Pacte De Sang:

Le Pacte de Sang Au Dahomey Paul HAZOUMÉ,1937 La participation démocratique en Afrique Mawuto R. Living History Ana Lucia Araujo, 2009-05-05 This book focusses on the several forms of reconstructing the Afan.2001 slave past in the present The recent emergence of the memory of slavery allows those who are or who claim to be descendents of slaves to legitimize their demand for recognition and for reparations for past wrongs Some reparation claims encompass financial compensation but very often they express the need for memorialization through public commemoration museums and monuments In some contexts presentification of the slave past has helped governments and the descendants of former masters and slave merchants to formulate public apologies For some expressing repentance is not only a means to erase guilt but also a way to gain political prestige The authors analyse different aspects of the recent phenomenon of memorializing slavery especially the practices employed to stage the slave past in both public and private spaces The essays present memory and oblivion as part of the same process they discuss reconstructions of the past in the present at different public and private levels through historiography photography exhibitions monuments memorials collective and individual discourses cyberspace religion and performance By offering a comparative perspective on the United States and West Africa as well as on Western Europe South America and the Caribbean the chapters offer new possibilities to explore the resurgence of the memory of slavery as a transnational movement in our contemporary world Apparentées (Ndaka-Mbo-Beke-Lika-Budu-Nyari) H.
