Pakistan Madrasas Extremism And The Military:

Pakistan Martti Ahtisaari,2002-11 In its new role as key ally in the U S led war on terrorism Pakistan s mil gov t has toned down many policies that previously fostered militancy and religious extremism But on a key test reform of Madrasas Pakistani religious schools that breed extremism the mil gov t thus far has acted weakly Madrasas provide free religious education and lodging and are essentially schools for the poor About 1/3 of all children in Pakistan attend madrasas These seminaries run on public philanthropy and produce indoctrinated clergymen of various Muslim sects Chapters background history the madrasa boom incl the connection between jihad and sectarianism madrasas under civilian rule dealing with the jihadis madrasa law and much more The Madrasa in Asia Farish A. Noor,Yoginder Sikand,Martin van Bruinessen,2008 Summary Since the rise of the Taliban and Al Qaeda the traditional Islamic schools known as the madrasa have frequently been portrayed as hotbeds of terrorism For much longer the madrasa has been considered by some as a backward and petrified impediment to social progress However for an important segment of the poor Muslim populations of Asia madrasas constitute the only accessible form of education This volume presents an overview of the madrasas in countries such as China Indonesia Malaysia India and Pakistan Publisher description PAKISTAN: MADRASAS, EXTREMISM AND THE MILITARY. International Crisis Group,2022 Faith-Based Violence and Deobandi Militancy in Pakistan Jawad Syed,Edwina Pio,Tahir Kamran,Abbas Zaidi,2016-11-09 This book documents and highlights the Deobandi dimension of extremism and its implications for faith based violence and terrorism This dimension of radical Islam remains largely ignored or misunderstood in mainstream media and academic scholarship The book addresses this gap It also covers the Deobandi diaspora in the West and other countries and the role of its radical elements in transnational incidents of violence and terrorism The specific identification of the radical Deobandi and Salafi identity of militants is useful to isolate them from the majority of peaceful Sunni and Shia Muslims Such identification provides direction to governmental resources so they focus on those outfits mosques madrassas charities media and social media channels that are associated with these ideologies This book comes along at a time when there is a dire need for alternative and contextual discourses on terrorism

Radicalization in Pakistan Muhammad Shoaib Pervez,2020-11-29 This book offers a critical analysis of radicalization in Pakistan by deconstructing the global and the official state narratives designed to restrain Pakistani radicalization Chapters are centered around three distinct themes educational norms religious practices and geo political aspects of radicalization to examine the prevalent state and global practices which propagate Pakistani radicalization discourse The book argues that there is both a global agenda which presents Pakistan as the epicenter and sponsor of terrorism and a domestic or official agenda that portrays Pakistan as the state which sacrificed and suffered the most in the recent War on Terror which allow the country to gain sympathy as a victim Delineating both conflicting agendas through a critical analysis of global and state practices in order to understand the myths and narratives of radicalization in Pakistan constructed by powerful elites the book enables readers to gain a better understanding of this phenomenon A multidisciplinary critical approach to comprehending radicalization in Pakistan with innovative prescriptions for counter radicalization policy this book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of International Relations Security Studies Asian Politics as well as Religious Studies and Education in particular in the context of South Asia      The Moral Economy of the Madrasa Keiko

