Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie der im Ausland erschienenen deutschsprachigen Veröffentlichungen ,1996 Overseas Chinese Entrepreneurship and Capitalist Development in Southeast Asia Annabelle R. Gambe,2000 The study aims at finding an explanation to the economic development of Southeast Asia To achieve this end Indonesia Malaysia Thailand and the Philippines have been chosen as the foci of the study To explain the region s recent success the study is guided by the hypothesis that overseas Chinese entrepreneurship exercised by a group belonging to a discriminated ethnic minority is an indispensable component of the capitalist development of Southeast Asia Overseas Chinese businesses dominate nearly all branches of the economy of their respective countries of residence On a regional scale they are acknowledged to control two thirds of the region s retail trade The hypothesis of the study is validated by the empirical findings Furthermore the study has arrived at the conclusion that Southeast Asia is host to a type of entrepreneurship Overseas Chinese entrepreneurship that evolved and developed throughout the centuries and proven for its resiliency and risk taking abilities It did not create the boom in the region however Liberal government policies the inflow of huge foreign capital and the availability of cheap and skilled labor among the indigenous population are among the more crucial factors that facilitated this transformation Bibliographie der Wirtschaftswissenschaften ,1990 Chinese Capitalism in Southeast Asia Yos Santasombat,2017-09-04 This collection examines the historically and geographically specific form of economic organization of the overseas Chinese in Southeast Asia and how it has adapted to the different historical and socio political contexts of Southeast Asian countries Moving beyond cultural explanations and traits to focus on the process of evolution and dynamism of situated practices it argues that Chinese Capitalism is rapidly becoming a form of hybrid capitalism and embodies the interdependent of culturally and institutionally specific dynamics at local and regional level evolving and adapting to different institutional contexts and politico economic conditions in the host Asian economies This text also explores the social organization and political economy of the so called overseas Chinese by examining the changing dynamism of Chinese capitalism in relation to forces of globalization Focusing on key actors primarily Chinese entrepreneurs in their business practices and situated practices as well as cultural political social and economic factors under globalizing conditions it provides providing a broad understanding without fixating or homogenizing Chinese capitalism contributing to the understanding of the contexts that give rise to the emergence and transformation of Chinese Capitalism in Southeast Asia Bibliographie der Staats-und Wirtschaftswissenschaften ,1990 Culture and Economy Timothy Brook,Hy V. Luong,1999 Shows how rapid expansion of capitalism in Eastern Asia constitutes a challenge to Western social theory Chinese Capitalism and Economic Integration in Southeast Asia Yos Santasombat,2018-04-12 China s rise exerts a powerful pull on ASEAN economies and constitutes an impetus for a resinicization of Overseas Chinese in Southeast Asia China has become a skilled practitioner of commercial diplomacy and as long as it continues to lead the way in regional integration China's state led capitalism will seek to integrate itself into the ASEAN Economic Community This in effect becomes China's essential strategy of desecuritization for the region With increasing trade and investment between China and ASEAN countries the ethnic Chinese economic elites have managed to serve as connectors and bridges between the two sides and benefited in the process from joint ventures and business investments The impact of new Chinese Capitalism on SMEs however has not been equally positive As China rises Southeast Asia has witnessed increased complexity and variations of hybrid capitalism including alliances between state led capitalism transnational entrepreneurs emanating from China's going out policy and ethnic Chinese in Southeast Asia Three main forms of Chinese Capitalism in Southeast Asia are neoliberal capitalism flexible capitalism and Confucian capitalism These intermingle into a range of local varieties under different socio economic conditions

Market Cultures Robert W. Hefner, 2018-10-08 Market Cultures examines the spectacular growth of capitalist enterprise among overseas Chinese and Southeast Asians It does so not through formal models but by way of the varied cultures and organizations in which Asian capitalism is embedded Eschewing talk of a uniform Asian miracle the book shows that there existed complex precedents for Southeast Asian Capitalists Ruth T. McVey, 2018-05-31 This collection of essays explores the origins and roles of Southeast Asian business groups especially as they developed during the 1970s and 1980s An important contribution to studies of ethnic Chinese entrepreneurship in Southeast Asia Includes a comprehensive introduction by the editor

Overseas Chinese Entrepreneurship in Southeast Asia Annabelle Gambe, 1996

Rural Capitalists in Asia Mario Rutten, 2003 This is a comparative study of small capitalists and rural industrialists in three Asian countries Studies on the entrepreneurial class in South Asia tend to focus on the structural aspects of entrepreneurial behaviour while studies on this class in Southeast Asia tend to focus on cultural aspects of their behaviour In fact this book points to striking similarities between Indian overseas Chinese and Muslim businessmen in Asia similarities usually hidden under variations in analytical approaches Although this study emphasizes similarities within Asia it does not support the view of a specific Asian business pattern different to the rise of non Asian especially European entrepreneurs The findings are of major interest not just within the fields of anthropology and entrepreneurship but to all scholars working on South or Southeast Asia who will find much of interest in the author's observations of variable research results between the two regions

