Philosophy Between Faith And Theology Addresses To Catholic Intellectuals:

Philosophy Between Faith and Theology Adriaan Theodoor Peperzak, 2005 This book explores the essential unity of philosophical and theological thought from various perspectives and pleads for a radical change of method in philosophy

Theology and Contemporary Continental Philosophy Colby Dickinson, 2018-12-31 This book aims to put modern continental philosophy specifically the sub fields of phenomenology existentialism hermeneutics deconstruction critical theory and genealogy into conversation with the field of contemporary theology Colby Dickinson demonstrates the way in which negative dialectics or the negation of negation may help us to grasp the thin or non existent borders between continental philosophy and theology as the leading thinkers of both fields wrestle with their entrance into a new era With the declining place of the sacred in the public sphere we need to pay more attention than ever to how continental philosophy seems to be returning to distinctly theological roots Through a genealogical mapping of 20th century continental philosophers Dickinson highlights the ever present Judeo Christian roots of modern Western philosophical thought Opposing categories such as immanence transcendence finitude infinitude universal particular subject object are at the center of works by thinkers such as Agamben Marion Vattimo Levinas Latour Caputo and Adorno This book argues that utilizing a negative dialectic allows us to move beyond the apparent fixation with dichotomies present within those fields and begin to perform both philosophy and theology anew

Continental Philosophy and Theology Colby Dickinson, 2018-06-12 Continental philosophy underwent a return to religion or a theological turn in the late 20th century And yet any conversation between continental philosophy and theology must begin by addressing the perceived distance between them that one is concerned with destroying all normative metaphysical order continental philosophy s task and the other with preserving religious identity and community in the face of an increasingly secular society theology s task Colby Dickinson argues in Continental Philosophy and Theology rather that perhaps such a tension is constitutive of the nature of order thinking and representation which typically take dualistic forms and which might be rethought though not necessarily abolished Such a shift in perspective even allows one to contemplate this distance as not opting for one side over the other or by striking a middle ground but as calling for a nondualistic theology that measures the complexity and inherently comparative nature of theological inquiry in order to realign theology s relationship to continental philosophy entirely

William Desmond and Contemporary Theology Christopher Ben Simpson, Brendan Thomas Sammon, 2017-11-15 In William Desmond and Contemporary Theology Christopher Simpson and Brendan Sammon coordinate through a collection of scholarly essays a timely exploration of William Desmond s work on theology and metaphysics bringing the disciplines of philosophy and theology together in new and vital ways The book examines the contribution that Desmond s metaphysics makes to contemporary theological discourse and to the renewal of metaphysics A central issue for the contributors is the renewal of metaphysics within the post metaphysical or anti metaphysical context of late modernity This volume not only capably demonstrates the viability of the metaphysical tradition but also illuminates its effectiveness and value in dealing with the many issues in contemporary theological conversation William Desmond and Contemporary Theology presents Desmond's contemporary yet historically aware continental metaphysics as able to provide revealing insights for the discussion of the relation between philosophy and theology Simpson and Sammon argue moreover that Desmond's contribution to linking these two fields makes him an important voice in the academic conversation Students and scholars of Desmond's contemporary philosophy theology and literature will find much to provoke thought in this collection Contributors John R Betz Christopher R Brewer Patrick X Gardner Joseph K Gordon Renée K Hler Ryan D Stephen Long John Panteleimon Manoussakis Cyril O Regan Brendan Thomas Sammon D C Schindler Christopher Ben Simpson and Corey Benjamin Tutewiler via media philosophy L. Bryan Williams, 2009-03-26 This book via media philosophy Holiness unto Truth Conversations between Wesleyan and Roman Catholic Voices records the first formal philosophical conversations between Wesleyan and Roman Catholic philosophers and theologians Although the Methodist community has developed numerous points of intersection with Roman Catholic counterparts authors from smaller Wesleyan Holiness groups along with Roman Catholic writers now offer new philosophical conversations This book begins that conversation with a review of Pope John Paul II's call in Fides et Ratio Faith and Reason for adequate dialogue by philosophers on crucial areas of mutual concern Important bridges between the two communities are developed within each chapter Examples of via media practices in the lives of Rev John Wesley and Cardinal John Henry Newman are highlighted An editorial thread of other via media practices is offered after each chapter A special contribution by Marquette Professor D Stephen Long Performing the Truth closes this conversation with a call for holiness unto truth to be made present in the world This book strives to facilitate early steps along a via media to a holy relationship unto truth between Wesleyan and Roman Catholic voices

The Intentional Spectrum and Intersubjectivity Michael D. Barber, 2011-06-15 World renowned analytic philosophers John McDowell and Robert Brandom dubbed Pittsburgh Neo Hegelians recently engaged in an intriguing debate about perception In The Intentional Spectrum and Intersubjectivity Michael D Barber is the first to bring phenomenology to bear not just on the perspectives of McDowell or Brandom alone but on their intersection He argues that McDowell accounts better for the intelligibility of empirical content by defending holistically functioning reflectively distinguishable sensory and intellectual intentional structures He reconstructs dimensions implicit in the perception debate favoring Brandom on knowledge's intersubjective features that converge with the ethical characteristics of intersubjectivity Emmanuel Levinas illuminates Phenomenology becomes the third partner in this debate between two analytic philosophers critically mediating their discussion by unfolding the systematic interconnection among perception intersubjectivity metaphilosophy and ethics

