Pais Bajo De Mi Piel:

Metáforas de lo indecible Ramona Lagos, 2003

Writing Women in Central America Laura Barbas-Rhoden, 2003

What is the relationship between history and fiction in a place with a contentious past And of what concern is gender in the telling of stories about the past This study explores these questions as it considers key Central American texts Omar

Cabezas, Nicaragua, and the Narrative of Liberation José María Mantero, 2019-06-26 Throughout his political and military career Omar Cabezas fought to transform Nicaragua to implement the ethics that had led him to participate in the armed struggle against Anastasio Somoza's regime and to be active during the 1980s and 1990s as a member of the National Congress Omar Cabezas Nicaragua and the Narrative of Liberation To the Revolution and Beyond surveys the foundations of liberation discourse as it relates to the work of Omar Cabezas It examines themes associated with Nicaraguan and Latin American culture and literature considering key issues of national liberation and identity in the wake of the Sandinista revolution By contextualizing the research within a continental and national perspective and using concepts such as utopia orality and humor to frame the discussion on national liberation Mantero shows the symbiotic relationship between the work of Cabezas and the reformulation of Nicaraguan identity in the post revolution Post-Conflict Central American

Literature Yvette Aparicio, 2013-11-26 Post Conflict Central American Literature Searching for Home and Longing to Belong studies often overlooked contemporary poetry Through the exploration of poetry and a select number of short stories this book contemplates the meanings of home belonging and the homeland in post conflict globalizing and neoliberal El Salvador Nicaragua and Costa Rica Aparicio analyzes literary representations of and meditations on the current conditions as well as the recent pasts of Central American homelands Additionally the book highlights aesthetic renditions of home at the same time that it engages with and is grounded in contemporary Central American cultures politics and societies In effect this book contests hegemonic and apparently commonsense views that assert that globalization produces global citizenship and globalized experiences Instead it argues that a palpable desire for home and belonging survives and thrives in rapidly globalizing Central American homelands Seeking Meaning, Seeking Justice in a Post-Cold War World Judith

Keene, Elizabeth Rechniewski, 2018-03-27 The challenge for historians as for individuals and nations has been to make sense of the Cold War past without recourse to the obsolete frameworks of a dichotomous world The editors of Seeking Meaning Seeking Justice in the Post Cold War World Judith Keene and Elizabeth Rechniewski have brought together contributions that address the diverse modes by which the Cold War is being assessed with a major focus on countries on the periphery of the Cold War confrontation These approaches include developments in historiography as new intellectual and cultural frame are applied to old debates Authors also consider the universal principles and moral discourses including that of human rights on which judgements have been based and judicial processes instigated and the forms of memorialisation that have sought to come to terms and perhaps achieve reconciliation with a Cold War past Contributors are Ann Curthoys Philip Deery

