Feest, Patricia Condon Johnston, 1995 The Leading Pictorial Historian of the American Indian in the nineteenth century Seth Eastman was a career army officer whose paintings are unparalleled on two fronts Monumentally important as American art they also comprise a unique visual record of Native life which was then undergoing rapid change The Life of Elaine Goodale Eastman Theodore D. Sargent, 2005-01-01 Raised in a sheltered puritanical household in New England Elaine Goodale Eastman 1863 1953 followed her conscience and calling in 1885 when she traveled west and opened a school on the Great Sioux Reservation in South Dakota Over the next six years she witnessed many of the monumental events that affected the Lakotas including the inception of the Ghost Dance religion and the fallout from the Wounded Knee massacre in December 1890 She also fell in love with and married Charles Eastman a Dakota doctor with whom she had six children and went on to help edit his many popular books on Sioux life and culture This biography draws on a newly discovered cache of more than one hundred letters from Elaine that were collected by one of her sisters Rose Goodale Dayton as well as newly discovered family correspondence and photographs Previous books about Elaine including her own autobiography emphasize her work on the Sioux reservation and association with her famous husband Access to her personal papers however enabled Theodore D Sargent to shed new light on the dynamics of her thirty year marriage to Charles and its ultimate demise the importance of her own literary contributions during this period and the challenges and successes of her life following their separation The result is a long overdue multidimensional portrait of the relationships and aspirations that impelled and troubled this fascinating woman and her extraordinary life The Origin Story of Fort Road/West Seventh Street, the Township/City of Saint Paul, the Territory/State of Minnesota: Glacial Age Forward Joseph Landsberger, 2025-08-01 The relationship of a people to the lands where they live is crucial for understanding their history and culture From Bdote to Imnizha ska from Fort Snelling to Seven Corners the West End in Saint Paul Minnesota has had a complex geologic and demographic history These origins elucidate settlement patterns beginning with Native peoples particularly the eastern Dakota Successive evolution dates from extractive European colonialism beginning with French explorers traders and missionaries However a m tis population is soon displaced by East Coast claimants and speculators following acquisition of Native lands With the opening of those lands to settlement early working class European settler immigrants from Bavaria Bohemia and Baden W rttemberg drained swamps and cleared the Big Woods who worked and built who organized and socialized Successive waves included Italians Irish Blacks Jews et al They built what has become the oldest housing stock and commercial strip of the State of Minnesota Fast forward to post World War II times the stresses of these same inner city neighborhoods are reclaimed by a dynamic activist group of neighbors who resist urban renewal plans While neighborhoods from east to west from Irvine Park to Kipps Glenn were