Sakurai, Fariba Adelkhah, 2011-03-07 The revival of madrasas in the 1980s coincided with the rise of political Islam and soon became associated with the clash of civilizations between Islam and the West This volume examines the rapid expansion of madrasas across Asia and the Middle East and analyses their role in society within their local national and global context Based on anthropological investigations in Afghanistan Bangladesh China Iran and Pakistan the chapters take a new approach to the issue examining the recent phenomenon of women in madrasas Hui Muslims in China relations between the Iran s Shia seminary after the 1979 Islamic revolution and Shia in Pakistan and Afghanistan and South Asian madrasas Emphasis is placed on the increased presence of women in these institutions and the reciprocal interactions between secular and religious schools in those countries Taking into account social political and demographic changes within the region the authors show how madrasas have been successful in responding to the educational demand of the people and how they have been modernized their style to cope with a changing environment A timely contribution to a subject with great international appeal this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international politics political Islam Middle East and Asian studies and anthropology      The Pakistan Paradox Christophe Jaffrelot, 2016-06-16 The idea of Pakistan stands riddled with tensions Initiated by a small group of select Urdu speaking Muslims who envisioned a unified Islamic state today Pakistan suffers the divisive forces of various separatist movements and religious fundamentalism A small entrenched elite continue to dominate the country s corridors of power and democratic forces and legal institutions remain weak But despite these seemingly insurmountable problems the Islamic Republic of Pakistan continues to endure The Pakistan Paradox is the definitive history of democracy in Pakistan and its survival despite ethnic strife Islamism and deepseated elitism This edition focuses on three kinds of tensions that are as old as Pakistan itself The tension between the unitary definition of the nation inherited from Jinnah and centrifugal ethnic forces between civilians and army officers who are not always in favour of or against democracy and between the Islamists and those who define Islam only as a cultural identity marker      The Global

Spread of Islamism and the Consequences for Terrorism Michael Freeman, Katherine Ellena, Amina Kator-Mubarez, 2021-02 Terrorism motivated by Islamist religious ideology has been on the rise for the last forty years Why The three prior waves of terrorism anarchist nationalist and Marxist arose generally from a combination of geopolitical events and local grievances This fourth wave of terrorism however has risen out of a different set of conditions Existing analyses of terrorism often consider how terrorist ideologies have evolved or how grievances have changed over time But these approaches miss what could be called the supply side of ideology how state and nonstate actors have exported an ideology of Islamism and how this ideology has taken root beyond what grievances or ideological interpretations would predict Michael Freeman connects the dots between several key events in 1979 the hostage crisis at the Grand Mosque in Mecca the Iranian Revolution and the Soviet incursion into Afghanistan and the incentives these events created for different actors to spread the supply of Islamism the institutions they produced in various countries and the terrorists who emerge from these institutions In The Global Spread of Islamism and the Consequences for Terrorism Freeman examines four countries that have experienced this export of Islamism Indonesia Pakistan the United Kingdom and the United States and briefly describes similar patterns in other countries Understanding the importance of the supply side of Islamism helps us better understand the strength and staying power of this current wave of terrorism as well as opportunities to better counter it

The Politics of Common Sense Aasim Sajjad Akhtar, 2018-02-01 This work offers a refreshingly different perspective on Pakistan it documents the evolution of Pakistan's structure of power over the past four decades In particular how the military dictatorship headed by General Zia ul Haq 1977-1988 whose rule has been almost exclusively associated with a narrow agenda of Islamisation transformed the political field through a combination of coercion and consent production The Zia regime inculcated within the society at large a common sense privileging the cultivation of patronage ties and the concurrent demeaning of counter hegemonic political practices which had threatened the structure of power in the decade before the military coup in 1977 The book meticulously demonstrates how the politics of common sense has been consolidated in the past three decades through the agency of emergent social forces such as traders and merchants as well as the religio political organisations that gained in influence during the 1980s

The Limits of Culture Brenda Shaffer, 2006 Experts analyze the effect of cultural interests on the foreign policy of states in the Caspian region including Iran Azerbaijan Armenia Georgia Afghanistan Kazakhstan and Pakistan