Katherine Hite Michael Humphrey Su kyong Hwang Perry Johansson Judith Keene Betty O'Neill Peter Read Elizabeth Rechniewski Estela Valverde Adrian Vickers and Marivic Wyndham The Routledge Handbook of Translation, Feminism and Gender Luise von Flotow, Hala Kamal, 2020-06-09 The Routledge Handbook of Translation Feminism and Gender provides a comprehensive state of the art overview of feminism and gender awareness in translation and translation studies today Bringing together work from more than 20 different countries from Russia to Chile Yemen Turkey China India Egypt and the Maghreb as well as the UK Canada the USA and Europe this Handbook represents a transnational approach to this topic which is in development in many parts of the world With 41 chapters this book presents discusses and critically examines many different aspects of gender in translation and its effects both local and transnational Providing overviews of key questions and case studies of work currently in progress this Handbook is the essential reference and resource for students and researchers of translation feminism and gender World Literature in Spanish Maureen Ihrle, Salvador Oropesa, 2011-10-20 Containing roughly 850 entries about Spanish language literature throughout the world this expansive work provides coverage of the varied countries ethnicities time periods literary movements and genres of these writings Providing a thorough introduction to Spanish language literature worldwide and across time is a tall order However World Literature in Spanish An Encyclopedia contains roughly 850 entries on both major and minor authors themes genres and topics of Spanish literature from the Middle Ages to the present day affording an amazingly comprehensive reference collection in a single work This encyclopedia describes the growing diversity within national borders the increasing interdependence among nations and the myriad impacts of Spanish literature across the globe All countries that produce literature in Spanish in Europe Africa the Americas and Asia are represented covering both canonical authors and emerging contemporary writers and trends Underrepresented writings such as texts by women writers queer and Afro Hispanic texts children's literature and works on relevant but less studied topics such as sports and nationalism also appear While writings throughout the centuries are covered those of the 20th and 21st centuries receive special consideration Trans/Forming Utopia - Volume II Elizabeth Russell, 2009 Is the utopian project dead Is it possible to imagine a utopian society or a utopian world in the aftermath of the collapse of ideologies This book contains eighteen essays which are the result of the 7th International Conference of Utopian Studies held in Spain in 2006 either debating the subject or suggesting alternative readings to some of the theoretical ideas raised within utopian studies This volume focuses on the importance of narratives in utopian literature They define the world we live in and the world we wish to live in Through narratives of confession and indeed through silence itself the unconscious emerges and desire is articulated The articles in this volume question and challenge the power of the word the stability of meaning and the relationship between thought and action in the construction of utopia and dystopia They also point to the various literary frameworks of utopian and dystopian narratives thus connecting stories from the past present and future of both real and imaginary and communities Displaced Kate Rose, 2020-01-30

Through specific and rigorous analysis of contemporary literary texts this book shows how writers from inside affected communities portray indigeneity displacement and trauma In a world of increasing global inequality this study aims to demonstrate how literature and the study of it can effect positive social change notably in the face of global environmental economic and social injustice This collection brings together a diverse and compelling array of voices from academics leading their fields around the world to pioneer a new approach to literary analysis anchored in engagement with our changing world

Paulo Freire and the Cold War Politics of Literacy Andrew J. Kirkendall, 2010 Paulo Freire and the Cold War Politics of Literacy is a meticulously researched study Kirkendall offers a sweeping view of Freire's life work across three continents from northeastern Brazil to Chile to Harvard University and the World Council of Churches to Guine Bissau and Nicaragua and back to Brazil This book will be required reading for anyone interested in Freire and the reach of his ideas Jerry Davila author of Hotel Tropic Brazil and the Challenge of African Decolonization 1950-1980 Life Writing as World Literature Helga Lenart-Cheng, Ioana Luca, 2025-05-01 A global array of contributors explore the interplay between translation and circulation mediums and materialities and aesthetics and politics in how life writing is shaped by and becomes world literature We live in the age of popular self representation in that most people around the globe either produce or consume autobiographical material memoirs selfies blogs etc The current volume investigates this global phenomenon and examines how life writing and world literature converge Why do some personal stories get picked up translated circulated and taught in classrooms while others remain moored in local waters Do autobiographical stories that travel widely have something in common about them Or is it the other way around is it our notion of world literature that imposes uniform expectations on these diverse texts And what can we gain from studying these two fields in conjunction Life Writing as World Literature brings together experts who map regional and local autobiographical traditions from six continents These scholars explore the dynamic interplay between local and global aesthetics and sociopolitical concerns presenting case studies that include prison narratives from communist regimes Japanese diaries multilingual Caribbean memoirs Indian auto biographical comics and stories by Taiwanese domestic workers To understand how and why some personal stories enter global dissemination contributors inquire into translation market mechanisms and circulation patterns while also exploring the affordances of new media and materialities when recording contemporary lives Life Writing as World Literature brings a fresh perspective to both fields world literature and life writing opening up exciting avenues of research Die Romische Republik EPUB 2-3, 2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive introduction to 20th and 21st century world poets and their most famous most distinctive and most influential poems Memory and Trauma in International Relations Erica Resende, Dovile Budryte, 2013-11-20 This work seeks to provide a comprehensive and accessible survey of the international dimension of trauma and memory and its manifestations in various cultural contexts Drawing together contributions and case studies from scholars around the globe the book explores the international political dimension of feeling suffering forgetting remembering and memorializing traumatic events and to investigate how they function as social practices for overcoming trauma and creating social change Divided into two sections the book maps out the different theoretical debates and then moves on to examine emerging themes such as ontological security social change gender religion foreign policy natural disasters Throughout the chapters the editors consider the social political and ethical implications of forgetting and remembering traumatic events in world politics Showcasing how trauma and memory deepen our understanding of IR this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations memory and trauma studies and security studies

