Painting Sharp Focus Still Lives:

Painting Sharp Focus Still Lives Ken Davies, Ellye Bloom, 1975 Drawing Sharp Focus Still Lives Robert Zappalorti, 1981
Demonstrates special techniques for creating realistic sketches of landscapes and still lifes and includes advice on drawing materials Still Life Painting Atelier Michael Friel, 2014-12-16 The equivalent of a foundation course in traditional oil painting for beginning to intermediate level artists this in depth book uses the still life as a practical way to master oil techniques The still life is a practical forgiving genre as it does not require the likeness of a portrait or the accurate proportions of the figure and unlike the landscape it doesn't change with the weather Instead it gives aspiring artists ample time to study and the opportunity to look closer It can be used as a purely formal subject for drawing and painting techniques or a platform for emotional expression using personal symbolism and imagery However though the still life is used throughout as a teaching tool this is first and foremost a book about oil painting It begins with simple compositions that build to more complex arrangements Starting with essential information on how to best set up your studio including lighting equipment materials paints solvents brushes mediums and preparing your canvas and paper for oil painting Still Life Painting Atelier then offers concrete lessons in a logical progressive sequence with step by step illustrations finished paintings diagrams and tips Chapters cover How to address composition through thumbnail sketches and line drawings Using underpainting to study the characteristics of light and shade The basics of color theory and color mixing How to use a variety of brushes to create sharp and soft edges Techniques that are helpful when painting metal and glass How to apply glazing and scumbling to bring luminosity and texture Still Life Painting Techniques Adrian Ryan, 1978 New Zealand Painting Michael Dunn, 2003 Completely revised and updated Chapters have been rewritten Also added in a substantial new chapter on contemporary Maori and Pacific Island painting as well as an acknowledgement of the coming wave of Asian artists Themes in American Painting Robert Henkes, 1993 Examined are 13 common themes in American painting mother and child modes of transportation the clown the city sports the crucifixion interiors natural disasters wars and aftermath social protest and injustice still life self portraits and music The work of many artists Ben Shahn Frederick Remington Arthur G Dove Jacob Lawrence and many others are used to illustrate common styles The themes and artists were chosen to represent varying emotional moods and approaches to composition naturalism realism cubism abstract abstract expressionism photorealism and pop schools of art are represented Heavily illustrated Theories and Documents of Contemporary Art Kristine Stiles, Peter Selz, 2012-09-25 An essential text in the field of contemporary art history it has now been updated to represent 30 countries and over 100 new artists The internationalism evident in this revised edition reflects the growing interest in contemporary art throughout the world from the U S and Europe to the Middle East Asia Africa Latin America and Australia The Phenomenology of Paint Adam Geczy, 2025-05-29 Analyzing the different modes of appearance and application of the most ubiquitous medium in art and ritual this book examines the aesthetics anthropology ethnography and history of paint The result is a clearly articulated account of both the materiality and phenomenology of paint as substance and idea Beginning with paint as ritual in prehistoric and ancient times it discusses the provenance politics and chemistry of pigments the role of concealment and beautification as paint is applied to bodies the stories and practices of hiding paint by artists and efforts to isolate paint as an essential quantity ending on the philosophical question as to whether paint is separable from colour A phenomenology of paint is in many respects an ontology of the ways we seek to represent and mediate our existence it is the medium for both covering house paint make up to revealing art By exploring paint in a multitude of roles from bodily substances to chemical engineering this study provides a fresh understanding of ritual and representation through this medium that reveals through covering
