Pahlmann Of Interiors:

Pahlmann Book of Interiors William Pahlmann, 1968-04-22 A Matter of Taste Gina Marie Raimond, 2010 This paper aims to examine William C Pahlmann's contributions to American home decoration specifically by discussing his defining work furniture fabrics and residential interiors at the one of the highest points of his career the late 1940s and early 1950s within the context of the cultural environment of postwar America It further explores how the postwar environment in America enabled Pahlmann's tremendous success and shows how he utilized the climate to proliferate his designs in keeping with the modern American design ideals Introduction Interiors ,1960 Guide to the Winterthur Library Joseph Downs Collection of Manuscripts & Printed Ephemera, 2003 This guide to the Joseph Downs Collection of Manuscripts and Printed Ephemera named for Winterthur's first curator provides descriptive information for the primary research material held in the collection The Downs Collection acquires materials from the mid seventeenth century through the twentieth century that document American lifestyles concentrating on the domestic scene and activities within the household and art It includes such items as diaries business accounts of craftsmen whose products decorated dwelling houses family papers tax records construction of homes artists sketchbooks wills and household inventories children's toys and games and scrapbooks and journals Items from individuals famous in American history rest alongside materials from people who led routine lives yet still contributed to the development of America An extensive microform collection including copies of material owned by other public repositories and private individuals supplements the manuscript holdings Hardcover is un jacketed The Pahlmann Book of Interior Design William Pahlmann, 1968 Upholsterer and Interior Decorator ,1961 Design History Beyond the Canon Jennifer Kaufmann-Buhler, Victoria Rose Pass, Christopher Wilson, 2019-02-07 Design History Beyond the Canon subverts hierarchies of taste which have dominated traditional narratives of design history The book explores a diverse selection of objects spaces and media ranging from high design to mass produced and mass marketed objects as well as counter cultural and sub cultural material The authors research highlights the often marginalised role of gender and racial identity in the production and consumption of design the politics which underpins design practice and the role of designed objects as pathways of nostalgia and cultural memory While focused primarily on North American examples from the early 20th century onwards this collection also features essays examining European and Soviet design history as well as the influence of Asia and Africa on Western design practice The book is organised in three thematic sections Consumers Intermediaries and Designers The first section analyses a range of designed objects and spaces through the experiences and perspectives of users The second section considers intermediaries from both technology and cultural industries as well as the hidden labour within the design process itself The final section focuses on designers from multiple design disciplines including high fashion industrial design interior design graphic design and design history pedagogy The essays in all three sections utilise different research methods and a wide range of theoretical approaches including feminist theory critical race theory spatial theory material culture studies science and technology studies and art history Design History Beyond the Canon brings together the most recent research which stretches beyond the traditional canon and looks to interdisciplinary methodologies to better understand the practice and consumption of design

Color Planning for Interiors Margaret Portillo, 2010-09-09 Evidence based approach to color planning lets you discover the impact of color on people and space You ll learn to systematically develop innovative holistic color solutions in interior design with this book s evidence based approach to color planning The author sets forth a color planning framework that integrates multiple criteria enabling you to fully consider the complex role that color plays in interior design Color Planning for Interiors is based on the findings from a national study that the author conducted which identified five categories of color criteria Color as Composition Color Preferences Color as Communication Color Pragmatics Color for Engagement The author interviewed noted designers and colorists about the projects that best represented their approach to color As a result you ll discover how leaders in the field examine color from compositional symbolic behavioral preferential and pragmatic perspectives in order to arrive at a carefully considered solution Moreover you ll see how designers and architects apply this knowledge to a broad range of interior spaces including workplaces restaurants retail settings healthcare facilities and private residences Complementing theory and research real life examples are presented from interior design projects that consider color in relation to light materiality and interior architecture In addition full color diagrams photographs and design renderings illustrate concepts throughout the book to help you understand how to select and work with color From the fundamental principles of color theory to innovative applications all aspects of designing interiors with color are examined making this book ideal for all professionals and students in interior design who want to develop the full potential of their color palettes

Influential Interiors Suzanne Trocmé, 1999 The first book that reveals the history of 20th century interior design by showcasing the styles and offering the trade secrets of the key decorators and designers who have shaped and continue to shape today s taste The art of interior design as we know it emerged at the beginning of the 20th century and Influential Interiors chronicles the most significant people styles and moments in its history From early stars such as Elsie de Wolfe Syrie Maugham and Jean Michel Frank to today s leading practitioners such as Andree Putman Peter Marino and Sills their work in each case outlined over several spreads has had a lasting influence on those that followed them And for six major figures a full color scrapbook like collage breaks down the key elements of the designer s signature style offering at a glance the types of colors fabrics patterns furniture and accessories that characterize t

Furniture & Interiors of the 1940s Anne Bony, 2003 The 1940s marked a period of transition in interior design the quarrel between ancient and modern was outdated the combination of function and art was essential and interior designers were more focused on new creations rather than on post war reconstruction The style of this period exhibits all the contradictions that arise from a society that was in a general state of shock unsure of what the future would hold Exemplary cabinet making marks the period featuring famous names like

T H Robsjohn Gibbing and George Nelson from the United States In France Adnet Arbus Dominique Kohlmann Jallot and Leleu produced sumptuous ensembles with beautiful detailing Furniture and Interiors of the 1940s features the work of numerous designers in 300 archival images and recent color photographs that shed new light on this transitional period in design as it evolved both in Europe and in the United States Architectures of Display Anca I.