Gender for the Warfare State Robin Truth Goodman, 2016-10-14 Gender for the Warfare State is the first scholarly investigation into the written works of U S women combat veterans in twenty first century wars Most recent studies quantify military participation showing how many women participate in armed services and what their experiences are in a traditionally male institution Many of these treatments regard women as victims solely of enemy fire even as they are also often victims of their own military apparatus and of their own involvement in global aggression By applying literary analysis to a sociological question Gender for the Warfare State views women s experiences through story and literary traditions that carry meaning into present practices Goodman shows that women in combat are not just entering and being victimized in male institutions but are also actively changing the story of gender and thus the structure of power that is constructed through gender Moreover this book unveils a new narrative of care that affects economic relations more broadly and the contemporary politics of the liberal social contract Women s participation in combat is not just a U S event but global and therefore has a deeper historical range than current sociological accounts imply The book compares the political contexts of women s entry into war now with their prior twentieth century contributions to wars in other cultural settings and then uses this comparison to show a variety of meanings at play in the gender of war

Latin American Women Writers: An Encyclopedia María Claudia André, Eva Paulino Bueno, 2014-01-09 Latin American Women Writers An Encyclopedia presents the lives and critical works of over 170 women writers in Latin America between the sixteenth and twentieth centuries This features thematic entries as well as biographies of female writers whose works were originally published in Spanish or Portuguese and who have had an impact on literary political and social studies Focusing on drama poetry and fiction this work includes authors who have published at least three literary texts that have had a significant impact on Latin American literature and culture Each entry is followed by extensive bibliographic references including primary and secondary sources Coverage consists of critical appreciation and analysis of the writers works Brief biographical data is included but the main focus is on the meanings and contexts of the works as well as their cultural and political impact In addition to author entries other themes are explored such as humor in contemporary Latin American fiction lesbian literature in Latin America magic realism or mother images in Latin American literature The aim is to provide a unique thorough scholarly survey of women writers and their works in Latin America This Encyclopedia will be of interest to both to the student of literature as well as to any reader interested in understanding more about Latin American culture literature and how women have represented gender and national issues throughout the centuries Sandino's Nation Stephen Henighan, 2014-04-01 Ernesto Cardenal and Sergio Ramirez are two of the most influential Latin American intellectuals of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Addressing Nicaragua's struggle for self definition from divergent ethnic religious generational political and class backgrounds they constructed distinct yet compatible visions of national history anchored in a reappraisal of the early twentieth century insurgent leader Augusto Cesar Sandino During the Sandinista Revolution of 1979-90 Cardenal appointed Nicaragua's minister of culture became one of the most provocative and internationally recognized figures of liberation theology while Ramirez a member of the revolutionary junta and later elected vice president of Nicaragua emerged as an authoritative figure for third world nationalism But before all else the two were groundbreaking creative writers Through a close reading of the works by Nicaragua's best known and most prolific modern authors Sandino's Nation studies the construction of Nicaraguan national identity during three distinct periods of the country's recent history before during and after the 1979-90 revolution Stephen Henighan offers rigorous textual analyses of poems memoirs essays and novels interwoven with a sharply narrated history of Nicaragua The only comprehensive study of the careers of Cardenal and Ramirez Sandino's Nation is essential to understanding transformations to both Nicaragua and the role of the writer in Latin America Guerrillas Dirk Kruijt, 2013-04-04 Three parallel wars