volume The Globalisation of the Oceans Frank Broeze, 2017-10-18 This book maintains that container shipping is vital to the actualisation of globalisation and that without it globalisation would remain a concept rather than reality It argues that container shipping has been academically overlooked as a global business sector in favour of more prominent sectors such as oil or arms trade and aims to provide a complete history of containerisation from the 1950s to the turn of the millennium This history explores the growth of the container industry due to prominent innovation in vessel design early adoption of the internet large international mergers and significant physical alterations to the global port system With particular emphasis on the east west trade the chapters cover the growth and development of the container industry to the social changes experienced by seafaring labour forces the cultural impact of the container bringing a domineering land presence to maritime activity through to the environmental concerns surrounding the industry The study is not a quantitative economic analysis of the industry rather an updated history that strives to demonstrate the importance of transport infrastructures to any consideration of global business sectors by providing evidence of the container industry s stimulation of the global economy Commercial Law in the South Pacific Mohammed L. Ahmadu, Bridget Fa'amatua'inu, 2024-09-25 This book provides a detailed examination of the core areas of commercial law in common law jurisdictions across a range of South Pacific countries Cook Islands Fiji Islands Kiribati Marshall Islands Niue Nauru Samoa Solomon Islands Tonga Tuvalu and Vanuatu Commerce is an area of central importance to the South Pacific region Although the countries in question are small it is widely acknowledged that their need to promote and develop commercial enterprise is crucial for their future sustainability With a focus on case law and legislative provisions in individual jurisdictions it sets out the framework of legal principles that regulate commercial activity within the South Pacific region highlighting the common patterns and principal differences between countries of the region It includes a discussion of PACER Plus post Cotonou discussions and the EU OACPS Partnership Agreement as well as key amendments and challenges to commercial law in the region It explores the legal structures of commerce control and management of commercial entities banking and transactions and termination Importantly the book has two new chapters on digital currency and e commerce in the South Pacific reflecting the increasing use of technology in financial and commercial transactions Offering a detailed analysis of the legal principles that regulate commercial activity within the South Pacific region this book will be a useful resource for students academics and practitioners working on commercial law in the South Pacific region Strategies for Asia-Pacific Shipping Jeff Hawkins, Richard Gray, 2019-07-30 This title was first published in 2000 This text focuses on one geographical and economical area the Asia Pacific region on one type of decision makers commercial shipowners and on one type of business strategy corporate level strategy to show economic change and how organizations manage that change This book discusses the challenges that shipowners face to take advantage of that growth It also looks at the lack of information on strategic decision making that could assist the shipowners in taking advantage of the economic situation The chapters cover the types of business strategies available and how to select the criteria for selecting one of those strategies

Migration and Development Ronald Skeldon, 2014-09-19 The first text that specifically links both international and internal migration with development at a global level The world is divided into a series of functionally integrated development zones which are identified not simply on the basis of their level of development but also through their spatial patterns and historical experience of migration Migration and Development stresses the importance of migration in discussing regional rather than simply country differences These variations in mobility are placed within the context of a global hierarchy although regional national and local cultural and social conditions are certainly not ignored in this wide ranging work

Globalisation and Deforestation in the Asia-Pacific Peter Dauvergne, 1997 Hong Kong's Transitions, 1842-1997 Judith M. Brown, Rosemary Foot, 1997-06-12 The reversion of Hong Kong to China on 1 July 1997 is an event of major historical significance This volume examines this dramatic event from a long term perspective against the background of earlier turning points in Hong Kong's political economic and social history It also explores Hong Kong's links with China and Britain in this troubled last decade of colonial rule and offers a basis for assessing the territory's possible future as a part of the Chinese state

After Bali Kumar Ramakrishna, See Seng Tan, Nanyang Technological University. State and Society in the Philippines Patricio N. Abinales, Donna J. Amoroso, 2017-07-06 This clear and nuanced introduction explores the Philippines ongoing and deeply charged dilemma of state society relations through a historical treatment of state formation and the corresponding conflicts and collaboration between government leaders and social forces Patricio N Abinales and Donna J Amoroso examine the long history of institutional weakness in the Philippines and the varied strategies the state has employed to overcome its structural fragility and strengthen its bond with society The authors argue that this process reflects the country's recurring dilemma on the one hand is the state's persistent inability to provide essential services guarantee peace and order and foster economic development on the other is the Filipinos equally enduring suspicions of a strong state To many citizens this powerfully evokes the repression of the 1970s and the 1980s that polarized society and cost thousands of lives in repression and resistance and billions of dollars in corruption setting the nation back years in economic development and profoundly undermining trust in government The book's historical sweep starts with the politics of the pre colonial era and continues through the first year of Rodrigo Duterte's controversial presidency Entrepreneurship and Regional Economic Development Henri L. F. de Groot, Peter Nijkamp, Roger Stough, 2004-01-01 Entrepreneurship had been high on the jobs growth and economic development agendas for many years and this edited book makes an important and timely contribution to the debate the book is nicely poised to bring together space innovation and economic growth linked together with entrepreneurship This book provides an excellent and worthwhile insight into many of the issues with many contributions that significantly add to our understanding of entrepreneurship and regional development Ronald W McQuaid Growth Change Sex Work in Southeast Asia Lisa Law, 2012-10-12 Southeast Asian sex workers are stereotypically understood as passive victims of the political economy and submissive to western men The advent of HIV AIDS only compounds this image Sex Work in Southeast Asia is a cultural critique of HIV AIDS prevention programmes targetting sex tourism industries in Southeast Asia
