Mikhail Bakhtin Michael F. Bernard-Donals, 1995-02-24 The language theory of Mikhail Bakhtin does not fall neatly under any single rubric dialogism marxism prosaics authorship because the philosophic foundation of his writing rests ambivalently between phenomenology and Marxism The theoretical tension of these positions creates philosophical impasses in Bakhtin's work which have been neglected or ignored partly because these impasses are themselves mirrored by the problems of antifoundationalist and materialist tendencies in literary scholarship In Mikhail Bakhtin Between Phenomenology and Marxism Michael Bernard Donals examines various incarnations of phenomenological and materialist theory including the work of Jauss Fish Rorty Althusser and Pecheux and places them beside Bakhtin's work providing a contextualised study of Bakhtin a critique of the problems of contemporary critics and an original contribution to literary theory

Signifying and Understanding Susan Petrilli,Lady Victoria Welby,2009 This book introduces and provides commentary on a selection of published and unpublished works by Victoria Welby and exponents of the Signific Movement in the Netherlands Beyond offering an important contribution to the reconstruction of a neglected phase in the history of ideas it evidences the theoretical topicality of signification in particular the focus on the relation of signs to value meaning and understanding on verbal and nonverbal behavior and on language and communication Sign Studies and Semioethics Susan Petrilli,2014-10-09 This book examines the issues surrounding the problematic perpetuation of dominant sign systems through the framework of semioethics Semioethics is concerned with using semiotics as a powerful tool to critique the status quo and move beyond the reproduction of the dominant order of communication The aim is to present semioethics as a method to engage semiotics in an active rethink of our ability as humans to affect change The Self as a Sign, the World, and the Other Susan Petrilli,2017-07-28 Ostentation of the Subject is a practice that is asserting itself ever more in today's world Consequently criticism by philosophers psychologists sociologists and anthropologists has been to little effect considering that they are not immune to such practices themselves The question of subjectivity concerns the close and the distant the self and the other the other from self and the other of self It is thus connected to the question of the sign It calls for a semiotic approach because the self is itself a sign its very own relation with itself is a relation among signs This book commits to developing a critique of subjectivity in terms of the material that the self is made of that is the material of signs Susan Petrilli highlights the scholarship of Charles Peirce Mikhail Bakhtin Roland Barthes Mary Boole Jacques Derrida Michael Foucault Emmanuel Levinas Claude Levi Strauss Maurice Merleau Ponty Charles Morris Thomas Sebeok Thomas

Szasz and Victoria Welby Included are American and European theories and theorists evidencing the relationships interconnecting American Italian French and German scholarship Petrilli covers topics from identity issues that are part of semiotic views to the corporeal self as well as responsibility reason and freedom Her book should be read by philosophers semioticians and other social scientists

Semiotics Unbounded Susan Petrilli, Augusto Ponzio, 2005-12-15 The more human knowledge increases the more signs grow and with this expansion the more the boundaries of the science that studies signs also grows In Semiotics Unbounded Susan Petrilli and Augusto Ponzio explain the explosion of the sign network in the era of global communication and discuss the important theoretical responses offered by semiotics Providing a much needed introductory guide to the subject Petrilli and Ponzio explore the ever growing frontiers of semiotics through the thought of prominent sign scholars such as Charles Peirce Victoria Welby Mikhail Bakhtin Charles Morris and Thomas Sebeok In an era of global communication a global approach is necessary and what may seem to be the whole is only a part a view being at once globalizing and open Each and every sign is never self sufficient and closed but exists always in a relation of otherness This is true of the signs forming animals and human beings individuals and communities and involves the implication of all living beings in the life of all others Semiotics Unbounded offers a new and original survey of the science of signs evaluating it in relation to the problems of our time not only of a scientific order but also the problems concerning everyday social life

Surfaces of Strangeness Simone Oetli-van Delden, 2003 Bianco in Questione Susan Petrilli, 2007 International Handbook of Semiotics Peter Pericles Trifonas, 2015-05-11 This book provides an extensive overview and analysis of current work on semiotics that is being pursued globally in the areas of literature the visual arts cultural studies media the humanities natural sciences and social sciences Semiotics also known as structuralism is one of the major theoretical movements of the 20th century and its influence as a way to conduct analyses of cultural products and human practices has been immense This is a comprehensive volume that brings together many otherwise fragmented academic disciplines and currents uniting them in the framework of semiotics Addressing a longstanding need it provides a global perspective on recent and ongoing semiotic research across a broad range of disciplines The handbook is intended for all researchers interested in applying semiotics as a critical lens for inquiry across diverse disciplines

Translation Translation, 2021-07-26 Translation Translation contributes to current debate on the question of translation dealt with in an interdisciplinary perspective with implications not only of a theoretical order but also of the didactic and the practical orders In the context of globalization the question of translation is fundamental for education and responds to new community needs with reference to Europe and more extensively to the international world In its most obvious sense translation concerns verbal texts and their relations among different languages However to remain within the sphere of verbal signs languages consist of a plurality of different languages that also relate to each other through translation processes Moreover translation occurs between verbal languages and nonverbal languages and among nonverbal languages without necessarily involving verbal languages Thus far the allusion is to translation processes within the sphere of anthroposemiosis But translation occurs among signs and the signs implicated are those of the semiotic sphere in its totality which are not exclusively signs of the linguistic verbal order Beyond anthroposemiosis translation is a fact of life and invests the entire biosphere or biosemiosphere as clearly evidenced by research in biosemiotics for where there is life there are signs and where there are signs or semiotic processes there is translation indeed semiotic processes are translation processes According to this approach reflection on translation obviously cannot be restricted to the domain of linguistics but must necessarily involve semiotics the general science or theory of signs In this theoretical framework essays have been included not only from major translation experts but also from researchers working in different areas in addition to semiotics and linguistics also philosophy literary criticism cultural studies gender studies biology and the medical sciences All scholars work on problems of translation in the light of their own special competencies and interests
