Jennifer Harvey

Pain A Personal Experience:

The Story of Pain Joanna Bourke, 2014 The story of pain and suffering since the eighteenth century Prize winning historian Joanna Bourke charts how our understanding of pain and how to cope with it has changed completely over the last three centuries

Personal Experiences of S. O. Susag S. O. Susag, 2025-08-23 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage

Making Sense of Pain: Critical and Interdisciplinary Perspectives Jane Fernandez, 2020-05-18 This conference proceeding provides an attempt to extend the conversation on pain the boundaries of the word pain are characteristically blurred by connotations of suffering and trauma The variety of papers in this collection transgress these boundaries knowingly inviting a more expansive rather than narrow definition of pain

Prisons & Prisoners: Some Personal Experiences Constance Lady Lytton, 2023-10-29 Constance Lady Lytton's Prisons Prisoners Some Personal Experiences is a poignant and eye opening account of the author's personal encounters with the British prison system in the early 20th century Through a series of vivid and detailed anecdotes Lytton sheds light on the harsh realities of imprisonment and the inhumane treatment of prisoners highlighting the urgent need for prison reform Her writing style is both eloquent and compelling drawing the reader into the world of incarceration and social injustice Set against the backdrop of the suffragette movement and women's rights activism this book provides a unique perspective on the intersection of gender class and crime in Victorian England As a member of the aristocracy who willingly immersed herself in the world of the marginalized Lytton's insights are invaluable and thought provoking Prisons Prisoners is a must read for anyone interested in social reform criminal justice or the history of activism

The Phenomenology of Pain Saulius Geniusas, 2022-08-30 The Phenomenology of Pain is the first book length investigation of its topic to appear in English Groundbreaking systematic and illuminating it opens a dialogue between phenomenology and such disciplines as cognitive science and cultural anthropology to argue that science alone cannot clarify the nature of pain experience without incorporating a phenomenological approach Building on this premise Saulius Geniusas develops a novel conception of pain grounded in phenomenological principles pain is an aversive bodily feeling with a distinct experiential quality which can only be given in original first hand experience either as a feeling sensation or as an emotion Geniusas crystallizes the fundamental methodological principles that underlie phenomenological research On the basis of those principles he offers a phenomenological clarification of the fundamental structures of pain experience and contests the common conflation of phenomenology with introspectionism Geniusas analyzes numerous pain dissociation syndromes brings into focus the de personalizing and re personalizing nature of chronic pain experience and demonstrates what role somatization and psychologization play in pain experience In the process he advances Husserlian phenomenology in a direction that is not explicitly worked out in Husserl's own writings

