"The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting, 1775-1809" Liam Lenihan, 2017-07-05 Examining the literary career of the eighteenth century Irish painter James Barry 1741-1806 through an interdisciplinary methodology The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting 1775-1809 is the first full length study of the artist's writings Liam Lenihan critically assesses the artist's own aesthetic philosophy about painting and printmaking and reveals the extent to which Barry wrestles with the significant stylistic transformations of the pre-eminent artistic genre of his age history painting Lenihan's book delves into the connections between Barry's writings and art and the cultural and political issues that dominated the public sphere in London during the American and French Revolutions Barry's writings are read within the context of the political and aesthetic thought of his distinguished friends and contemporaries such as Edmund Burke his first patron Joshua Reynolds his sometime friend and rival Mary Wollstonecraft and William Godwin with whom he was later friends and his students and adversaries William Blake and Henry Fuseli Ultimately Lenihan's interdisciplinary reading shows the extent to which Barry's faith in the classical tradition in general and the genre of history painting in particular is permeated by the hermeneutics of suspicion This study explores and contextualizes Barry's attempt to rethink and remake the pre-eminent art form of his era

The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting, 1775-1809 Dr Liam Lenihan, 2014-01-10 Examining the literary career of the eighteenth century Irish painter James Barry 1741-1806 through an interdisciplinary methodology The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting 1775-1809 is the first full length study of the artist's writings Liam Lenihan critically assesses the artist's own aesthetic philosophy about painting and printmaking and reveals the extent to which Barry wrestles with the significant stylistic transformations of the pre-eminent artistic genre of his age history painting Lenihan's book delves into the connections between Barry's writings and art and the cultural and political issues that dominated the public sphere in London during the American and French Revolutions

Painting with Words, Writing with Pictures Franco Ricci, 2001-01-01 Ricci's book ranges widely over Calvino's oeuvre to illustrate the accuracy of the idea articulated by Calvino himself that a visual image lies at the origin of all his narrative The book's main theme is the difficult interface between word and image that Calvino struggled with throughout his career the act of perception that rendered visible that which was invisible and transformed what was seen into what is read Ricci holds that Calvino's narrative has an imagocentric program and that his literary strategy is ekphrastic i.e. it is characterized by literary description of visual representation real or imaginary The book is interdisciplinary in nature and will interest not only scholars of literature but also those who work with the visual arts and with information technology

Writing and Filming the Painting Laura M. Sager Eidt, 2008 This innovative interdisciplinary study compares the uses of painting in literary texts and films In developing a framework of four types of ekphrasis the author argues for the expansion of the concept of ekphrasis by demonstrating its applicability as interpretive tool to films about the visual arts and artists

Analyzing selected works of art by Goya Rembrandt and Vermeer and their ekphrastic treatment in various texts and films this book examines how the medium of ekphrasis affects the representation of the visual arts in order to show what the differences imply about issues such as gender roles and the function of art for the construction of a personal or social identity Because of its highly cross disciplinary nature this book is of interest not only to scholars of literature and aesthetics but also for scholars of film studies By providing an innovative approach to discussing non documentary films about artists the author shows that ekphrasis is a useful tool for exploring both aesthetic concerns and ideological issues in film This study also addresses art historians as it deals with the reception of major artists in European literature and film throughout the 20th century

When Writing Met Art Denise Schmandt-Besserat, 2009-02-17 An archaeologist and art historian examines the impact of literacy on visual art during the early urban period in the Near East Denise Schmandt Besserat opened a new chapter in the history of literacy when she demonstrated that the cuneiform script invented in the ancient Near East in the late fourth millennium BC the world s oldest known system of writing derived from an archaic counting device Her discovery was published in Before Writing From Counting to Cuneiform and How Writing Came About which was named by American Scientist as one of the 100 or so Books that shaped a Century of Science In When Writing Met Art Schmandt Besserat expands her history of writing into the visual realm Using examples of ancient Near Eastern writing and masterpieces of art she shows that between 3500 and 3000 BC the conventions of writing everything from its linear organization to its semantic use of the form size order and placement of signs spread to the making of art resulting in artworks that presented complex visual narratives in place of the repetitive motifs found on preliterate art objects Schmandt Besserat then demonstrates art s reciprocal impact on the development of writing She shows how beginning in 2700 2600 BC the inclusion of inscriptions on funerary and votive art objects emancipated writing from its original accounting function To fulfill its new role writing evolved to replicate speech this made it possible to compile organize and synthesize unlimited amounts of information Schmandt Besserat s pioneering investigation documents a turning point in human history when two of our most fundamental information media reciprocally multiplied their capacities to communicate When writing met art literate civilization was born

Writing Back to Modern Art Jonathan Harris,2005-10-09 Here for the first time is a full length study of the critical modernisms of the three leading art writers of the second half of the twentieth century which helps us build a better understanding of the development of modern art writing and its relation to the post modern in art and society since the 1970s Focusing on canonical modern artists such as Manet Cezanne Picasso and Pollock this book provides an important understanding of writing and criticism in modern art for all students and scholars of art theory and art history Mainstay issues discussed include aesthetic evaluation subjectivity and meaning in art and art writing Jonathan Harris examines key discourses and identifies points of significant overlap as well as sharp disjunction between the critics Developing the notions of good and bad complexity in modernist criticism Writing Back to Modern Art creates ways for us to think outside of these discourses of value and meaning and helps us to look at the place that art writing holds in the latter twentieth century and beyond

Agnes Martin: Her Life and Art Nancy Princenthal,2015-06-16 The first biography of visionary artist Agnes Martin one of the most original and influential painters of the postwar period Over the course of a career that spanned fifty years Agnes Martin s austere serene work anticipated and helped to define Minimalism even as she battled psychological crises and carved out a solitary existence in the American Southwest Martin identified with the Abstract Expressionists but her commitment to linear geometry caused her to be associated in turn with Minimalist feminist and even outsider artists She moved through some of the liveliest art communities of her time while maintaining a legendary reserve I paint with my back to the world she says both at the beginning and at the conclusion of a documentary filmed when she was in her late eighties When she died at ninety two in Taos New Mexico it is said she had not read a newspaper in half a century No substantial critical monograph exists on this acclaimed artist the recipient of two career retrospectives as well as the National Medal of the Arts who was championed by critics as diverse in their approaches as Lucy Lippard Lawrence Alloway and Rosalind Krauss Furthermore no attempt has been made to describe her extraordinary life The whole engrossing
