Philosophical Investigations In The U S S R Vol Iv:

The Modern Schoolman, 1975 Consciousness and Revolution in Soviet Philosophy David Bakhurst, 1991 A critical study of the philosophical culture of the USSR The Papers of Martin Luther King, Jr., Volume IV Martin Luther King, Clayborne Carson, Peter Holloran, Penny A. Russell, 1992 This fourth volume in the highly praised edition of the Papers of Martin Luther King covers the period 1957-58 when King fresh from his leadership of the Montgomery bus boycott consolidated his position as leader of the civil rights movement Soviet Philosophy Revisited F.J. Adelman, 1977 This present volume of the Boston College Studies in Philosophy presents thematically a commentary on the articles that appeared in the preceding issue of this series In Volume IV under the title Philosophical Investigations in the USSR there appeared six articles by contemporary Soviet philosophers on topics of concern for those interested in philosophical dialogue An interesting introduction was prepared by Professor L. Mitrokhin head of the department of Contemporary Western Philosophy of the Institute of Philosophy of the Soviet Academy of Sciences In his introduction Professor Mitrokhin presented biographical data concerning the Soviet authors and listed their major research and publications in their respective fields I would like to quote from Professor Mitrokhin's introduction to indicate to the reader something about the general themes and importance of that volume and to urge those who have not yet investigated its content to do so not only because it is quite necessary as background for this volume but also because of the light those articles shed on the developments that are occurring in Soviet philosophical thinking Hence allow me to quote I regard this special edition represented by a number of articles written by Soviet philosophers as an extremely useful and symptomatic matter Soviet philosophy has greatly changed during the past decade New talented scholars have appeared introducing their individual style problems and ways of thinking

Russian and Post-Soviet Organized Crime Mark Galeotti, 2017-09-08 A timely look at a widespread yet largely uninvestigated area of Russian life Chapters include consideration of the history and basis in culture for the organization of crime in Russia the actions of emigres to the USA and the development of modern sophistications of exchange and networking that currently blight privatization Diverse perspectives including comparative structural and ethnic frameworks give unprecedented national and international insights into a pervasive element of modern Russia Earth System: History and Natural Variability - Volume IV Vaclav Cilek, 2009-07-15 Earth System History and Natural Variability theme is a component of Encyclopedia of Natural Resources Policy and Management in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Earth System History and Natural Variability with contributions from distinguished experts in the field presents a description of the cosmic environment around our planet influencing the Earth in a number of ways through variation of solar energy or meteorite impacts The structure of the Earth and its rocks waters and atmosphere is described The Theme focuses on geological and evolutionary processes through the history of Earth's epochs and biomes since the Early Earth to the Quaternary The unifying processes between the Earth's life and its rocks, waters and atmosphere are global natural cycles of carbon, sulfur and other elements that connect and influence the rate of geological processes, climate change, biological evolution and human economy. These five volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences: University and College students, Educators, Professional practitioners, Research personnel and Policy analysts, managers and decision makers and NGOs. The Last Soviet

Avant-Garde Graham Roberts, 1997-06-05 A comprehensive study of the OBERIU group of avant garde Soviet writers

