Dodds,1993-09 This richly illustrated volume offers a portrait of the varied and still unfamiliar world of medieval Spain Illuminated Manuscripts of Medieval Spain Mireille Mentré,1996 As the end of the first millennium drew near a date when many expected the end of the world the beleaguered Christian communities of Spain still dominated by Islam were experiencing a profound spiritual crisis To make sense of their predicament they turned to the Revelation of St John the Divine in particular the commentary written three centuries before by the monk Beatus of Liebana making of their illuminated manuscripts an art form of extraordinary expressive power More than twenty of these manuscripts survive dating from between 900 and 1100 all illuminated in a colorful style known as Mozarabic a combination of Carolingian Islamic Byzantine and Visigothic art The Beatus manuscripts are the largest but not the only body of such work there are Bibles and a small number of other religious texts All however share the same apocalyptic vision Cut off from the rest of Europe and obsessed by the imminence of God's judgement these artists invented a world peopled by angelic warriors demons and beasts exotic birds and serpents and luxuriant trees This bizarre psychologically fascinating world is revealed here in superb colour plates and finely detailed black and white illustrations Mireille Mentré explores the context of the illuminations and explains their dense theological meaning without dissipating their magic Early Medieval Art in Spain Pedro de Palol,Max Hirmer,1967 The Art of Medieval Spain, A.D. 500-1200 Metropolitan Museum of Art,2013 Architecture and Ideology in Early Medieval Spain Jerrilynn Denise Dodds,1990 In analyzing the early medieval architecture of Christian and Islamic Spain Jerrilynn Dodds explores the principles of artistic response to social and cultural tension offering an account of that unique artistic experience that set Spain apart from the rest of Europe and established a visual identity born of the confrontation of cultures that perceived one another as alien Architecture and Ideology in Early Medieval Spain covers the Spanish medieval experience from the Visigothic oligarchy to the year 1000 addressing a variety of cases of cultural interchange It examines the embattled reactive stance of Hispano Romans to their Visigothic rulers and the Asturian search for a new language of forms to support a political position dissociated from the struggles of a peninsula caught in the grip of a foreign and infidel rule Dodds then examines the symbolic meaning of the Mozarabic churches of the tenth century and their reflection of the Mozarabs threatened cultural identity The final chapter focuses on two cases of artistic interchange between Islamic and Christian builders with a view toward understanding the dynamics of such interchange between conflicting cultures Dodds concludes with a short account of the beginning of Romanesque architecture in Spain and an analysis of some of the ways in which artistic expression can reveal the subconscious of a culture
