Bove, 1997 The essays in this volume explore in detail many of the ways power structures our daily personal political and intellectual lives and evaluate the workings of power using a variety of theoretical paradigms from Hobbesian liberalism to Foucauldian feminist postmodernism Taken as a whole the book aims towards an end to unjust and destructive uses of power and the flowering of an encouraging educated empowerment for all human beings in a pluralistic world Section I offers a progressive chain of arguments that moves from the acceptance of domination through the rejection of domination and finally to a new vision of power based on equality and mutual respect Section II explores the questions how is the philosophical self that is our very understanding of who we are implicated in the web of power and domination Section III responds to political realism as it explores morally ideal solutions to the global problems of poverty war and hunger Section IV discusses ways in which our thought and practice in both public and private life are bound up in hierarchies of domination Spiritual and Political Dimensions of Nonviolence and Peace David Boersema, Katy Gray Brown, 2006 This book is a collection of philosophical papers that explores theoretical and practical aspects and implications of nonviolence as a means of establishing peace The papers range from spiritual and political dimensions of nonviolence to issues of justice and values and proposals for action and change Democracy and Civil Society in Arab Political Thought Michaelle L. Browsers, 2006-10-13 This book provides a significant and unique contribution to the emerging literature of comparative political thought Michaelle L Browsers offers compelling evidence with extensive analysis and references that a rigorous debate is taking place in Arabic concerning the value of democracy and civil society Exploring the globalization of ideas of democracy and civil society Browsers addresses the question of what occurs when concepts cross the boundaries of cultures or languages She analyzes the historical concept of democracy in Arab and Islamic political thought the transformations that have occurred over the past several decades resulting from Arab forays into an international discussion of civil society and what these transformations tell us about the status of ideological and conceptual debates in the region The book's value however lies in its main premise despite the dearth of actual democratic practices in the Arab world intellectual elites of the region have vigorously debated reform concepts for decades Browsers emphasizes that current conflicts involving the Middle East are less about Islam against the west and its secular allies in the region and more about diverse sectors of Arab society grappling with how to reform overreaching and unjust states Browsers shows that the seeds of democratic reform in the region were well planted prior to the war on Iraq and the Greater Middle East Initiative
