Palaces And Prisons:

The Castles, Palaces, and Prisons of Mary Queen of Scots. ... With Notices of the Visits of King George IV. and Queen Victoria to Their Ancestral Domains. New Edition Charles Mackie, 1853 The Castles, Palaces and Prisons of Mary of Palaces, Prisons, and Resting Places of Mary, Queen of Scots Michael Myers Scotland Charles Mackie, 1849 From the Palace to the Prison Sherman D. Manning, 2005 The Tower of London, Fortress, Palace, and Prison Charles George Harper, 1909 Venice: the churches, the palaces, the treasures of art ,1929 in Punishment John Pratt, Anna Eriksson, 2014-06-03 Why do some modern societies punish their offenders differently to others Why are some more punitive and others more tolerant in their approach to offending and how can these differences be explained Based on extensive historical analysis and fieldwork in the penal systems of England Australia and New Zealand on the one hand and Finland Norway and Sweden on the other this book seeks to answer these questions The book argues that the penal differences that currently exist between these two clusters of societies emanate from their early nineteenth century social arrangements when the Anglophone societies were dominated by exclusionary value systems that contrasted with the more inclusionary values of the Nordic countries The development of their penal programmes over this two hundred year period including the much earlier demise of the death penalty in the Nordic countries and significant differences between the respective prison rates and prison conditions of the two clusters reflects the continuing influence of these values Indeed in the early 21st century these differences have become even more pronounced John Pratt and Anna Eriksson offer a unique contribution to this topic of growing importance comparative research in the history and sociology of punishment This book will be of interest to those studying criminology sociology punishment prison and penal policy as well as professionals working in prisons or in the area of penal policy across the six societies that feature in the book Harper's New Monthly Magazine ,1853 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 The Library of Choice Literature and Encyclopedia of Universal Authorship Ainsworth Rand Spofford, 1894 The Old Venetian Palaces and Old Venetian Folk Thomas Okey,1907 A Refuge of Cure or Care Madeline Kearin Ryan, 2021-05-18 In A Refuge of Cure or Care The Sensory Dimensions of Confinement at the Worcester State Hospital for the Insane Madeline Kearin Ryan analyzes the therapy model of the nineteenth century asylum Because the five senses were believed to provide a direct conduit into a person s mental condition the curative force of the hospital was thought to reside in its command over sensory experience Ryan examines how the institution was designed to target each of the five senses as a mode of therapy and conversely how that well intentioned design materialized in the haphazard realm of institutional practice In doing so Ryan seeks to reconcile the disjuncture between the benevolent promise of the asylum model and its ultimate failure in a way that captures the complex power dynamics and heterogeneity of actors within the institution Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1908 Classified Catalog of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh.
