Ahmed,1990 Countering the assumed homogeneity of Pakistan the 13 authors profile the diverse social structures values norms among the people Social Sciences in Islamic Perspectives Javed Ahmad Khan,2001 New Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney,S. Akbar Zaidi,2019-09-19 This volume makes a major intervention in the debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics This is the first comprehensive academic analysis of Pakistan s political economy after thirty five years and addresses issues of state class and society examining gender the middle classes the media the bazaar economy urban spaces and the new elite The book goes beyond the contemporary obsession with terrorism and extremism political Islam and simple civilian military relations and looks at modern day Pakistan through the lens of varied academic disciplines It not only brings together new work by some emerging scholars but also formulates a new political economy for the country reflecting the contemporary reality and diversification in the social sciences in Pakistan The chapters dynamically and dialectically capture emergent processes and trends in framing Pakistan s political economy and invite scholars to engage with and move beyond these concerns and issues Pakistan - Social and Cultural Transformations in a Muslim Nation Mohammad Qadeer,2006-11-22 This is the first English language survey of Pakistan s socio economic evolution Mohammad Qadeer gives an essential overview of social and cultural transformation in Pakistan since independence which is crucial to understanding Pakistan s likely future direction Pakistan examines how tradition and family life continue to contribute long term stability and explores the areas where very rapid changes are taking place large population increase urbanization economic development and the nature of civil society and the state It offers an insightful view into Pakistan exploring the wide range of ethnic groups the countryside religion and community and popular culture and national identity It concludes by discussing the likely future social development in Pakistan captivating students and academics interested in Pakistan and multiculturalism Qadeer s impressive work is a comprehensive examination of social and cultural forces in Pakistani society and is an important resource for anyone wanting to understand contemporary Pakistan The SAGE Encyclopedia of War: Social Science Perspectives Paul Joseph,2016-10-11 Traditional explorations of war look through the lens of history and military science focusing on big events big battles and big generals By contrast The SAGE Encyclopedia of War Social Science Perspective views war through the lens of the social sciences looking at the causes processes and effects of war and drawing from a vast group of fields such as communication and mass media economics political science and law psychology and sociology Key features include More than 650 entries organized in an A to Z format authored and signed by key academics in the field Entries conclude with cross references and further readings aiding the researcher further in their research journeys An alternative Reader s Guide table of contents groups articles by disciplinary areas and by broad themes A helpful Resource Guide directing researchers to classic books journals and electronic resources for more in depth study This important and distinctive work will be a key reference for all researchers in the fields of political science international relations and sociology

Khizr Tiwana, the Punjab Unionist Party and the Partition of India Ian Talbot, 2013-12-16 First biography of Khizr Tiwana the Unionist Premier of the Punjab during the climacteric period 1942-47 The Punjab formed the heartland of a future Pakistan hence the subcontinent s destiny rested on the clash between Khizr and Jinnah over the region s unity vs Muslim separatism

Al-Hind: The Making of the Indo-Islamic World André Wink, 2025-02-27 This book provides a new answer to an old and often asked question why did the bulk of conversion to Islam take place not in the imperial heartlands of the Indo Islamic world but among the indigenous populations of the Indus borderlands and the coastal maritime and insular peripheries of the Indian Ocean and the Malay Indonesian archipelago The answer is found in the conjunction of geographical political and economic factors affecting the Indo Islamic states of the 13th to 17th centuries both in their medieval origins and their interaction with the Portuguese Estado da India and the East India Companies

Sufi Rituals and Practices Kashshaf Ghani, 2024 This book explores the institution of Sufism the most dynamic face of Islam in the Indian subcontinent as it sets out to study the mystical rituals and devotional practices that characterize Sufism s beliefs and traditions

From the Ashes of 1947 Pippa Virdee, 2018-02 Navigating nostalgia and trauma dreams and laments identity s and homeland s this book explores the partition of undivided Punjab

Embattled Saints Kenneth P. Lizzio, 2014-05-22 Winner of the 2015 Benjamin Franklin Silver Award In the West Islam has replaced Communism as the new bugbear while Sufism Islam s mystical dimension is often dismissed as the delusions of an irrational and backward people Ken Lizzio corrects such misperceptions in this firsthand account of the year he spent in 1991 living with the head of the Naqshbandis Afghanistan s largest Sufi order He presents the order in all its dimensions social economic political and spiritual at a pivotal moment in history He also gives a rare glimpse of everyday life in an Afghan Sufi school and of how the school has coped with the upheavals in its country Poignantly the Naqshbandi way of life faces threats to its very existence One threat lies in the creeping secularization of Islamic society another in the dismissal of Sufism by various fundamentalist Islamic sects claiming the franchise on truth But historically Lizzio points out Sufism has always been Islam s wellspring for spiritual revival And because Sufis deal in matters that transcend time and cultures they help outsiders understand not only the true nature of Islam but the deeper meaning of all religions The sound of that meaning echoes throughout this eloquent and fascinating memoir