The Personal Experience of Time B. Gorman, 2013-03-09 The fundamental nature of human time experience has concerned artists poets philosophers and scientists throughout the ages Any consideration of human action requires awareness of its temporal aspects However simply to view time in the same units and dimensions as the physicist employs in describing events robs personal time of its lived quality The use of physical time concepts in the description of human events is often artificial and misleading It fails to account for the facts that human time estimates rarely match clock and calendar time that societies and individuals demonstrate vast differences in their constructions and uses of time and that temporal perceptions and attitudes change within an individual both during a single day and throughout his life span The present volume does not view time as something that is sensed in the same way that one would sense or perceive spatial or sensory stimuli Rather it views time as a complex set of personally experienced cognitive constructs used by individuals and cultures to account for the order the duration and the organization of events The authors in this book take a strong departure from earlier psychophysical studies of a time sense and address themselves to the uses and elaborations of time concepts in personal and social functioning      The Ayahuasca Experience Ralph to different people trapped powerless hopeless frozen frustrated numb disconnected anxious overwhelmed Getting stuck is part of being human But staying stuck for too long robs us of our vitality It costs us healthy relationships meaningful pursuits and most importantly the life we want to live But even in our lowest moments one yearning shines through The desire for a better way The desire to become unstuck With her signature clarity and compassion Dr Emily offers this practical guide to finding your way forward by focusing on key areas Living by your values defining what matters to you and what it means to flourish Overcoming stress understanding its impact on the body and the tools you need to work effectively with it Befriending the Inner Critic learning a better way of thinking Working with painful emotions discovering acceptance and self compassion Taking Action finding the power of choice and committing to new and helpful habits and behaviours Change can seem impossibly hard but staying stuck is harder UNSTUCK gives you the tools to cultivate a life without limits in times of pain in times of change in times of joy Dr Em s expertise humility and compassion make her the perfect person to turn to when you are feeling stuck This book will change lives Truly incredible HUGH van CUYLENBURG      Psychosocial Nursing: A Guide To Nursing The Whole Person Roberts, Dave,2013-06-01 Nursing involves caring for the whole person and taking care of both physical and psychosocial needs This book aims to help the reader to develop the knowledge skills and confidence to care for the whole person and to ensure the patient is at the centre of the care giving experience The book considers different aspects of therapeutic nursing care and explains how you can make the most of opportunities to nurse the whole person Key topics covered include Understanding the personal experience of illness Communication and listening skills Developing nurse patient relationships Psychosocial assessment skills Using psychotherapeutic approaches Since it is common for those who are physically ill to feel psychologically vulnerable the book also has chapters exploring how to care for patients who are anxious depressed psychotic or display challenging behaviours All chapters include case studies and personal stories of illness to help illustrate the range of practice opportunities for improving your nursing care of the whole person An essential read for all nurses looking to hone their craft and for those preparing to qualify who want a deeper understanding of the true art of nursing      The Scar of Visibility Petra Küppers,2007 In The Scar of Visibility Petra Kupperts examines the use of medical imagery practices in contemporary art as well as different arts of everyday life Among the works she investigates are the controversial Body Worlds exhibition of plastinized corpses films like David Cronenbergs Crash that fetishize body wounds representations of the AIDS virus on CSI Crime Scene Investigations and the paintings of outsider artist Martin Ram rez      In the Spotlight, Personal Experiences of Elbert Hubbard on the American Stage Elbert Hubbard,1917      Humanness and Dehumanization Paul G. Bain,Jeroen Vaes,Jacques Philippe Leyens,2013-10-30 What does it mean to be human Why do people dehumanize others and sometimes themselves These questions have only recently begun to be investigated in earnest within psychology This volume presents the latest thinking about these and related questions from research leaders in the field of humanness and dehumanization in social psychology and related disciplines

Contributions provide new insights into the history of dehumanization its different types and new theories are proposed for when and why dehumanization occurs While people s views about what humanness is and who has it have long been known as important in understanding ethnic conflict contributors demonstrate its relevance in other domains including medical practice policing gender relations and our relationship with the natural environment Cultural differences and similarities in beliefs about humanness are explored along with strategies to overcome dehumanization In highlighting emerging ideas and theoretical perspectives describing current theoretical issues and controversies and ways to resolve them and in extending research to new areas this volume will influence research on humanness and dehumanization for many years Principles

And Practice Of Managing Pain: A Guide For Nurses And Allied Health Professionals Parsons, Gareth,Preece, Wayne,2010-10-01 Pain management is a popular topic for nursing students and one that is covered primarily during years 2 and 3 of UK pre registration nursing courses An understanding of the mechanics of pain how pain affects individuals and how pain can be treated is absolutely core to nursing study and practice and nurses need to be able to identify assess and treat pain responsibly and as part of their broader care for patients The emphasis of the book will not be on facts physiology or pharmacology but instead the book will draw on these things to help students develop a solid philosophy of care that encompasses good pain management

