Paddys Lament Ireland 1846 47:

Paddy's Lament, Ireland 1846-1847 Thomas Gallagher, 1987 A shocking account of the great famine in Ireland which sheds light on a bitter hatred for England that continues there today Paddy's Lament Ireland 1846-1847 Thomas Gallagher, 1985 Rogues and Redeemers Gerard O'Neill, 2012 From the bestselling coauthor of Black Mass a behind the scenes portrait of the Irish power brokers who forged and fractured twentieth century Boston Rogues and Redeemers tells the hidden story of Boston politics the cold blooded ward bosses the smoke filled rooms the larger than life pols who became national figures Honey Fitz the crafty stage Irishman and grandfather to a president the pugilistic Rascal King Michael Curley the hectorer Kevin White who tried to hold the city together during the busing crisis and Ray Flynn the Southie charmer who was truly the last hurrah for Irish American politics in the city For almost a century the Irish dominated Boston politics with their own unique clannish brand of coercion and shaped its future for good and ill Former Boston Globe investigative reporter Gerard O'Neill takes the reader through the entire journey from the famine ships arriving in Massachusetts Bay to the wresting of power away from the Brahmins of Beacon Hill to the Title I wars of attrition over housing to the rending of the city over busing to the Boston of today which somehow through it all became a modern revitalized city albeit with a growing divide between the haves and have nots Sweeping in its history and intimate in its details Rogues and Redeemers echoes all the great themes of The Power Broker and Common Ground and should take its place on that esteemed shelf as a classic definitive epic of a city The Harp and the Eagle Susannah J. Ural, 2006-11 On the eve of the Civil War the Irish were one of America's largest ethnic groups and approximately 150,000 fought for the Union Analyzing letters and diaries written by soldiers and civilians military church and diplomatic records and community newspapers Susannah Ural Bruce significantly expands the story of Irish American Catholics in the Civil War and reveals a complex picture of those who fought for the Union While the population was diverse many Irish Americans had dual loyalties to the U.S. and Ireland which influenced their decisions to volunteer fight or end their military service When the Union cause supported their interests in Ireland and America large numbers of Irish Americans enlisted However as the war progressed the Emancipation Proclamation federal draft and sharp rise in casualties caused Irish Americans to question and sometimes abandon the war effort because they viewed such changes as detrimental to their families and futures in America and Ireland By recognizing these competing and often fluid loyalties The Harp and the Eagle sheds new light on the relationship between Irish American volunteers and the Union Army and how the Irish made sense of both the Civil War and their loyalty to the United States Rhetorics of Display Lawrence J. Prelli, 2021-12-24 Groundbreaking case studies mapping the rhetoric inherent in acts of presentation and concealment Rhetorics of Display is a pathbreaking volume that brings together a distinguished group of scholars to assess an increasingly pervasive form of rhetorical activity Editor Lawrence J. Prelli notes in his introduction that twenty first century citizens continually confront displays of information and images from the verbal images of speeches and literature to visual images of film and photography to exhibits in museums to the arrangement of our homes to the merchandising of consumer goods The volume provides an integrated comprehensive study of the processes of selecting what to reveal and what to conceal that together constitute the rhetorics of display Surveying major historical transformations in the relationship between rhetoric and display this book also identifies the leading themes in relevant scholarship of the past three decades Seventeen case studies canvass a representative and diverse range of displays from body piercing to a civil rights memorial to a Titanic exhibition to imagery found in gambling casinos and examine the ways that phenomena persons places events identities communities and cultures are exhibited before audiences Collectively the contributors shed light on rhetorics that are nearly ubiquitous in contemporary communication and culture Unhappy the Land Liam Kennedy, 2015-10-26 In Unhappy the Land Liam Kennedy poses fundamental questions about the social and political history of Ireland and challenges cherished notions of a uniquely painful past Images of tragedy and victimhood are deeply embedded in the national consciousness yet when the Irish experience is viewed in the larger European context a different perspective emerges The author's dissection of some pivotal episodes in Irish history serves to explode commonplace assumptions about oppression victimhood and a fate said to be comparable only to that of the Jews Was the catastrophe of the Great Famine really an Irish Holocaust Was the Ulster Covenant anything other than a battle cry for ethnic conflict Was the Proclamation of the Irish Republic a means of texting terror And who fears to speak of an Irish War of Independence shorn of its heroic pretensions Kennedy argues that the privileging of the gun the drum and the flag above social concerns and individual liberties gave rise to disastrous consequences for generations of Irish people Ireland might well be a land of heroes from C Chulainn to Michael Collins but it is also worth pondering Bertolt Brecht's warning Unhappy the land that is in need of heroes Irish Writing Paul Hyland, 1991-11-25 This is a collection of original essays by international scholars which focuses on Irish writing in English from the eighteenth century to the present The essays explore the recurrent motif of exile and the subversive potential of Irish writing in political cultural and literary terms Case studies of major writers such as Swift Joyce and Heaney are set alongside discussions of relatively unexplored writing such as radical pamphleteering in the age of the French Revolution and the contribution of women writers to Nationalistic journalism