Sufi Cosmology Christian Lange, Alexander Knysh, 2022-12-28 This volume discusses the origin and structure of the universe in mystical Islam Sufism with special reference to parallel realms of existence and their interaction Contributors address Sufi ideas about the fate of human beings in this and future life under three rubrics 1

cosmogony and eschatology where do we come from and where do we go 2 conceptualizations of the world of the here and now where are we now and 3 visualizations of realms of existence their hierarchy and mutual relationships where are we in relation to other times and places Contributors are Christian Lange Alexander Knysh Noah Gardiner Stephen Hirtenstein Saeko Yazaki Jean Jacques Thibon Leah Kinberg Sara Svirij Munjed M Murad Simon O Meara Pierre Lory Mathieu Terrier Michael Ebstein Binyamin Abrahamov and Frederick Colby

Social Science and Historical Perspectives Jack David Eller, 2016-10-04 This accessible book introduces the story of social science with coverage of history politics economics sociology psychology anthropology and geography Key questions include How and why did the social sciences originate and differentiate How are they related to older traditions that have defined Western civilization What is the unique perspective or way of knowing of each social science What are the challenges and alternatives to the social sciences as they stand in the twenty first century Eller explains the origin evolution methods and the main figures literature concepts and theories in each discipline The chapters also feature a range of contemporary examples with consideration given to how the disciplines address present day issues

Heroes of the Age David B. Edwards, 1996-11 Edwards contends that Afghanistan's troubles derive less from foreign forces and the ideological divisions between groups than they do from the moral incoherence of Afghanistan itself

Corruption, Development and the Environment Lorenzo Pellegrini, 2011-02-11 The book analyses the influence of corruption on economic growth and environmental protection examining corruption from different perspectives It contributes to several streams of the literature and assembles evidence of the influence of corruption on two important variables in human welfare income and environmental policies The material evinces the detrimental effect that corruption has on economic growth and on the stringency of environmental policies It also shows that standard techniques for fighting corruption are often based either on simplistic definitions or on strong assumptions that do not apply in many countries blighted by corruption From a methodological standpoint this work combines a number of approaches including a theoretical discussion of corruption and of its definition often omitted in economic studies together with econometrics case studies and policy discussions

Going Global through Social Sciences and Humanities: A Systems and ICT Perspective Zhanna Anikina, 2019-02-08 This book presents contributions submitted to the 2nd international conference Going Global through Social Sciences and Humanities GGSSH 2019 held in Tomsk Russia on 27-28 February 2019 The conference focused on such issues as interdisciplinary pedagogy language teaching and learning cultural studies and linguistics particularly highlighting global academic integration and professional development for research As such the event provided a platform for discussions and sharing publication activities to help Russian academics to take first steps toward global research Showcasing the ongoing Russian research in focus areas this book is of interest to a diverse academic audience working in social sciences and humanities particularly those from the post Soviet countries

Messianic Hopes and Mystical Visions Shahzad Bashir, 2003 Messianic Hopes and Mystical Visions tells the story of the Nurbakhshiya an

Islamic messianic movement that originated in fifteenth century central Asia and Iran and survives to the present in Pakistan and India In the first full length study of the sect Shahzad Bashir illumines the significance of messianism as an Islamic religious paradigm and illustrates its centrality to any discussion of Islamic sectarianism By tracing Nurbakhshi activity in the Middle East and central and southern Asia through more than five centuries Bashir brings to view the continuities and disruptions within Islamic civilization across regions and over time Bashir effectively captures the way Nurbakhshis have understood and debated the meaning of their tradition in various geographical and temporal contexts Bashir provides a detailed biography of the movement s founder Muhammad Nurbakhsh d 1464 Born to a Twelver Shi i family Nurbakhsh declared himself the mahdi or the Muslim messiah as an adept of the Kubravi Sufi order under the influence of the teachings of the great Sufi master Ibn al Arabi d 1240 Nurbakhsh s religious worldview which Bashir treats in depth in this volume offers a

Mutual Sustainability of Tubewell Farming and Aquifers Ahmad Saeed Khattak, 2014-07-02 This book develops and presents a conceptual model for sustainable groundwater irrigated agriculture The model is based on the general principles of the economic theories of cost benefit relations and behavioral models of resource use The study has evaluated the advances in tubewell farming and the aquifer potential in arid Balochistan over a period of three decades It has analyzed the booms and busts of the farming over time taking into consideration the local aquifer limitations and the socio political considerations and policy framework Three data sets farmers expert officials and satellite images have been used to aid validation By observing the most vital parameters the study has concluded that the local aquifer has been falling at a rate directly proportional to the growth rate of irrigated farming suggesting the current development process is unsustainable For instance the research finds that tubewell bores have reached down to depths where the term aquifer mining applies as a result irrigation costs have become too high to allow farming to be economically viable In addition desertification is steadily encroaching and the cropping pattern being changed from high value horticulture to subsistence cropping The study has also set parameters for assessing the willingness of farmers to accept modern sustainable strategies and interventions
