Painting Place David P. Silcox, David Milne, 1996-01-01 A biography of one of Canada's greatest artists lavishly illustrated and based on years of research by a leading historian David Milne 1882-1952 is recognized as one of the most innovative and original artists of his generation David B. Milne: 1882-1928 David Milne, 1998 David Milne David P. Silcox, 2005 A well illustrated concise introduction to the art and life of David Milne 1882-1953 widely regarded as one of the most gifted Canadian painters of his generation Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century Joan Murray, 1999-11 Joan Murray discusses social and political events in combination with the movements ideas attitudes styles and important groups in Canadian art of this century Inner Places James King, 2015-08-08 2016 Hamilton Arts Council Literary Award for Non Fiction Winner David Milne is one of Canada's finest artists a man whose work speaks to the intricate beauty of the world as he experienced it David Milne 1882-1953 dedicated his life to exploring nature and casting it into art in a variety of modernist formats He was born into poverty in rural Ontario and remained poor all his life because of his relentless dedication to his art For him art was life Nothing mattered to him as much as the enormous kick he felt when he was able to produce the image his artist's eye told him was there Milne returned to Ontario in 1929 after a twenty five year stay in the United States In every place he lived his peripatetic existence Milne created a different kind of landscape painting In his chosen life of solitude his mind and hand remained very much alive Since Milne spent as much time writing as he did painting he provides an enormous amount of material for a life writer His biography re-creates the texture of the artist's one of a kind life and struggles allowing a truly intimate portrait to emerge Bringing Art to Life Andrew Horrall, 2009-09-14 In 1959 Alan Jarvis the brilliant and charismatic director of the National Gallery of Canada was forced to resign following a disagreement with the government over the purchase of works by European Old Masters He never fully recovered from this dismissal or the public humiliation that followed succumbing to alcoholism in a little over a decade Picturing the Land Marilyn J. McKay, 2011-04-12 Emphasizing the ways in which social economic and political conditions determine representation Marilyn McKay moves beyond canonical images and traditional nationalistic interpretations by analyzing Canadian landscape art in relation to different concepts of territory Taking an expansive and inclusive perspective on Canadian landscape art McKay depicts this tradition in all its diversity and draws it into the larger body of Western landscape art broadening the horizon of future study appreciation and criticism Richly illustrated and filled with sophisticated and innovative commentary Picturing the Land provides new and distinct histories of the landscape art of French and English Canada The Force of Culture Karen Finlay, 2004-12-15 A misunderstood and sometimes maligned figure Vincent Massey was one of Canada's most influential cultural policy makers and art patrons Best known as Canada's first native born Governor General he chaired the landmark Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts Letters and Sciences that led to the creation of the Canada Council The Force of Culture examines Massey's notion of culture its conflicted roots in late nineteenth century and early twentieth century Canadian Protestant thought and Massey's transformation into a champion of culture as a bastion of Canadian sovereignty Karen Finlay's study goes beyond existing literature by examining the role of Massey's Methodist upbringing in instilling an education gospel as the bedrock of culture and the foundation of a national citizenry The study also reassesses Massey's reputation as a supporter of the fine arts Steeped in Methodism his attitudes towards the arts were ambiguous He never adopted a purely art for art's sake doctrine but came to understand that the arts without being moralizing could serve a moral and cultural purpose the expression and affirmation of national character and sovereignty As well as charting Massey's evolving attitudes towards culture and the arts Finlay attempts to redress the common charges of sexism elitism and anglophonism levelled against him Finlay stresses Massey's contradictory views on issues relating to gender race and class outweighed by the ongoing legacy of his belief in Canadian cultural diversity Above all Massey valorized the principles of excellence and diversity as twin antidotes to the anathema of conformity and cultural homogenization The tenet Massey sought to honour pertaining deeply to the collective and moral nature of humanism in Canada Finlay argues was community without uniformity The Force of Culture shows that Massey was in certain respects a democratizer and even a populist who believed that difference need not divide Electronic Format Disclaimer Images removed at the request of the rights holder

Shaped by the West Wind Claire Elizabeth Campbell, 2005 Claire Campbell draws from recent work in cultural history landscape studies in geography and art history and environmental history to explore what happens when external agendas confront local realities a story central to the Canadian experience Explorers fishers artists and park planners all were forced to respond to the unique contours of this inland sea their encounters defined a regional identity even as they constructed a popular image for the Bay in the national imagination Jacket

The Social and the Real: Political Art of the 1930s in the Western Hemisphere, 2006 Margaret and Charley Henry B.M. Best, 2003-06-01 Although Charles Best is known for discovering insulin the story of his life neither begins nor ends with that one moment Not only did he make many other discoveries he was also one half of an extraordinary couple who during their almost sixty years together were involved in many of the significant events of the twentieth century Margaret Charley is the story of these two people from their beginnings on the east coast at the turn of the century through the years that followed Through diaries scrapbooks photograph albums and other documentation the details of their lives are shared with the reader

In Other Words Anna Porter, 2018-09-25 In Other Words is a lively charming gossipy memoir of life in the publishing trenches and how one restlessly curious young woman sparked a creative awakening in a new country she chose to call home We need our own dreams Anna Porter When Anna Porter arrived in Canada in early 1968 with one battered suitcase little money and a head full of dreams she had no idea that this country would become her home for the rest of her life or that she would play a major role in defining what it means to be Canadian And where better to become a Canadian than at the dynamic publishing house McClelland of prima donnas such as Roloff Beny and Harold Town whose excesses threatened to sink the company of exhausted editors dealing with intemperate writers of crazy schemes to interest Canadians in buying books She recalls the thrilling days at the helm of the company she founded in the 1980s when Canada's writers were suddenly front page news As president of Key Porter Books she dodged lawsuits argued with bank managers and fought to sell Canadian authors around the world This intriguing memoir brings to life that time in our history when finally the voices Canadians craved to hear were our own In Other Words is a love letter to Canada's authors and creative agitators who against almost impossible odds have sustained and advanced the nation's writing culture Moving effortlessly from the boardrooms of Canada's elite and the halls of power in Ottawa to the threadbare offices of idealistic young publishers and ultimately to her own painful yet ever present past in Hungary Porter offers an unforgettable insider's account of what is gained and lost in a lifetime of championing our stories Alice Schille
