Polychrome Sculpture Johannes Taubert, 2016-02-15 In the decades since its initial publication in German in 1978 Polychrome Sculpture has come to be widely regarded as a watershed text on the making and meaning of European medieval and Baroque painted wood sculpture An early proponent of interdisciplinary research Johannes Taubert played a pioneering role in combining the rigorous scientific analysis of materials with a fuller understanding of form and function an approach that has led to the development of technical art history as practiced today Many of the essays in this volume apply such scientific techniques as microscopic analysis to an art historical understanding of Romanesque and late Gothic wood sculpture revealing that far from serving a merely decorative function the painted surface of these works was intricately connected to their meaning The paint layers on the sculptures for example which the author spent years documenting through close examination and analysis were intended to impart a heightened sense of reality to the life-sized sculptures thereby enhancing the viewer's experience of worship Taubert believed it was crucial for conservators to understand this context before undertaking any treatments No other book offers such a focused subtle and interdisciplinary examination of the subject as Polychrome Sculpture This influential work is now available in English for the first time in a meticulous translation enhanced and updated by new color illustrations annotations to the original text and a new introduction

Safe Keeping Barbara Taylor Sissel, 2014-03-25 A family confronts devastating truths in Safe Keeping a chilling and emotionally charged mystery from highly acclaimed author Barbara Taylor Sissel At the heart of every crime there's a family My son is a murderer Emily Lebay had always thought of her family as ordinary. Sure they've endured their share of problems even a time of great trouble what family hasn't? But when a woman's body turns up in the dense woods near their home and Emily's grown son Tucker is accused of murder, Emily is forced to confront the unfathomable and everything she believed about her life is called into question. This isn't the first time Tucker has been targeted by the police; a year ago he was a person of interest when another woman was found dead in the same stretch of woods. Still, neither Emily nor her daughter Lissa can reconcile their Tucker with these brutal crimes. Terrified, convinced there's been a tragic mistake, Emily and Lissa set out to learn the truth about Tucker once and for all. The Seductions of Biography is an important volume which sheds new light on a flourishing literary form: the biography. In postmodern culture, new methods and intentions emerge, as well as new obstacles towards our understanding of biography as a genre. This book provides a thorough exploration of this genre from a wide range of postmodern perspectives. The Seductions of Biography brings together a number of essays which reflect in culturally critical as well as autobiographical terms on current themes and practices of contemporary biography. Issues addressed by these essays focus on the postmodern dilemma itself as new voices from excluded communities make themselves heard in biographical works: the decentralization of new issues such as gender, ethnicity, and sexuality becomes problematic. Contributors question the responsibilities a biographer has both to the subject and the public and consider also questions of morality and taste. For example, is it fair to use private tapings made by your subject's analyst? And how much do we really need to know about Eleanor Roosevelt's sex life? The impact of sexuality on our reading of public figures is addressed as well. as other issues which explore the popular and provocative nature of biography Interdisciplinary and wide ranging in scope The Seductions of Biography will appeal to biographers historians cultural critics and the vast population of avid biography readers Contributors Kwame Anthony Appiah Clark Blaise Marilyn L Brownstein Blanche Wiesen Cook John D Emilio Jeffrey Louis Decker Michael Eric Dyson Diana Fuss Marjorie Garber Henry Louis Gates Jr Hayden Herrera Maurice Isserman Barbara Johnson William S McFeely Diane Wood Middlebrook Richard J Powell Phyllis Rose Doris Sommer Marita Sturken Sherley Anne Williams Jean Fagan Yellin
