Nomads Of A Desert City Personal Stories From Citizens Of The Street:

Nomads of a Desert City Barbara Seyda, 2016-12-15 You see them as faceless shapes on the median or in city parks You recognize them by their cardboard signs their bags of aluminum cans or their weathered skin But you do not know them In Nomads of a Desert City Barbara Seyda meets the gazes of our homeless neighbors and with an open heart and the eye of an accomplished photographer uncovers their compelling stories of life on the edge Byrdy is a teenager from Alaska who left a violent husband and misses the young daughter her mother now cares for Her eyes show a wisdom that belies her youth Samuel is 95 and collects cans for cash His face shows a lifetime of living outside while his eyes hint at the countless stories he could tell Lamanda worked as an accountant before an act of desperation landed her in prison Now she struggles to raise the seven children of a woman she met there Dorothy whose earliest memories are of physical and sexual abuse lives in a shelter paycheck to paycheck reciting affirmations so she may continue to grace the world with my presence They live on the streets or in shelters They are women and men young and old Native or Anglo or Black or Hispanic Their faces reflect the forces that have shaped their lives alcoholism poverty racism mental illness and abuse But like desert survivors they draw strength from some hidden reservoir Few recent studies on homelessness offer such a revealing collection of oral history narratives and compelling portraits Thirteen homeless women and men open a rare window to enrich our understanding of the complex personal struggles and triumphs of their lives Nomads of a Desert City sheds a glaring light on the shadow side of the American Dream and takes us to the crossroads of despair and hope where the human spirit survives Sacred

Shelter Susan Celia Greenfield, 2021-05-20 An inside look at an interfaith program for the homeless in New York City including in depth stories of those who have graduated and made new lives In a metropolis like New York homelessness can blend into the urban landscape For Susan Greenfield however New York is the place where a community of resilient remarkable individuals is yearning for a voice Sacred Shelter follows the lives of thirteen formerly homeless people all of whom have graduated from an interfaith life skills program for current and former homeless individuals in the city Through interviews these individuals share traumas from their youth their experience with homelessness and the healing they ve discovered through community and faith Edna Humphrey talks about losing her grandparents father and sister to illness accident and abuse Lisa Sperber discusses her bipolar disorder and her whiteness Dennis Barton speaks about his unconventional path to becoming a first generation college student and his journey to reconnect with his family The memoirists share stories about youth family jobs and love They describe their experiences with racism mental illness sexual assault and domestic violence Each of the thirteen storytellers honestly expresses his or her broken heartedness and how finding community and faith gave them hope to carry on Interspersed are reflections from program directors clerics mentors and volunteers including the cofounder of the program While Sacred Shelter does not tackle the socioeconomic conditions and inequities that cause homelessness it provides a voice for a demographic group that continues to suffer from systemic

Anthony Waine,2007-12-01 Changing Cultural Tastes offers a critical survey of the taste wars fought over the past two centuries between the intellectual establishment and the common people in Germany It charts the uneasy relationship of high and popular culture in Germany in the modern era The impact of National Socialism and the strong influence from Great Britain and the United States are assessed in this cultural history of a changing nation and society The period 1920 1980 is given special prominence and the work of significant writers and artists such as Josef von Sternberg and Bertolt Brecht Elfriede Jelinek and Rolf Dieter Brinkmann Erwin Piscator and Heinrich B ll is closely analysed Their work has reflected changing tastes and crucially helped to make taste more pluralistic and democratic The Challenge Road Amrit Wilson,1991 The book describes the course of the women s struggle for national liberation and women s emancipation in Eritrea Belong Jennifer Morton,2004 Jennifer Morton armed with a knap sack full of cameras chased the global art music and culture scene As producer and host of TV Frames a show focusing on urban culture using a documentary style format Belong is also a look at how art music and culture survive in places most of the rest of the world associate with poverty and civil strife Desert Magazine ,1944 Ancient Times James Breasted,2018-01-19 In the selection of subject matter as well as in style and diction it has been the purpose of the author to make this book sufficiently simple to be put into the hands of first year high school pupils A great deal of labor has been devoted to the mere task of clear and simple statement and arrangement While simple enough for first year high school work it nevertheless is planned to interest and stimulate all students of high school age In dealing with each civilization a sufficient framework of political organization and of historical events has been laid down but the bulk of the space has been devoted to the life of man in all its manifestation society industry commerce religion art literature These things are do presented as to make it clear how one age grows out of another and how each civilization profits by that which has preceded it Jewish Renaissance ,2005 Global Deserts Outlook Exequiel Ezcurra,2006 Namibia Business Intelligence Report Practical Information Opportunities Contacts New-Church Messenger ,1916 Writing Design Fiction Tony Fry,2021-10-21 Written by leading design philosopher Tony Fry Writing Design Fiction Relocating a City in Crisis is both an introduction to the power of design fiction in the design process and a novella length work of fiction in itself telling the dramatic story of the relocation of the City of Harshon Set in the near future Harshon a delta city is facing environmental catastrophe due to rising sea levels consequently a decision is made to relocate the entire city inland A diverse cast of voices including an architect a journalist an economist a construction worker and residents narrate the extraordinary challenges and complexities which follow This work presents a real world scenario which in coming decades will face many of the world s cities The fictional format provides a novel way of exploring the very serious inherent technical social political economic and cultural challenges The story provides a rehearsal of the design challenges which are likely to face architects planners and designers in an uncertain global future Design fiction is a fast growing area within design and architecture increasingly deployed as a serious methodology by designers as a tool in scenario planning Writing Design Fiction takes the practice to a higher level conceptually and theoretically but also practically The book is divided into four parts with the fictional narrative bookended by further critical analysis Part One shows how a critique of existing modes of design fiction can lead to more grounded and critical thinking and practice Part Three critically reflects on the narrative while Part Four presents the practical application of the second order design fiction approach This book demonstrates the value of a more developed mode of design fiction to students professional designers and architects across the breadth of design practices as well as to other disciplines interested in the future of cities Asia and the Americas,1924 The California Monthly ,1926 California Alumni Fortnightly ,1926
