Pacesettersthorns Of Life:

Thorns of Life David G. Maillu, 1988 Urban Obsessions, Urban Fears John Roger Kurtz, 1998 Kurtz's analysis the development of the Kenyan novel in English emphasizes the historical contingencies affecting the production of literature in Kenya and how succeeding generations have drawn from and expanded the thematic repertoire established by the first generation of works in the 1960s He explores the relationship between the novel and the city and how obsessions and fears about the urbanization have been expressed and represented through different generations of Kenyan writers Kurtz has also put together the first annotated bibliography of all the anglophone Kenyan novels that have appeared since Ngugi wa Thiong'o wrote Weep Not Child Ngugi's Weep Not Child made an immediate impact on its publication in 1964 Since then hundreds of novels by Kenyans have been published This is a comprehensive introduction to the postcolonial novel in English Three broad areas are identified the first generation of the sixties the golden age of the seventies and the years after Kenyatta in the 80s and 90s A unifying feature is an uneasy but marked emphasis on the city particularly Nairobi The city is used by novelists as both the site and the symbol for a range of obsessions and fears about postcolonial society There is particular emphasis on the changing ways in which the city has been portrayed since Ngugi's first novel the relation of popular literature to the city the portrayal of women in the city and the special status of Meja Mwangi's urban novels New Fiction in English from Africa: West, East, and South André Viola, Jacqueline Bardolph, Denise Coussey, 2022-05-20 The term recent or new covers novels and some short fiction published between 1980 and 1995 a period characterized by growing pessimism about the state of affairs in both East and West Africa The section on South Africa deals more narrowly with the 1985-95 watershed marking the end of official apartheid and the beginning of reconstruction The three sections aim at giving a coherent picture of the main directions in production highlighting three main centres of interest Nigeria Kenya and the Republic of South Africa although some novelists from neighbouring countries are also considered such as Kofi Awoonor from Ghana Nuruddin Farah from Somalia and M G Vassanji and Abdulrazak Gurnah from Tanzania The evaluations conducted in the three sections lead to the emergence of a number of common themes in particular the writers' predilection for topicality the role of the past and the controversy over the idea of the nation Central themes also include the role of women in feeding for themselves both in rural and in urban environments A further major theme is the role of the past the Nigerian civil war the Mau Mau period in Kenya the revisiting of slavery the refurbishing of myth the questioning of historical reconstructions The preoccupation of the West East and South African novel with the idea and ideal of the nation is explored particularly in the context of migrancy hybridity and transculturalism characterizing the anglophone diaspora The volume is aimed at literary scholars and students and more generally readers of fiction seeking an introduction to contemporary literary developments in various parts of sub-Saharan anglophone Africa No categorical distinction is drawn between popular and high literature Though still selective and not intended as an exhaustive catalogue the present survey covers a large number of titles Rather than resorting to broad and ultimately somewhat abstract thematic categories the contributors endeavour to keep control over this mass of material by applying a micro thematic taxonomy This approach well tested in the tradition of literary studies within France groups works analytically and evaluatively in terms of such categories as actional motifs plot frames and sociologically relevant locations or topics thereby enabling a clearer focus on the dynamics of preoccupation and tendency that form networks of affinity across the fiction produced in the period surveyed

Encyclopedia of Africa South of the Sahara: Literature - Reunion John Middleton,1997 Africana-Sammlung und Africana-Katalog in der Stadtbibliothek Winterthur : Band 3: 1982-1990 Stadtbibliothek Winterthur,1977 Band 3 Augustine's Teaching on the Two Cities (Civitates) and Nigerian Society Leonard Oshiokhamele Anetekhai,2020-09-28 Augustine's creative and allegorical thought in his City of God on social life is one that provides citizens of the earthly cities especially Christians an opportunity to understand why and how they should contribute positively to public life through faith and social responsibility Believing that human life is social our human social existence must transcend and go beyond social religious and political affiliations This requires that individuals be good and upright in their social engagements as religious and political citizens It also entails individual rights duties and obligations without excluding the fight against injustice social vice exploitation and power abuse within human society These sets of values and the positive outcome thereof can only be achieved through love This love is the driving force to social peace a love which must promote order and justice within societal life Irrespective of its heavenly orientation these teachings are significantly context bound like every theological and philosophical endeavour that concerns and connects the human person to its earthly realities Contextualising these concepts within human existence flows from a social religious and political assessment It tends primarily towards moral benefits and social norms that must not lose sight of the spiritual reality which enlightens and build good moral conscience that impacts virtues and values in society

New Encyclopedia of Africa John Middleton,2008 Contains a collection of alphabetically arranged entries from Nairobi to Symbols on the history geography culture religion and ideologies wars and economy of the African nations and includes essays and photographs Africana-Sammlung und Africana-Katalog in Der Stadtbibliothek Winterthur Stadtbibliothek Winterthur,1991 Africana Collection of the Municipal Library of Winterthur : African literatures and languages Stadtbibliothek Winterthur,1991 Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1970

The Gospel According to Rev. Walt 'Baby' Love Walt Baby Love,2007-02-01 For more than three decades Walt Baby Love has touched the lives of more than ten million listeners across the world Every week he shares his triumphs challenges and soul stirring moments through his award winning radio programs He has built a following of millions of listeners and repeatedly shattered racial barriers as a black man in an industry long dominated by whites Yet this former army paratrooper with the famed 82nd Airborne Division who served in Southeast Asia also broke ground as a man of disciplined abiding faith who refused to bow to corrupt influences His enormously popular syndicated rhythm and blues show lost its spot on a Chicago radio station because Walt would not refrain from counseling his listeners to look to Jesus Though beloved by his devoted listeners Walt was often treated as an outcast by other African American broadcasters and industry executives because of his outspoken and steadfast devotion to the Christian way of life Still both earthly and heavenly rewards have come in great abundance to the man raised by his great grandparents in rural Pennsylvania In The Gospel According to Rev. Walt Baby Love he offers reflections and inspirational thoughts drawn from his life He shares how his religious convictions helped him survive and thrive in an industry he believed to be rife with corruption and ungodly influences And he recounts the story of his progression of faith from a player of gospel and R B music to an ordained minister and preacher of God s Word Each chapter focuses on a Bible verse reflecting on its significance to him and guiding you on how to incorporate its teachings into your own daily life An uplifting story of faith family and forgiveness in the face of God s plan The Gospel According to Rev. Walt Baby Love is inspirational reading at its best