were fought in the latter half of the twentieth century in El Salvador Guatemala and Nicaragua These wars were long and brutal dividing international opinion sharply between US support for dictatorial regimes and the USSR's sponsorship of guerrilla fighters This fascinating study of the guerrilla generation is based on in depth interviews with both guerrilla comandantes and political and military leaders of the time Dirk Kruijt analyses the dreams and achievements the successes and failures the utopias and dystopias of an entire Central American generation and its leaders Guerrillas ranges widely from the guerrilla movement's origins in poverty oppression and exclusion its tactics in warfare the ill fated experiment with Sandinista government in Nicaragua to the subsequent normalization of guerrilla movements within democratic societies The story told here is vital for understanding contemporary social movements in Latin America Modernity at Gunpoint Sophie Esch, 2018-11-06 2019 Best Book in the Humanities Mexico section of the Latin American Studies Association Modernity at Gunpoint provides the first study of the political and cultural significance of weaponry in the context of major armed conflicts in Mexico and Central America In this highly original study Sophie Esch approaches political violence through its most direct but also most symbolic tool the firearm In novels songs and photos of insurgency firearms appear as artifacts tropes and props through which artists negotiate conceptions of modernity citizenship and militancy Esch grounds her analysis in important readings of canonical texts by Martin Luis Guzman Nellie Campobello Omar Cabezas Gioconda Belli Sergio Ramirez Horacio Castellanos Moya and others Through the lens of the iconic firearm Esch relates the story of the peasant insurgencies of the Mexican Revolution the guerrilla warfare of the Sandinista Revolution and the ongoing drug related wars in Mexico and Central America to highlight the historical cultural gendered and political significance of weapons in this volatile region Negotiating Love in Post-revolutionary Nicaragua Turid Hagene, 2008 This book explores the issue of love and its place in the reproduction of gender asymmetry in Nicaragua The theme is discussed in the context of specific religious and work practices living arrangements gender values and norms and the gender practices and legislation of the Sandinista revolution The study uses lifeworld phenomenology as its theoretical approach placing people's own experience center stage Therefore a case study of the Esperanza sewing cooperative is presented built on life stories interview materials and participant observation with the cooperative women and their husbands The material and discursive practices and emotional experiences of men and women are examined in this particular socio cultural setting How do we account for the highly unequal bargains the women strike with their husbands accepting large material responsibilities and time share love even if they experience this as emotionally hurtful The study testifies to women's autonomy in family maintenance and religious practices an autonomy which seems to falter in the fields of love and sexuality some of the men and women however negotiate subtle changes in gender norms and values Nicaragua and the Politics of Utopia Daniel Chavez, 2015-12-08

The history of modern Nicaragua is populated with leaders promising a new and better day Inevitably as Nicaragua and the Politics of Utopia demonstrates reality casts a shadow and the community must look to the next leader As an impoverished state second only to Haiti in the Americas Nicaragua has been the scene of cyclical attempts and failures at modern development Author Daniel Chavez investigates the cultural and ideological bases of what he identifies as the three decisive movements of social reinvention in Nicaragua the regimes of the Somoza family of much of the early to mid twentieth century the governments of the Sandinista party and the present day struggle to adapt to the global market economy For each era Chavez reveals the ways Nicaraguan popular culture adapted and interpreted the new political order shaping critiquing or amplifying the regime's message of stability and prosperity for the people These tactics of interpretation otherwise known as meaning making became all important for the Nicaraguan people as they opposed the autocracy of Somocismo or complemented the Sandinistas or struggled to find their place in the Neoliberal era In every case Chavez shows the reflective nature of cultural production and its pursuit of utopian idealism
