of religion refers to the increasing role that religion plays in the politics of the contemporary world This book presents comparative country case studies on the politics of religion in South and South Asia including India Pakistan and Indonesia The politics of religion calls into question the relevance of modernist notions of secularism and democracy with the emphasis instead on going back to indigenous roots in search of authentic ideologies and models of state and nation building Within the context of the individual countries chapters focus on the consequences that politics of religion has on inclusive nation building democracy and the rights of individuals minorities and women The book makes a contribution to both the theoretical and conceptual literature on the politics of religion as well as shed light on the implications and ramifications of the politics of religion on contemporary South Asian and South East Asian countries It is of interest to students and scholars of South and South East Asian Studies as well as Comparative Politics The Challenge in South Asia Ponna Wignaraja, Akmal

Hussain, 1989-08-31 This book reflects the crisis of development the associated crises of state and its impact on regional cooperation in South Asia The resulting political and social unrest violence and militarisation of state structures are considered in detail The contributors to this volume focus on the depth of the crises and articulate alternatives available and sustainable in the South Asian context the common heritage the renewable resource base and the available stock of knowledge which enlarges the range of technological options State and Civil Society in Pakistan I. Malik, 1996-11-13

Problems of governance in Pakistan are rooted in a persistently unclear and antagonistic relationship among the forces of authority ideology and ethnicity Based on theoretical and empirical research this book focuses on significant themes such as the oligarchic state structure dominated by the military and bureaucracy civil society Islam and the formation of Muslim identity in British India constitutional traditions and their subversion by coercive policies politics of gender ethnicity and Muslim nationalism versus regional nationalisms as espoused by Sindhi nationalists and the Karachi based Muhajir Qaumi Movement MQM

A Field of One's Own Bina Agarwal,1994 This is the first major study of gender and property in South Asia In a pioneering and comprehensive analysis Bina Agarwal argues that the single most important economic factor affecting women s situation is the gender gap in command over property In rural South Asia the most significant form of property is arable land a critical determinant of economic well being social status and empowerment But few women own land fewer control it Drawing on a vast range of interdisciplinary sources and her own field research and tracing regional variations across five countries the author investigates the complex barriers to women s land ownership and control and how they might be overcome The book makes significant and original contributions to theory and policy concerning land reforms bargaining and gender relations women s status and the nature of resistance

The Ecology of Pastoralism P. Nick Kardulias,2015-04-15 In The Ecology of Pastoralism diverse contributions from archaeologists and ethnographers address pastoralism s significant impact on humanity s basic subsistence and survival focusing on the network of social political and religious institutions existing within various societies dependent on animal husbandry Pastoral peoples both past and present have organized their relationships with certain animals to maximize their ability to survive and adapt to a wide range of conditions over time Contributors show that despite differences in landscape environment and administrative and political structures these societies share a major characteristic high flexibility Based partially on the adaptability of various domestic animals to difficult environments and partially on the ability of people to establish networks allowing them to accommodate political social and economic needs this flexibility is key to the survival of complex pastoral systems and serves as the connection among the varied cultures in the volume In The Ecology of Pastoralism a variety of case studies from a broad geographic sampling uses archaeological and contemporary data and offers a new perspective on the study of pastoralism making this volume a valuable contribution to current research in the area

The Evolution of Legislation on Religious Offences F. A. Nazir,2019-03-14 The laws and legislation in Pakistan related to religious offences are intended to protect all religious communities but have also become a significant threat to communities of religious minorities who are vulnerable to false accusation violent retribution outside of the judicial system and erroneous convictions that sometimes even lead to the death penalty What is not well known is how these laws came about from originally being designed in Chapter XV of the Pakistan Penal Code to safeguard all religions of British India Dr F A Nazir places the discussion of offences relating to religion in the historical context of the south Asian subcontinent the institution of penal codes in British India during the colonial period and developments in legislation after 1947 independence and the creation of the state of Pakistan and in postcolonialism Dr Nazir s historical and legal analysis demonstrates how these laws affect indigenous Christian communities and other religious minorities including Muslim groups Nazir's thorough and rigorous historical research brings important understanding and reflection to contemporary religious laws religious rights and multi faith society in Pakistan

The Other Side of Silence Farida Azhar-Hewitt, 2011-02-24 In the quiet Balti villages high in the Karakoram Mountains of North Pakistan life goes on The women live peacefully as they prepare for the seasonal harvest and take in views of the breathtaking high mountains and pastures Deeply rooted female relationships bloom and mature as do their sustainable ecologically friendly lifestyles The Balti women have been living in the mountains for centuries so why does there seem to be change in the air There's the war on terror going on just outside their village There are the growing influences and stresses of modernization How will this society cope with such changes and is there any hope for its survival Social geographer Farida Azhar Hewitt has spent months living in the Karakoram Mountains with the Balti women now she presents her detailed study and firsthand experience in The Other Side of Silence: The Lives of Women in the Karakoram Mountains Azhar Hewitt takes a careful look at this mountain society gaining recent media attention for its close proximity to the war on terror Through the violence and fear the Balti people have remained peaceful the women have remained fruitful Living as an insider Azhar Hewitt takes us behind the veil of these rural Muslim women revealing a world of seclusion community and joy despite all odds