Contrasting Japanese & Overseas Chinese Capitalism Gwynne Maret Murphy, 1996

Capital and Entrepreneurship in South-East Asia Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown, 2016-07-27 This book traces the growth of capitalism in South East Asia between 1870 and 1941 a crucial element in understanding contemporary economic and political developments in the region It focuses on three questions Why was indigenous capitalism so weak in colonial South East Asia What were the institutional weaknesses in an otherwise dominant Chinese capitalist class and why did it fail to transform itself into a modern industrial elite What was the impact of western colonialism and Japanese economic penetration on South East Asia's prospects for achieving sustainable economic growth Emerging Capitalism in Central Europe and Southeast Asia F. Bafoil, 2015-12-24 This book examines the emergence of different forms of capitalism in Central Eastern states in Europe and Mekong states within the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN. All of them but Thailand have historically disappeared from the regional maps for long periods of time due to colonial or imperial rule. Most of them were previously members of a soviet type economy and they all joined ASEAN or the European Union in the 1990s or in the 2000s. These states are characterized by a strong urge toward feelings of national sovereignty due to their experiences with colonialism and imperialism. But due to the regional economic pressures and the globalization dynamic these states cannot articulate protectionist policies. They are forced to open their economies in order to attract Foreign Direct Investments. This results in less regulated and more political forms of capitalism than in some more developed capitalist countries. This book analyzes forms of capitalism as the arising from a combination of three conditions: the legacy of the foreign occupations, the national construction process of the sovereign state and lastly the dynamics of regional integration. These states' claims to national sovereignty and the manner in which they developed suggests a causative link between the forms of political domination that have presided over these transformations and the forms of capitalism that have resulted.

East Asian Capitalism Andrew Walter, Xiaoke Zhang, 2012-07-26 The increasing economic and political importance of East Asia in the global political economy requires a deeper analysis of the nature of the capitalist systems in this region than has been provided by the existing literature on comparative capitalisms. This volume brings together conceptual and empirical analyses of the evolving patterns of East Asian capitalism against the backdrop of regional and global market integration and periodic economic crises since the 1980s. Focusing on China, Japan, South Korea, Indonesia, the Philippines, Malaysia, Taiwan, and Thailand, it provides an interdisciplinary account of variations, continuities, and changes in the institutional structures that govern financial systems, industrial relations, and product markets and that shape the evolution of national political economies. While the volume encompasses a range of different cases, specific issues, and diverse methodologies, all the chapters address two dominant themes: the continuities and changes in the institutional underpinnings of capitalist development and the main driving forces behind them. The book thus provides an integrated analysis of how changing institutional practices in business, financial, and labour systems interact and affect the evolution of capitalist political economies in the region.

The Institutional Structure of Overseas Chinese Entrepreneurship in Southeast Asia Adam C. Mayes, 1993

Economic Success of Chinese Merchants in Southeast Asia Janet Tai Landa, 2018-07-05 This book provides an original analysis of the economic success of Overseas Chinese merchants in Southeast Asia. The ethnically homogeneous group of Chinese middlemen is an informal low cost organization for the provision of club goods e.g. contract enforcement that are essential to merchants' success. The author's theory and various extensions with emphasis on kinship and other trust relationships draws on economics and the other social sciences and beyond to evolutionary biology Empirical material from her fieldwork forms the basis for developing her unique integrative and transdisciplinary theoretical framework with important policy implications for understanding ethnic conflict in multiethnic societies where minority groups dominate merchant roles Merchant Princes of the East Rupert Hodder, 1996-05 The final chapter draws upon the arguments developed earlier in the book to consider the significance of the links between China and the Overseas Chinese both for China and for the Far East as a whole Economic Development in Southeast Asia Yuan-li Wu, Chun-hsi Wu, 1980 Monograph on the role of Chinese ethnic groups in South East Asia s economic development discusses emigration evolution of commercial enterprise national level attitudes geographic distribution social institutions the contribution of entrepreneurship human resources and capital resources regional development comments on racial discrimination restrictive government policies and legislation affecting their businesses and labour force and includes economic implications trends and recommendations Graphs references and statistical tables

Varieties of Capitalism in Asia David Hundt, Jitendra Uttam, 2017-08-02 This book devises an innovative new way of explaining how socioeconomic orders shape capitalism in Asia Hundt and Uttam go beyond both the varieties of capitalism approach which is mainly used to analyse Western capitalism and the developmental state thesis which is the primary framework for analysing capitalism in Asia and propose a new and innovative approach to the emergence of capitalist systems Rather than focusing solely or predominantly on the state they argue it is necessary to bring society back in to an analysis of capitalism The authors apply this approach to case studies from across the region Japan South Korea and Taiwan Hong Kong and Singapore Malaysia and Thailand and India and China This volume will appeal to historians political scientists and economists as well as policymakers who are interested in the transformation of the Asian region since World War II