Problems of Communism, 1985

The Global Encyclopaedia of Informality, Volume 2 Alena Ledeneva, 2018-01-17

Alena Ledeneva invites you on a voyage of discovery to explore society's open secrets, unwritten rules and know-how practices. Broadly defined as ways of getting things done, these invisible yet powerful informal practices tend to escape articulation in official discourse. They include emotion-driven exchanges of gifts or favours and tributes for services interest-driven know-how from informal welfare to informal employment and entrepreneurship, identity-driven practices of solidarity and power-driven forms of co-optation and control. The paradox, or not, of the invisibility of these informal practices is their ubiquity. Expertly practised by insiders but often hidden from outsiders, informal practices are, as this book shows, deeply rooted all over the world yet underestimated in policy. Entries from the five continents presented in this volume are samples of the truly global and ever-growing collection made possible by a remarkable collaboration of over 200 scholars across disciplines and area studies. By mapping the grey zones, blurred boundaries, types of ambivalence and contexts of complexity, this book creates the first Global Map of Informality. The accompanying database www.informality.com is searchable by region, keyword or type of practice so do explore what works, how, where and why. Praise for Global Encyclopaedia of Informality: The Global Informality Project unveils new ways of understanding how the state functions and ways in which civil servants and citizens adapt themselves to different local contexts by highlighting the diversity of the relationships between state and society. The project is of great interest to policymakers who want to imagine solutions that are beneficial for all but sufficiently pragmatic to ensure a seamless implementation, particularly in the field of cross-border trade in developing countries. Kunio Mikuriya, Secretary General of the World Customs Organisation, Brussels. An extremely interesting and stimulating collection of papers. Ledeneva's challenging ideas, first applied in the context of Russia's economy of shortage, came to full blossom and are here contextualized by practices from other countries and contemporary systems. Many original and relevant practices were recognized empirically in socialist countries but this book shows their generality. Jos Kornai, Allie S. Freed, Professor of Economics Emeritus at Harvard and Professor Emeritus at Corvinus University of Budapest. Alena Ledeneva's Global Encyclopedia of Informality is a unique contribution providing a global atlas of informal practices through the contributions of over 200 scholars across the world. It is far more rewarding for the reader to discover how commonalities of informal behavior become apparent through this rich texture, like a complex and hidden pattern behind local colors, than to presume top-down universal benchmarks of good versus bad behavior. This book is a plea against reductionist approaches of mathematics in social science in general and corruption studies in particular and makes a great read as well as an indispensable guide to understand the cultural richness of the world Alina Mungiu Pippidi Professor of Democracy Studies Hertie School of Governance Berlin Transformative scholarship in method object and consequence Ledeneva and her networked expertise not only enable us to view the informal comparatively but challenge conventionally legible accounts of membership markets domination and resistance with these rich accounts from five continents This project offers nothing less than a social scientific revolution if the broader scholarly community has the imagination to follow through And by globalizing these informal knowledges typically hidden from view the volumes contributors will extend the imaginations of those business consultants movement mobilizers and peace makers who can appreciate the value of translation from other world regions in their own work Michael D Kennedy Professor of Sociology and International and Public Affairs Brown University and author of Globalizing Knowledge Don't mistake these weighty volumes for anything directory like or anonymous This wonderful collection of short essays penned by many of the single best experts in their fields puts the reader squarely in the kinds of conversations culled only after years of friendship trust and with the keen eye of the practiced observer Perhaps most importantly the remarkably wide range of offerings lets us de-parochialise corruption and detach it from the usual hyper-local and cultural explanations The reader in the end is the one invited to consider the many and striking commonalities Bruce Grant Professor at New York University and Chair of the US National Council for East European and Eurasian Research

The Tripartite Realist War: Analysing Russia's Invasion of Ukraine Danny Singh, 2023-07-02 The book offers a detailed analysis on Russia's invasion of Ukraine A book needs to be written on this to make sense from a theoretical perspective why this invasion has occurred and what the main actors are pursuing The originality rests on testing main international relations theories realism liberalism and constructivism to the war that emerges with the practices and approaches during the Cold War to date from the North Atlantic Treaty Organisation NATO the Soviet Union and now Russia and Ukraine The monograph commences with a historical overview of NATO and how it has engaged in expansionism policy to further contain Russia in contemporary international affairs with the accession of additional former Soviet states This helps to explain the current Russian invasion of Ukraine that would attract great readership The main argument presented rests on the pursuance of realist interests by NATO Ukraine and Russia for containment national security interests and as a response to the security dilemma respectively This has served as the main catalyst of this conflict that has made diplomacy international law and collective security measures problematic to implement