Ethnic Diversity in Europe David Turton, Julia González, 2000-01-01 Ethnic diversity is on increase in Europe at the same time there is evidence of growing anti immigrant feeling in some countries such as Spain especially in the Southern provinces In order to build a politically united and democratic Europe the accommodation of ethnic diversity and the integration of ethnic minorities are both key challenges This book tries to explain ethnic problems in Europe

Changing Perspectives on Forest Policy Javed Ahmed, Fawad Mahmood, International Institute for Environment and Development, 1998

History of civilizations of Central Asia Adle, Chahryar, Baipakov, Karl M., Habib, Irfan, UNESCO, 2003-12-31 The period treated in this volume is highlighted by the slow retreat of nomadism and the progressive increase of sedentary polities owing to a fundamental change in military technology

Furthermore this period certainly saw a growing contrast in the pace of economic and cultural progress between Central Asia and Europe. The internal growth of the European economies and the influx of silver from the New World gave Atlantic Europe an increasingly important position in world trade and caused a major shift in inland Asian trade. Thus 1850 marks the end of the total sway of pre modern culture as the extension of colonial dominance was accompanied by the influx of modern ideas.

Recovering the Frontier State Rasul Bux Rais, 2008-01-01 The book explores how legacies of internal strife and foreign invasions have altered the balance of social and political forces that provided some measure of stability to Afghanistan. The country faces structural constraints in the way of reviving itself owing to ethnic fragmentation, Taliban insurgency and shallow social roots of political power. The central argument is that Afghanistan needs positive international engagement to find a new balance among its fractious social groups and build effective state and nationhood.

Asian Perceptions of Nature Ole Bruun, Arne Kalland, 2014-02-25 This highly acclaimed bold and refreshing collection of essays takes a critical look at Asians perception of their natural environments as well as at Western views of Asia in this respect.

Afghanistan Angelo Rasanayagam, 2003-02-21 Since September 11th 2001 Afghanistan has dominated the news as it did for a long time during the Soviet occupation two decades ago and long before when in the 19th and early 20th century its mountain ranges formed the backdrop to the Great Game. In the Western imagination it is one of the most romantic as well as harsh beautiful and dangerous places on earth. Squeezed as it is between four empires Russia China India and Persia its tortured history provides an extraordinary glimpse into the patterns of world movements. Today Afghanistan sits at the pivotal point of a region where a new Great Game is taking shape for the War on Terror and control of the oil rich steppes of Central Asia. Angelo Rasanayagam's magisterial work the fruit of personal experience as well as years of scholarship is the first major history of modern Afghanistan. It traces the country's development from the accession of Abdul Rahman Khan the Iron Amir in the 1880s right up to the demise of the Taliban under US bombing over the winter of 2001 and the search for a new state structure in 2002. Of vital importance for understanding the country's current crisis it will be essential reading for historians policy makers journalists students and all those interested in the state of the world today. Well written succinct accessible analytical objective and balanced this is one of the best introductions to the history of modern Afghanistan available to the general public. Baqer Moin Head of the Persian Service BBC. Excellent a veritable textbook and a reference source for anyone interested in Afghanistan. Dr Thomas Withington Jane's Intelligence Review and King's College London. Rasanayagam's work connects a difficult past with a difficult present in order to extract necessary lessons for the future. He presents a complex history which will be understood by the general reader drawing attention to a large range of issues in the contemporary world. Zahir Tanin Producer for the Eurasian Region BBC.

The Postsecular Imagination Manav Ratti, 2013 Through an intimate literary conjunction of religion and politics this book theorizes the emergence of a post secular condition of the contemporary world in which organized conventional religion has failed politically. Nationalism has also had its failures.

after decolonization in the postcolonial world marked especially by ethnic violence civil war partition and communalism In the wake of such crises however we have still retained within us the need for faith wonder and enchantment which must now find its expression The Muslim World Book Review ,1988 Historiography and Writing Postcolonial India

Naheem Jabbar,2009-06-25 A critical examination of post colonial Indian history writing the book analyzes the uses made of India s often millennial past by nationalist ideologues who sought a specific solution to India s predicament on its way to becoming a post colonial state From independence to the present it considers the competing visions of India s liberation from her apocalyptical present to be found in the thinking of Gandhi V D Savarkar Nehru and B R Ambedkar as well as V S Naipaul and Salman Rushdie The Oxford Handbook of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh,Gil Loescher,Katy Long,Nando Sigona,2014 Refugee and Forced Migration Studies has grown from being a concern of a relatively small number of scholars and policy researchers in the 1980s to a global field of interest with thousands of students worldwide studying displacement either from traditional disciplinary perspectives or as a core component of newer programmes across the Humanities and Social and Political Sciences Today the field encompasses both rigorous academic research which may or may not ultimately inform policy and practice as well as action research focused on advocating in favour of refugees needs and rights This authoritative Handbook critically evaluates the birth and development of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies and analyses the key contemporary and future challenges faced by academics and practitioners working with and for forcibly displaced populations around the world The 52 state of the art chapters written by leading academics practitioners and policymakers working in universities research centres think tanks NGOs and international organizations provide a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of the key intellectual political social and institutional challenges arising from mass displacement in the world today The chapters vividly illustrate the vibrant and engaging debates that characterize this rapidly expanding field of research and practice
