Painted Love Hollis Clayson, 2003-10-30 In this engrossing book Hollis Clayson provides the first description and analysis of French artistic interest in women prostitutes examining how the subject was treated in the art of the 1870s and 1880s by such avant garde painters as C zanne Degas Manet and Renoir as well as by the academic and low brow painters who were their contemporaries Clayson not only illuminates the imagery of prostitution with its contradictory connotations of disgust and fascination but also tackles the issues and problems relevant to women and men in a patriarchal society She discusses the conspicuous sexual commerce during this era and the resulting public panic about the deterioration of social life and civilized mores She describes the system that evolved out of regulating prostitutes and the subsequent rise of clandestine prostitutes who escaped police regulation and who were condemned both for blurring social boundaries and for spreading sexual licentiousness among their moral and social superiors Clayson argues that the subject of covert prostitution was especially attractive to vanguard painters because it exemplified the commercialization and the ambiguity of modern life Beverly McIver Richard J. Architectural Record ,1893 Boss Lady Dorothy O'Malia,2001-01-22 CHINESE PAINTING Deng Qiaobin,2019-12-26 Chinese Painting An Intellectual History provides a panorama of Chinese painting from primitive times to the Qing Dynasty But it is not a mere list of various theories paintings and painters in chronological order Much space of the book is devoted to describing the political cultural and economic situations as well as the philosophical literary and academic elements that have influenced Chinese painting In its presentation of painters painting theories schools and genres the book combines general introduction with case studies and in so doing maintains an objective and unbiased stance To controversial topics such as the role of Buddhism and Taoism and the division of Northern School and Southern School in landscape painting the book analyzes political and cultural causes but gives no definite answer thus allowing interpretation by the readers As the title suggests the book is not an exclusive discussion on painting theories otherwise a more appropriate title would be Chinese Painting Theories or A History of Chinese Painting By intellectual the author meant to include not only systematic painting theories and fragmented commentaries that are written in words but also the implicit and intangible message or thoughts underlying the creation of Chinese painting Therefore reading this book is not only a way of appreciating Chinese painting but also helps in understanding Chinese culture Painting Katherine Diane Meholick,2003-04-01 Washington D C artist Vincent Vermay s world is unraveling He can no longer paint He no longer understands his wife Kate When Kate inherits an old Victorian in North Tonawanda NY from her grandmother Katherine Malloy Vincent falls in love with the house and moves in Kate remains in D C and the separation strains the marriage further

Low and High Style in Italian Renaissance Art Patricia Emison, 2013-10-28 During the later 15th and in the 16th centuries pictures began to be made without action without place for heroism pictures more rueful than celebratory In part Renaissance art adjusted to the social and economic pressures with an art we may be hard pressed to recognize under that same rubric an art not so much of perfected nature as simply artless Granted the heroic and epic mode of the Renaissance was that practiced most self consciously and proudly Yet it is one of the accomplishments of Renaissance art that heroic and epic subjects and style occasionally made way for less affirmative subjects and compositional norms for improvisation away from the Vitruvian ideal The limits of idealizing art during the very period denominated as High Renaissance is a topic that involves us in the history of class prejudice of gender stereotypes of the conceptualization of the present of attitudes toward the ordinary and of scruples about the power of sight Exploring the low style leads us particularly to works of art intended for display in private settings as personally owned objects potentially as signs of quite personal emotions rather than as subscriptions to publicly vaunted ideologies Not all of them show shepherds or peasants none of them not even Giorgione's La tempesta is a classic pastoral idyll The rosso stile is to be understood as more comprehensive than that The issue is not only who is represented but whether the work can or cannot be fit into the mold of a basically affirmative art

Maritain's Ontology of the Work of Art J.W. Hanke, 2012-12-06 I Since the appearance in 1902 of Benedetto Croce's L'estetica come scienza dell'espressione e linguistica generale the problem of the ontology of the work of art or aesthetic object what kind of thing it is and what its mode of being is has come to occupy a central place in the philosophy of art Moreover a particular conception of the identity of art objects is at present a driving force in some quarters of the art world itself As Harold Rosenberg so well points out Minimalist or Reductive Art has attempted sometimes quite self consciously to establish the autonomous physical reality of the work of art by emptying it of all expressive and representational content What is the ontological problem One rather crude way of stating it is to ask where the work of art or object of aesthetic contemplation exists Is it to pick some examples to be identified with the material product of the artist's labors which exists spatially outside of and independently of artist and beholder Or does it exist only in the mind of the beholder or the artist Is it either one perception of a beholder or a series of his perceptions Or is it the class of all perceptions of either all spectators or all qualified spectators Put another way it would be a question of whether and to what such purported names as Beethoven's Fifth Symphony refer Man and Woman, War and Peace, 1942-1951 Robert William Doty, Elizabeth Natalie Doty, 2004 Moral Upbringing through the Arts and Literature Pawel Kazmierczak, Jolanta Rzegocka, 2018-12-17 Mark Twain the great American writer of the South whose characters struggle with difficult choices famously said Always do what is right It will gratify half of mankind and astound the other Taking Twain's phrase as a starting point this book considers how literature and art explore different systems of values and principles of conduct and how they can teach us to cope at times of trial Morality remains one of the most contested areas of thought and ethics in the modern world due to numerous misapprehensions and the move away from solidarity from what we share and hold in common particularly our inherent pursuit of virtue and consideration of principles concerning the distinction between right and wrong good and bad Featuring essays by scholars from countries which have seen traditions of virtue and character formation perish in the course of tragic social experiments this book highlights the role of literature and arts in educating about virtues and character in both a regional and global context The volume offers philosophical analysis of moral education and engages with the literary canon discussing the ways in which virtue was taught and can still be taught with Aristotle as one of the regained tools of learning The essays span countries from England Spain Italy and Belgium to the USA Costa Rica ancient China and Israel with Poland the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth and Central Europe receiving considerable coverage They address themes of virtue and character formation from the Bronze Age to the present and serve as inspiring reading for educators literary scholars historians ethicists artists and active readers Graham's American Monthly Magazine of Literature, Art, and Fashion ,1855
