dominance that pervades Greek culture Comparing the Anastenaria with American firewalking Danforth includes a gripping account of his own participation in a firewalk in rural Maine Finally he examines the place of anthropology in a postmodern world in which the boundaries between cultures are becoming increasingly blurred

Birnbaum,Barbara Dazzo,1988 This exciting book captures the rich heritage of social group work and links the origin of social group work to its present and future frontiers The first 100 years of social group work are celebrated in this volume as social workers address a wide range and diversity of group work practice theory research and education with information on health and mental health institutions substance abuse programs rehabilitation centers the correctional system family service agencies nursing homes and other specialized areas including industry child and spouse abuse and incest Roots and New Frontiers in Social Group Work consists of selected proceedings from the Seventh Consecutive Symposium of the Committee for the Advancement of Social Work With Groups sponsored by Rutgers University School of Social Work The Solar Energy Transition Daniel Rich,Jon M Veigel,Allen M Barnett,John Byrne,2019-07-11 Solar energy is considered by many an attractive and practical option for America s energy future one that is technically and commercially feasible as well as socially and environmentally desirable Sun generated power could meet upwards of 20 percent of U S energy needs by the year 2000 but only if there is a concerted national effort to use this energy option The issues of implementation and the public and private initiatives needed to facilitate a transition to extensive use of solar energy are the focus of this volume The solar transition is addressed from the diverse perspectives of the many necessary participants industries and small businesses local state regional and federal governments public utilities policy analysts and solar advocates The contributors assess the extent to which solar alternatives can replace and augment other energy forms the pace and pattern for solar commercialization and the roles of public and private institutions in carrying out the transition A consensus becomes apparent Although the transition to solar energy is technically and commercially viable its success depends on concerted public and private efforts to promote innovation and diversification in energy production and distribution and to institute major changes in public policy related to energy use Cultural Theory Michael Thompson,2018-06-27 Why do people want what they want Why does one person see the world as a place to control while another feels controlled by the world A useful theory of culture the authors contend should start with these questions and the answers given different historical conditions should apply equally well to people of all times places and walks of life Taking their cue from the pioneering work of anthropologist Mary Douglas the authors of Cultural Theory have created a typology of five ways of life egalitarianism fatalism individualism hierarchy and autonomy to serve as an analytic tool in examining people culture and politics They then show how cultural theorists can develop large numbers of falsifiable propositions Drawing on parables poetry case studies fiction and the Great Books the authors illustrate how cultural biases and social relationships interact in particular ways to yield life patterns that are viable sustainable and ultimately changeable under certain conditions Figures throughout the book show the dynamic quality of these ways of life and specifically illustrate the role of surprise in effecting small and large scale change The authors compare Cultural Theory with the thought of master social theorists from Montesquieu to Stinchcombe and then reanalyze the classic works in the political culture tradition from Almond and Verba to Pye Demonstrating that there is more to social life than hierarchy and individualism the authors offer evidence from earlier studies showing that the addition of egalitarianism and fatalism facilitates cross national comparisons