Transgender Marxism Jules Joanne Gleeson, Elle O'Rourke, 2021-05-20 The first collection of its kind Transgender Marxism is a provocative and groundbreaking union of transgender studies and Marxist theory Exploring trans lives and movements the authors delve into the experience of surviving as transgender under capitalism They explore the pressures oppression and state persecution faced by trans people living in capitalist societies their tenuous positions in the workplace and the home and give a powerful response to right wing scaremongering against gender ideology Reflecting on the relations between gender and labour these essays reveal the structure of antagonisms faced by gender non conforming people within society Looking at the history of transgender movements Marxist interventions into developmental theory psychoanalysis and workplace ethnography the authors conclude that for trans liberation capitalism must be abolished Amor Mundi J.W. Bernauer, 2012-12-06 The title of our collection is owed to Hannah Arendt herself Writing to Karl Jaspers on August 6 1955 she spoke of how she had only just begun to really love the world and expressed her desire to testify to that love in the title of what came to be published as The Human Condition Out of gratitude I want to call my book about political theories Amor Mundi In retrospect it was fitting that amor mundi love of the world never became the title of only one of Arendt's studies for it is the theme which permeates all of her thought The purpose of this volume's titles is to pay a critical tribute to this theme by exploring its meaning the cultural and intellectual sources from which it derives as well as its resources for contemporary thought and action We are privileged to include as part of the collection two previously unpublished lectures by Arendt as well as a rarely noticed essay which she wrote in 1964 Taken together they engrave the central features of her vision of amor mundi Arendt presented Labor Work Action on November 10 1964 at a conference Christianity and Economic Man Moral Decisions in an Affluent Society which was held at the Divinity School of the University of Chicago The Variation in the Silicate Content of the Water in Monterey Bay, California, During 1932, 1933, And 1934 Austin Phelps, 1938 This is a print on demand edition of an important hard to find publication Soviet Union Theodore E. Kyriak, 1964 Soviet Union, 1964 Scientific & Mathematical Bodies SungWon Hwang, Wolff-Michael Roth, 2011-11-19 This book is about the sensuous living body without which individual knowing and learning is impossible It is the interface between the individual and culture Recent scholarship has moved from investigating knowing and learning as something in the mind or brain to understanding these phenomena in terms of the body embodiment literature or culture social constructivism These two literatures have expanded the understanding of cognition to include the role of the body in shaping the mind and to recognize the tight relation between mind and culture However there are numerous problems arising from ways in which the body and culture are thought in these separate research domains In this book the authors present an interdisciplinary scientific initiative that brings together the concerns for body and for culture to develop a single theory of cognition centered on the living and lived body This book thereby contributes to bridging the gap that currently exists between theory knowing that and praxis knowing how that is apparent in the existing science and mathematics education literatures Vladimir Solov'ev William Peter van den Bercken, Manon de Courten, Evert van der Zweerde, 2000 Vladimir Solov'ev 1853 1900 is regarded as the most original and systematic of the Russian philosophers in the 19th century He has once again become the subject of international scholarly attention both in Slavic countries and the West This volume contains selected papers presented at the international conference on Vladimir Solov'ev held at Nijmegen University the Netherlands in September 1998 The scope of this conference was wide ranging dealing with theological metaphysical philosophical and historical themes Though Solov'ev's broad intellectual activity defies any strict attempt at categorisation the editors have classified its major themes under the dual characteristic of reconciliation and polemics Solov'ev was passionately committed to the reconciliation of all beings under the idea of all unity which he attempted to achieve by engaging in uncompromising polemics with his contemporaries The thirty contributors to this volume are specialists from Russia Ukraine Bulgaria Western Europe and the United States The volume makes a significant contribution to the intellectual reassessment of Vladimir Solov'ev since the rediscovery of his philosophical heritage in his own homeland in the 1980s Intergroup Relations Michael A.

Hogg, Dominic Abrams, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource Mao's Road to Power: Revolutionary Writings, 1912-49: v. 6: New Stage (August 1937-1938) Zedong Mao, Stuart

Schram, 2015-07-17 By 1936 after a decade of Civil War and even before the Xi'an Incident Mao Zedong had begun talking about a New Stage of cooperation between the Guomindang and the Communist Party With the establishment of a framework for cooperation between the two parties and as Japan began its brutal war against China Mao began to develop this theme more systematically in both the political and military spheres This volume documents the evolution of Mao's thinking in this area that found its culmination in his long report to the Sixth Enlarged Plenum of the Central Committee in October 1938 explicitly entitled On the New Stage and presented here in its entirety It was also during this period that Mao delivered a course of lectures on dialectical materialism after reading and annotating a number of works on Marxist theory by Soviet and Chinese authors These lectures from which On Practice and On Contradiction were later extracted are also translated here in their entirety An Unproclaimed Empire: The Grand Duchy of Lithuania Zenonas Norkus, 2017-07-28 An

Unproclaimed Empire The Grand Duchy of Lithuania is an interdisciplinary study of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania GDL that is historical in subject but social scientific in approach It is also the first study to apply this comparative and social scientific method to the GDL In this book Zenonas Norkus draws on national historiographies and applies theories from comparative empire studies involving historians sociologists political scientists anthropologists and scholars in the theory of international relations allowing it to transcend differences in national viewpoints It also provides answers to contested issues in the history of the GDL and raises a number of new questions including whether the Grand Duchy was an empire or a federation and why and when it failed By adopting this imperial approach of considering the GDL as an empire this book brings something new to the research surrounding the Grand Duchy and is ideal for academics and postgraduates of early modern Lithuania early modern Eastern Europe historical sociology and the history of empires