Secularism, Decolonisation, and the Cold War in South and Southeast Asia Clemens Six, 2017-07-20 The intensifying conflicts between religious communities in contemporary South and Southeast Asia signify the importance of gaining a clearer understanding of how societies have historically organised and mastered their religious diversity Based on extensive archival research in Asia Europe and the United States this book suggests a new approach to interpreting and explaining secularism not as a Western concept but as a distinct form of practice in 20th century global history In six case studies on the contemporary history of India Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore it analyses secularism as a project to create a high degree of distance between the state and religion during the era of decolonisation and the emerging Cold War between 1945 and 1970 To demonstrate the interplay between local and transnational dynamics the case studies look at patterns of urban planning the struggle against religious nationalism conflicts around religious education and anti communism as a dispute over secularism and social reform The book emphasises in particular the role of non state actors as key supporters of secular statehood a role that has thus far not received sufficient attention A novel approach to studying secularism in Asia the book discusses the different ways that global transformations such as decolonisation and the Cold War interacted with local relations to reshape and relocate religion in society It will be of interest to scholars of Religious Studies International Relations and Politics Studies of Empire Cold War Studies Subaltern Studies Modern Asian History and South and Southeast Asian Studies      Communalism and Globalization in South Asia and its Diaspora Deana Heath, Chandana Mathur, 2010-12-22 Taking as its premise the belief that communalism is not a resurgence of tradition but is instead an inherently modern phenomenon as well as a product of the fundamental agencies and ideas of modernity and that globalization is neither a unique nor unprecedented process this book addresses the question of whether globalization has amplified or muted processes of communalism It does so through exploring the concurrent histories of communalism and globalization in four South Asian contexts India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka as well as in various diasporic locations from the nineteenth century to the present Including contributions by some of the most notable scholars working on communalism in South Asia and its diaspora as well as by some challenging new voices the book encompasses both different disciplinary and theoretical perspectives It looks at a range of methodologies in an effort to stimulate new debates on the relationship between communalism and globalization and is a useful contribution to studies on South Asia and Asian History      Challenges of the Muslim World William W. Cooper, Piyu Yue, 2008-02-15 This book provides a data based approach to present and future developments in the Muslim world It focuses on the economics of the Muslim world including hot topics such as terrorism and oil prices and also suggests an approach that deals with the high illiteracy rates and inadequate education facilities in many Muslim countries

Globalized Islam Olivier Roy, 2004 A schism has emerged between mainstream Islamist movements in the Muslim world e g Hamas of Palestine and Hezbollah of Lebanon and the uprooted militants who strive to establish an imaginary ummah or Muslim community not embedded in any particular society or territory Roy provides a detailed comparison of these transnational movements whether peaceful like Tabligh Jamaat and the Islamic brotherhoods or violent like Al Qaeda Neofundamentalism he argues is both a product and an agent of globalization      Urban Terrorism N. C. Asthana, Anjali Nirmal, 2009 Outrageous myths have been created and perpetrated about terrorism in general and terrorism by Muslims in particular There are two reasons for it One is of course genuine ignorance about things Islamic The other reason is more sinister Myths are created and perpetuated because that keeps everyone in business By spinning yarns about the most horrible things the terrorists are capable of doing the media ensures that they have a never ending supply of sensational material with which to keep the people hooked it also enables the intelligence agencies and security forces to appear more relevant and expand their turf in the process The myths must be busted because they tend to settle deep in the collective subconscious and ultimately come to influence policy decisions The media for example would have you believe that we have not been able to eradicate terrorism only because we do not have enough commandos everywhere The fact is that terrorism would not be finished by killing a few terrorists Bomb blasts continue to take place in spite of the arrests of the masterminds

As long as we do not address the root cause there would be many more willing to kill and get killed Victory against terrorism can be achieved only if you have completely understood the fundamental reasons of terrorism the motivation of the terrorists the intrinsic weaknesses of the targets the innate strength of the way of the terrorist and the follies of the approach that you have persisted with so far If a nation has floundered in its war against terrorism it is because it has never had a serious and honest to God analysis of terrorism Hence this book Exhaustive yet attractive informative yet interesting and above all extremely hard hitting it is the ultimate encyclopedia of terrorism

Faithful Education Ali Riaz, 2008-09-03 In the wake of the terrorist attacks on September 11 2001 discussions on ties between Islamic religious education institutions namely madrassahs and transnational terrorist groups have featured prominently in the Western media In the frenzied coverage of events however vital questions have been overlooked What do we know about the madrassahs Should Western policymakers be alarmed by the recent increase in the number of these institutions in Muslim countries Is there any connection between them and the global jihad Ali Riaz responds to these questions through an in depth examination of the madraassahs in Pakistan Bangladesh and India In Faithful Education he examines these institutions and their roles in relation to current international politics
