Strategic Reforms for Agricultural Growth in Pakistan Rashid Faruquee,1999 Future prospects for the agricultural sector in Pakistan depend on its ability to increase output and income of producers Agriculture remains the backbone of the Pakistani economy employing more than half the labor force and accounting for 70 per cent of export revenues However agriculture faces two sets of constraints in Pakistan resource constraints and policy distortions This volume deals with the major resource and policy constraints currently facing Pakistani agriculture Government involvement in Pakistan s agricultural sector has been excessive and often inappropriate and agricultural reforms are a key part of the adjustment program underway in Pakistan Some of the principal goals of the program are to ensure a sound and sustainable macroeconomic framework with sustainable internal and external balances to liberalize trade privatize government owned enterprises deregulate and eliminate public sector monopolies and to reform the financial sector The agricultural sector can contribute to the Pakistani economy and to the adjustment program Agriculture has the potential to make a larger contribution to total revenue and plays an important role in external balances A favorable climate gives Pakistan a strong comparative advantage in horticulture as indicated by the rapid growth of the subsector in the absence of policy interventions

Experimental evidence on public good behavior across Pakistan's fractured educational system Aftab, Zehra,2016-01-15 This paper adopts identity as a core concept Following Akerlof and Kranton 2010 it demonstrates how our social identities and not just economic incentives influence our decisions I acknowledge that identity is a multi layered concept incorporating not only a social dimension class and gender but also has ideological religious orientation and linguistic dimensions The paper argues that even within the same respective identity group context is important in the sense that decisions vary based on who one interacts with their identity and their respective actions Political Conflict in

Pakistan Mohammad Waseem,2022-04-01 This book is a major reinterpretation of politics in Pakistan Its focus is conflict
