Blessing the World Derek A. Rivard, 2009 Blessings were an integral and vital element of medieval Christian life and worship Benedictions for homes and workplaces the knight and the pilgrim the city under siege and the fetus in the womb are but a small sample of the multitudinous and fascinating extra sacramental blessings that fill the leaves of the liturgical books of the medieval Latin Church While commonly acknowledged as a crucial element in the life of medieval people the meaning and importance of these blessings for their authors and audiences have been frequently overlooked by liturgical and historical scholarship which has focused instead on the textual transmission and long term changes in the blessings and the rituals surrounding them This present work corrects this omission by examining these blessings with modern eyes and a new methodology In Blessing the World Derek A Rivard studies liturgical blessing and its role in the religious life of Christians during the central and later Middle Ages with a particular focus on the blessings of the Franco Roman liturgical tradition from the tenth to late thirteenth centuries Through a careful and extensive study of more than ninety such blessings many of them translated for the first time and accessible to a readership beyond specialists in medieval liturgy the author argues that medieval blessings were composed as a direct response to the needs anxieties beliefs and fears of the laity and therefore these texts represent a rich and largely untapped source for the study of lay piety and of ritual in medieval Europe Effectively drawing upon anthropology ritual studies the phenomenology of religion and traditional textual study Rivard explores the rich themes of medieval piety that flow throughout the blessings in order to produce a new understanding of the blessing as an attempt to tap the power of the sacred for use in daily life Benedictions for spaces places persons items and events are each studied in turn to produce this new understanding of these blessings and in the process these petitions and rituals reveal much about larger issues of medieval people s cosmology their perceived role in their cosmos their conceptions of God and their connections to the divine and to the spiritual powers of God s creation ABOUT THE AUTHOR Derek A Rivard is associate professor of history at Cottey College PRAISE FOR THE BOOK Blessing the World analyzes the texts of dozens of these blessings in order to explore how medieval Christians conceived of God and their own place within sacred history This textual focus is the book s strength and the author provides English translations of blessings from the tenth to the sixteenth centuries including the original Latin in footnotes thereby making available to readers a rich source of these materials Kathleen Kamerick The Medieval Review Rivard s study of medieval blessing rituals sheds helpful light on the ways that medieval churchmen and their flocks viewed their relationship to God to nature and to their society James A Brundage Church History The 'Crossed-Out God' in the Asia-Pacific Julian Millie,2023-08-25 This book explores the evaluations made by religious groups and individuals about the potential of public spheres for religious practice focussing upon public religion in societies of the Asia Pacific Across this region we observe a resurgence of religious traditions increasing mediatisation of religion and an inward turn toward conservative political programs Against this background relations between religion and public domains are critical influences upon civic inclusion and equal citizenship In contrast to conventional approaches to religion and public life that focus upon the public potential of religion chapter authors focus upon the religious potential of public domains taking the perspectives of religious actors as their points of departure The book s chapters capture the dynamic nexus between religion and politics in Asia Pacific public spheres why would Indonesia s minority Shiite movement strive to develop a public profile in a national environment where it attracts widespread disapproval What constructions of religion and public space make Banaras so unconducive to female mobility Why does the success of the social services wing of Australia s Salvation Army create anxiety for its religious wing What is at stake for followers of Australian Spiritualism when they attend spirit medium sessions How are popular Islamic preachers vulnerable to action from Indonesia s civil society organisations What do media representations of Hajj pilgrimage by Indonesia s presidents have in common with middle class representations of gender Why did Indonesia s traditionalist Muslim intellectuals draw heavily upon the ideas of J rgen Habermas in their theorisations of state society relations An epilogue by the Indonesian neo traditionalist intellectual Ahmad Baso the most prominent theorist of state religion relations in that country overviews the issues against the background of that country s religious and political histories The Mid-Pacific Magazine ... Alexander Hume Ford,1914 The Mid-Pacific Magazine ,1920 Home Missionary ,1870 The Home Missionary ,1871 No 3 of each volume contains the annual report and minutes of the annual meeting Sing a New Song Julie H. Ferguson,2006-04-01 For the first time Sing a New Song tells the stories of four Canadian bishops who pushed the envelope and changed the world. All have faced severe opposition; one was involved in the only Anglican schism in Canadian history; two jeopardized their careers; and one was voted the sixth most important person of the twentieth century whose world view has transformed the wider society. Over the last 150 years, George Hills, David Somerville, Douglas Hambidge, and Michael Ingham adopted unpopular causes with their eyes wide open. They were the men who fought for and won rights for aboriginals, women, and gays and lesbians. In finely drawn and thoroughly researched biographies, Julie H. Ferguson weaves the bishops' impact on society into Canada's history while delivering compelling insights into their personal and spiritual lives. Meet this quartet of sharply contrasting and fearless bishops in Sing a New Song.

The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in The Asia-Pacific Kapila D. Silva, Ken Taylor, David S. Jones, 2022-07-29

The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in the Asia Pacific revisits the use, growth, and potential of the cultural landscape methodology in the conservation and management of culture and nature heritage in the Asia Pacific region. Taking both a retrospective and prospective view of the management of cultural heritage in the region, this volume argues that the plurality and complexity of heritage in the region cannot be comprehensively understood and effectively managed without a broader conceptual framework like the cultural landscape approach. The book also demonstrates that such an approach facilitates the development of a flexible strategy for heritage conservation. Acknowledging the effects of rapid socio-economic development, globalization, and climate change, contributors examine the pressure these issues place on the sustenance of cultural heritage. Including chapters from more than 20 countries across the Asia Pacific region, the volume reviews the effectiveness of theoretical and practical potentials afforded by the cultural landscape approach and examines how they have been utilized in the Asia Pacific context for the last three decades. The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Landscape Heritage in the Asia Pacific provides a comprehensive analysis of the processes of cultural landscape heritage conservation and management. As a result, it will be of interest to academics, students, and professionals who are based in the fields of cultural heritage management, architecture, urban planning, landscape architecture, and landscape management.
