India in 1801 following the appointment of Elizabeth's husband Henry Gwillim to the Supreme Court of Madras. Their paintings document on one hand the rapidly expanding colonial city of Madras and its population and on the other the natural environment and wildlife of the city. Gwillim's paintings of birds are remarkable for their detail, naturalism and accuracy. In their studies of natural history, Gwillim and Symonds relied on the expertise of Indian bird catchers, fishermen, physicians, artists and translators, contributing to a unique intersection of European and Asian natural knowledge. The sisters' extensive correspondence demonstrates how women shaped networks of trade and scholarship through exchanges of plants, books, textiles and foods. In Women, Environment and Networks of Empire, an interdisciplinary group of scholars use the paintings and writings of Elizabeth Gwillim and Mary Symonds to explore natural history, the changing environment, colonialism and women's lives at the turn of the nineteenth century.

Constable: Paintings, Drawings and Watercolours John Constable, Basil Taylor, 1973. The Artist's Garden Jackie Bennett, 2019-10-29. The Artist's Garden will feature up to 20 gardens that have inspired and been home to some of the greatest painters of history. These gardens not only supplied the inspiration for creative works but also illuminate the professional motivation and private life of the artists themselves, from Cézanne's house in the south of France to Childe Hassam at Celia Thaxter's garden off the coast of Maine. Flowers and gardens have often been the first choice for artists looking for a subject. A garden close to the artist's studio is not only convenient for daily material and ideas but also has the advantage of changing through the seasons and over time. Claude Monet's Giverny was the catalyst for hundreds of great paintings by Monet and other artists, each one different from the one before. Sometimes a whole village becomes the focus for a colony of artists, as at Gerberoy in Picardy and Skagen on the northernmost tip of Denmark. This book is about the real homes and gardens that inspired these great artists, gardens that can still be visited today. The relationship between artist and garden is a complex one. A few artists, including Pierre Bonnard and his neighbour Monet, were keen gardeners as much in love with their plants as their work; while for others like Sorolla in Madrid, his courtyard home was both a sanctuary and a source of ideas.
