Pierre Bonnard Pierre Bonnard,Nicole R. Myers,Allison Stielau,Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2009 The vibrant late paintings of Pierre Bonnard 1867 1947 are considered by many to be among his finest achievements Working in a small converted bedroom of his villa in the south of France Bonnard suffused his late canvases with radiant Mediterranean light and dazzling color Although his subjects were close at hand usually everyday scenes taken from his immediate surroundings such as the dining room table being set for breakfast or a jug of flowers perched on the mantelpiece Bonnard rarely painted from life Instead he preferred to make pencil sketches in small diaries and then rely on these along with his memory once in the studio This volume which accompanies the first exhibition to focus on the interior and related still life

imagery from the last decades of Bonnard's long career presents more than seventy five paintings drawings and works on paper many of them rarely seen in public and in some cases little known Although Bonnard's legacy may be removed from the succession of trends that today we consider the foundation of modernism his contribution to French art in the early decades of the twentieth century is far more profound than history has generally acknowledged In their insightful essays and catalogue entries the authors bring fresh critical perspectives to the ongoing reappraisal of Bonnard's reputation and to his place within the narrative of twentieth century art Jacket Colour in Space Patrick Heron, 1999 Compiled to commemorate the completion of Big Painting Sculpture autumn 1998 Publication material based on the exhibition Colour in space Patrick Heron public projects at Tate Gallery St Ives June October 1998
