Kabakov*, 1998 Ilya Kabakov Илья́ Кабаков, Matthias Haldemann, 2010 The book has always played a pivotal role in the work of Ilya Kabakov Initially successful as an illustrator of children s books in the Soviet Union the book was the impetus for his visual artistic activity The book has remained Kabakov s constant companion On the one hand it is used to present new projects On the other it is the medium used to document these projects once they have been realised The book accompanies Kabakov s visual work but that is not its only purpose it has always also been crucial in terms of the visual art itself As always with Kabakov there is no distinction between artistic practice and discourse This applies also to this catalogue raisonne which turns out to be a paradoxical construction it is both an academic work and an artist s book English and German text

Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division,2001 Art Index Retrospective ,2000 A Land in Between Melissa Kennedy,2020-12-01 The Orontes Valley in western Syria is a land in between positioned between the small trading centres of the coast and the huge urban agglomerations of the Euphrates Valley and the Syro Mesopotamian plains beyond As such it provides a critical missing link in our understanding of the archaeology of this region in the early urban age A Land in Between documents the material culture and socio political relationships of the Orontes Valley and its neighbours during the second half of the 3rd millennium BCE The authors demonstrate that the valley was a chief conduit for the exchange of knowledge and goods that fuelled the first urban age in western Syria This lays the foundation for a comparative perspective providing a clearer understanding of key differences between the Orontes region and its neighbours and insights into how patterns of material and political association changed over time Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2000 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2000

Blaylock,2010-01-21 This book presents the structures and stratigraphy of the important Iron Age sequence at Tille Höyük a mound at a crossing of the Euphrates in eastern Turkey The site which was excavated between 1979 and 1990 by the British Institute of Archaeology at Ankara revealed ten major structural levels of the Iron Age spanning the period from the 11th century to the 6th 4th centuries BC as well as earlier and later remains and the wide exposure of architecture provides a sequence of intelligible and impressive building plans After the initial discussion of the background and methodology of their excavation the successive levels are carefully described and fully illustrated The earliest Iron Age occupation simple buildings among the ruins of the Late Bronze Age was followed by a major settlement of the Middle Iron Age when the Neo Hittite kingdom of Kummuh was at its height Most impressive architecturally are a large palatial building centred on a courtyard paved with a pebble mosaic which was probably built after the Assyrian annexation of Kummuh in 708 BC and continued in use through the seventh and the excellently preserved Level X with many distinctively Persian architectural features built in the latter half of the 6th or the early 5th century and probably lasting for a substantial time The structures and stratigraphy are also important as the context for the first rigorously established ceramic sequence in this part of Turkey which will be presented together with the other materials and artefacts in the companion to this volume already complete in draft Lying on the fringes of the Mesopotamian world and with contacts with North Syria North Mesopotamia and the Levant rather than with Anatolia or the Mediterranean Tille casts vivid new light on the cultural and political history of the region in the Iron Age

The British Aircraft Industry and American-led Globalisation Takeshi Sakade,2021-12-09 Sakade challenges the narrative that the focus of British manufacturing went from Empire to Europe and argues rather that following the Second World War the key relationship was in fact trans Atlantic There is a commonly accepted belief that during the twentieth century British manufacturing declined irreparably that Britain lost its industrial hegemony But this is too simplistic In fact in the decades after 1945 Britain staked out a new role for itself as a key participant in a US led process of globalisation Far from becoming merely a European player the UK actually managed to preserve a key share in a global market and the British defence industry was to a large extent successfully rehabilitated Sakade returns to the original scholarly parameters of the decline controversy and especially questions around post war decline in the fields of high technology and the national defence industrial base Using the case of the strategically critical military and civil aircraft industry he argues that British industry remained relatively robust A valuable read for historians of British aviation and more widely of 20th century British Industry