Six Billion and More Susan Bratton, 1992-01-01 Drawing on information from demographers economists ecologists and sociologists Bratton argues that individuals should use Christian values when dealing with the regulation of human population Theological groundwork for developing a Christian contraceptive ethos Carol Benson Holst Ministry for Population Concerns Transatlantic History Steven G. Reinhardt, Dennis Reinhartz, 2006 The transatlantic world has had immense influence on the direction of world history The six illuminating studies in Transatlantic History address cultural exchanges and intercontinental developments that contribute to our modern understanding of global communities Transatlantic history encompasses a variety of scholarly problems and approaches from multiple disciplines and volume editors Steven G Reinhardt and Dennis P Reinhartz have assembled a collection of essays that reflect the diversity within the field. Introducing the book, William McNeill provides a unifying overview of the concept and practice of transatlantic history by placing it within the larger context of world history. The chapter authors bring distinctive styles and methods to the investigation of the processes of interaction and adaptation among Africans, Native Americans, and Europeans. Their studies range from the Spanish imperial crisis in the 1600s to the urbanization of Europe and the Americas, from graphic portrayals of the Atlantic world to the settlement of Ireland, America, and South Africa, and the recent diaspora of West Africans. Readers interested in world history, communication, and cultural studies will find Transatlantic History provocative and challenging as it convincingly argues for the importance of this new field.

BOOK JACKET The Irish Republican Army Susie Derkins, 2002-12-15. The profoundly sad and bitter story of Irish resistance to Britain's occupation and administration of the six counties of Northern Ireland extends over 800 years and encompasses suffering on both sides of the conflict. The Catholic Irish, the Protestant Irish, and the British armed forces have until recently seemed caught up in an unbreakable cycle of violence and tragedy. Susie Derkins untangles this long history of grievance and retribution while carefully examining the latest and most promising efforts by all sides to find peace and reconciliation.

Irish Women's Prison Writing Red Washburn, 2022-11-16. This book explores 50 years of Irish women's prison writing, 1960s-2010s, connecting the work of women leaders and writers in Northern Ireland during the Troubles. This volume analyzes political communiqués, petitions, news coverage, prison files, personal letters, poetry, and short prose and memoirs, highlighting the personal correspondence, autobiographical narratives, and poetry of the following key women: Bernadette McAliskey, Eileen Hickey, Mairead Farrell, Siobhán Darragh, Ella O'Dwyer, Martina Anderson, Dolours Price, Marian McGlinchey, formerly Marian Price, and Eibhlín Ní Giolla Easpaig. Ann and Eileen Gillespie, Roseleen Walsh, and Margaretta D'Arcy. This text builds on different fields and discourses to reimagine gender and genre as central to an interdisciplinary and intersectional prison archive. Centering Irish women's prison writings in order to challenge canonization in history and literature, this volume argues that women's lives and words offer a different view of gender and nation, as well as offer a fuller and more inclusive archive of Irish history and literature. Additionally, this book will point to the ways in which their politics of everyday life and their cultural work is a form of anti-colonial civil rights feminism, for it speaks truth to power in a world in which compliance and silence are valued. Overall, this text focuses on rethinking and recasting women's voices and words in order to document and promote the ongoing Irish freedom struggle from an abolitionist feminist perspective.

South Boston, My Home Town Thomas H. O'Connor, 1994. An engaging yet objective look at the 350-year-old history of Southie, a neighborhood that has survived largely unchanged since the early days of immigrant Irish families and old-time political bosses.

Acheson and Empire John T. McNay, 2001. Acheson and Empire offers a compelling reassessment of Dean Acheson's policies toward the former colonial world during his period as secretary of state from 1949 to 1953 John T McNay argues that Acheson inherited through his own personal history a way of understanding the world that encouraged imperial style international relationships This worldview represented a well developed belief system rooted in his Ulster Protestant heritage that remained consistent throughout his life
