A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings VI Ernst van de Wetering, 2014-11-11 A revised survey of Rembrandt's complete painted oeuvre The question of which 17th century paintings in Rembrandt's style were actually painted by Rembrandt himself had already become an issue during his lifetime It is an issue that is still hotly disputed among art historians today The problem arose because Rembrandt had numerous pupils who learned the art of painting by imitating their master or by assisting him with his work as a portrait painter He also left pieces unfinished to be completed by others The question is how to determine which works were from Rembrandt's own hand Can we for example define the criteria of quality that would allow us to distinguish the master's work from that of his followers Do we yet have methods of investigation that would deliver objective evidence of authenticity To what extent do research techniques used in the physical sciences help Or are we after all still dependent on the subjective expert eye of the connoisseur The book provides answers to these questions Prof Ernst van de Wetering the author of our forthcoming book which deals with these questions has been closely involved in all aspects of this research since 1968 the year the renowned Rembrandt Research Project RRP was founded In particular he played an important role in developing new criteria for authentication Van de Wetering was also witness to the way the often overly zealous tendency to doubt the authenticity of Rembrandt's paintings got out of hand In this book he re attributes to the master a substantial number of unjustly rejected Rembrandts He also was closely involved in the re discovery of a considerable number of lost or completely unknown works by Rembrandt The verdicts of earlier specialists including the majority of members of the original RRP up to 1989 were based on connoisseurship the self confidence in one's ability to recognise a specific artist's style and hand Over the years Van de Wetering has carried out seminal research into 17th century studio practice and ideas about art current in Rembrandt's time In this book he demonstrates the fallibility of traditional connoisseurship especially in the case of Rembrandt who was par excellence a searching artist The methodological implications of this critical view are discussed in an introductory chapter which relates the history of the developments in this turbulent field of research Van de Wetering's account of his own involvement in it makes this book a lively and sometimes unexpectedly personal account The catalogue section presents a chronologically ordered survey of Rembrandt's entire painted oeuvre of 336 paintings richly illustrated and annotated For all the paintings re attributed in this book extensive commentaries have been included that provide a multi faceted new insight into Rembrandt's world and the world of art historical research Rembrandt's Paintings Revisited is the concluding sixth volume of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volumes I V 1982 1986 1989 2005 2010 It can also be read as a revisionary critique of the first three

Volumes published by the old RRP team up till 1989 and of Gerson's influential survey of Rembrandt's painted oeuvre of 1968

What Was History Painting and What Is It Now? Mark Salber Phillips, Jordan Bear, 2019-10-10 The dominant visual language of European painting from the Renaissance to the nineteenth century history paintings were formidable in their monumental scale ambitious moral lessons and intricate narratives With the rise of modernist avant gardes the genre receded from the forefront of artistic production into the realm of nostalgia Yet history painting cast a shadow that would subtly colour even the works that sought to displace it Exploring the resilience of this distinctive mode of visual representation What Was History Painting and What Is It Now brings together an internationally distinguished group of scholars to trace the endurance adaptation and mutation of history painting These studies offer a reexamination of the fortunes of the genre from North America to Europe and Africa Organized around illuminating themes the book explores the creation of an audience attuned to the genre s didactic aims the entry of history painting into the marketplace of commercial art and attractions and the reimagination of the mode in response to the edicts of modern and contemporary art Spanning the full range and diversity of history painting this collection is a broad reconsideration of the tradition and the vibrant ways in which it resonates through the art of the present Picturing a Nation David M. Lubin, Charlotte C Weber Professor of Art David M Lubin, Professor David M Lubin, 1994-01-01 Art historian David Lubin examines the work of six nineteenth century American artists to show how their paintings both embraced and resisted dominant social values Lubin argues that artists such as George Bingham and Lily Martin Spencer were aware of the underlying social conflicts of their time and that their work reflected the nation s ambivalence toward domesticity its conflicting ideas about child rearing its racial disharmony and many other issues central to the formation of modern America From publisher description

BOOK JACKET Film, Architecture and Spatial Imagination Renée Tobe, 2016-08-25 Films use architecture as visual shorthand to tell viewers everything they need to know about the characters in a short amount of time Illustrated by a diverse range of films from different eras and cultures this book investigates the reciprocity between film and architecture Using a phenomenological approach it describes how we the viewers can learn how to read architecture and design in film in order to see the many inherent messages Architecture s representational capacity contributes to the plausibility or reality possible in film The book provides an ontological understanding that clarifies and stabilizes the reciprocity of the actual world and a filmic world of illusion and human imagination thereby shedding light on both film and architecture

Dreaming the Southern Song Landscape Valérie Malenfer Ortiz, 2024-03-25 Establishing a new approach to reading Chinese landscape painting this work centers around an early key example of scholarly painting viz Dream Journey on the Xiao and Xiang Rivers late 12th century The author restores the status of Dream Journey as a cultural icon for Confucians an object of contemplation for aesthetes an imaginary dream journey for poets and an incentive to cultivate one's moral intentions for both Buddhist monks and lay scholars Also it is convincingly argued that scholarly painting originates in the Southern Song 1127-1279 and not as is commonly thought in the Yuan Dynasty 1279-1368 Inside/Outside Islamic Art and Architecture Saygin Salgirli, 2021-07-29 When we walk into a gallery we have a fairly good idea where the building begins and ends and inside while observing a painting we are equally confident in distinguishing between the painting proper and its frame and borders Yet things are often more complicated A building defines an exterior space just as much as an interior and what we perceive to be ornamental and marginal to a given painting may in fact be central to what it represents In this volume a simple question is presented instead of dichotomous separations between inside and outside or exterior and interior what other relationships can we think of The first book of its kind to grapple with this question Inside Outside Islamic Art and Architecture focuses on a wide spectrum of mediums and topics including painted manuscripts objects architectural decoration architecture and urban planning and photography Bringing together scholars with diverse methodologies who work on a geographical span stretching from India to Spain and Nigeria and across a temporal spectrum from the thirteenth to the twenty-first century this original book also poses engaging questions about the boundaries of the field Virtual Reality Steven M.