Anthropologies of Cancer in Transnational Worlds Holly F. Mathews,Nancy J. Burke,Eirini Kampriani,2015-06-26 Cancer is a transnational condition involving the unprecedented flow of health information technologies and people across national borders Such movement raises questions about the nature of therapeutic citizenship how and where structurally vulnerable populations obtain care and the political geography of blame associated with this disease This volume brings together cutting edge anthropological research carried out across North and South America Europe Africa and Asia representing low middle and high resource countries with a diversity of national health care systems Contributors ethnographically map the varied nature of cancer experiences and articulate the multiplicity of meanings that survivorship risk charity and care entail They explore institutional frameworks shaping local responses to cancer and underlying political forces and structural variables Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3 0 license https://s3.us-west-2.amazonaws.com/tandfbis-rt-files/docs/Open+Access+Chapters/9781138776937\_oachapter3.pdf Antiracism as Daily

Practice Jennifer Harvey,2024-07-16 Nurturing and inspiring Kirkus Reviews An essential book of practical wisdom If you re white and have been asking What can I do now this lively and timely book is for you Robert Jones New York Times bestselling author of The Hidden Roots of White Supremacy Antiracism as Daily Practice illustrates the many ways white Americans those newly waking to the crisis of racism in 2020 and those already aware can choose behaviors in our everyday lives to grow racial justice Full of real life stories this book shows how vital it is for white people to engage in and with our families through our social networks in our neighborhoods and at our jobs to make antiracism a daily living commitment We have real power in our relationships with other white people and not enough of us have used it Dr Harvey explains why we white people struggle with knowing what to do about racism and explores the significance of emotions like grief and anger as well as the harmful role of shame in really reckoning with the transformation and change needed in our communities to become the partners in justice that Black communities and other communities of color need and deserve Not only is such transformation vital to the well being of U S democracy It s vital to the freedom and wholeness of white people too The Suicide Solution Frank Selden,2016-12-14 To convince yourself or someone else that suicide isnt the answer you must first accept this reality For some people it is the answer When Frank Selden came home from a tour in Iraq having been deployed as a member of the Washington Army National Guard he was a changed man He went from being a loving father supportive husband and proud soldier to someone who no longer loved his country or his own life He lived for several years under a dark cloud and tried killing himself four times He should have died each time but something providential intervened In The Suicide Solution he examines how he regained his joy for living and initiates an honest discussion on suicide including its benefits Making blanket statements such as There is nothing to gain wont do anything to prevent suicide among those who see it as an attractive option With an average of twenty two veterans killing themselves every single day and with suicide being the second leading cause of death in the 15 to 34 age group its time to rethink suicide from the ground up

Religious Individualisation Martin Fuchs,Antje Linkenbach,Martin Mulsow,Bernd-Christian Otto,Rahul Björn Parson,Jörg Rüpke,2019-12-16 This volume brings together key findings of the long term research project Religious Individualisation in Historical Perspective Max Weber Centre for Advanced Cultural and Social Studies Erfurt University Combining a wide range of disciplinary approaches methods and theories the volume assembles over 50 contributions that explore and compare processes of religious individualisation in different religious environments and historical periods in particular in Asia the Mediterranean and Europe from antiquity to the recent past Contrary to standard theories of modernisation which tend to regard religious individualisation as a specifically modern or early modern as well as an essentially Western or Christian phenomenon the chapters reveal processes of religious individualisation in a large variety of non Western and pre modern scenarios Furthermore the volume challenges prevalent views that regard religions primarily as collective phenomena and provides nuanced perspectives on the appropriation of religious agency the pluralisation of religious options dynamics of de traditionalisation and privatisation the development of elaborated notions of the self the facilitation of religious deviance and on the notion of dividuality Hermeneutics of Education Andrzej Wiercinski,2020-03-10 A hermeneutics of education pays special attention not to educational structures but the central role of conversation in the educational process The key issue is the formation of the person as a unique reality of being and acting while supporting intersubjective understanding The polyphony of understanding places the human search for meaning within the horizon of incompleteness and allows for both spontaneity and rigor in order to reach an understanding of what is happening to us and in us when we understand Reflection on education is always inseparable from educational practice