Theology as Improvisation Nathan Crawford, 2013-02-14 In Theology as Improvisation Nathan Crawford reimagines the possibilities for how theology thinks God within a postmodern world By engaging a number of thinkers in conversation he navigates the nature of thinking God in a postmodern world

Saintly Influence Eric Boynton, Martin Kavka, 2009-08-25 Since the publication of her first book Emmanuel Levinas The Problem of Ethical Metaphysics in 1974 the first book about Levinas published in English Edith Wyschogrod has been at the forefront of the fields of Continental philosophy and philosophy of religion Her work has crossed many disciplinary boundaries making peregrinations from phenomenology and moral philosophy to historiography the history of religions both Western and non Western aesthetics and the philosophy of biology In all of these discourses she has sought to cultivate an awareness of how the self is situated and influenced as well as the ways in which a self can influence others In this volume twelve scholars examine and display the influence of Wyschogrod's work in essays that take up the thematics of influence in a variety of contexts Christian theology the saintly behavior of the villagers of Le Chambon sur Lignon the texts of the medieval Jewish mystic Abraham Abulafia the philosophies of Levinas Derrida and Benjamin the practice of intellectual history the cultural memory of the New Testament and pedagogy In response Wyschogrod shows how her interlocutors have brought to light her multiple authorial personae and have thus marked the ambiguity of selfhood its position at the nexus of being influenced by and influencing others

Thinking about Thinking Adriaan Theodoor Peperzak, 2012 This essay in metaphilosophy aims at showing that philosophy is indeed a conversation by clarifying many if not all features that determine the philosophical practice as provocative responsive

dialogical communitarian educational and transformative Since philosophical thought is also rooted in a dimension of faith this basic relation is made explicit and concretized through analyses of a particular form of interaction between faith and philosophy

Solidarity with the World Carolyn A. Chau, 2016-11-15 Is Christian mission even possible today In a secular age is it possible to talk about the goodness of God in a compelling way How should the church proceed Carolyn Chau explores the question of Catholic mission in a secular age through a constructive interpretation of the work of two celebrated Catholic thinkers philosopher Charles Taylor and theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar arguing that Taylor and Balthasar together offer a promising path for mission today Chau attends to Taylor's account of the conditions of belief today and the genesis of the sociohistorical limits on contemporary God talk as well as his affirmation of certain aspects of Western modernity's culture From Balthasar Chau sifts out the distinctiveness of his view of the human person as defined by mission and his encouragement of a kenotic self understanding of the church In the end Chau claims that if modern persons in secular Western societies are seeking fulfillment and integrity Christian spirituality remains a rich resource on offer

The Challenge of God Colby Dickinson, Hugh Miller, Kathleen McNutt, 2020-01-23 In view of the double vocative that characterizes the relation of Creator to creature this book offers critiques of modern and postmodern philosophy for the ways in which they have separated philosophy theology and spirituality This collection examines the complicated relationship of God to Being and the meaning of Revelation as well as highlighting the context and the role of the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius Loyola Discussions include the Catholic Principle and its relevance in contemporary times and Christian epic visionaries such as Dante Milton Blake and Joyce providing scholars a forum to debate their theological identity and its meaning for future studies This volume contributes a unique engagement from many perspectives with the Catholic intellectual tradition in its philosophical theological spiritual literary and artistic dimensions

Person, Being, and History Michael Baur, Robert E. Wood, 2011-03 During a distinguished career as thinker and educator at universities across North America philosopher Kenneth L Schmitz has striven to recover metaphysical realism in a world that has after Kant turned to the subject Schmitz has done so through precisely the window of the subjectivity particularity and concern for history which marks philosophy after Kant Although primarily associated with his native University of Toronto where he was known as the Educator Schmitz also taught at Loyola Marymount Marquette the Catholic University of America and the John Paul II Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family His teaching focused upon the singularity of the human person founded upon the notion of being that generates the history of philosophy He was eminently generous in his appreciation of the philosophers about whom he lectured He taught philosophy richly grounded in the history of philosophy as a gold mine rather than as a minefield Anchored in his spirit the various essays in this volume by colleagues and former students of Schmitz examine his thought and the subjects of his teaching In addition to an overall exposition of his own thought the collection treats themes such as gift faith and reason culture and dialogue modernity and post modernity and themes in the work of various thinkers including

Aristotle Anselm Aquinas Martin Heidegger Gabriel Marcel Max Scheler and Jean Paul Sartre Special attention is given to G W F Hegel whose philosophy Schmitz was particularly adept at teaching He turned many a budding scholar into a life long student of Hegel s work Several of the essays begin with a special tribute to the honoree The volume concludes with a bibliography of Schmitz s many works Michael Baur is associate professor of philosophy and adjunct professor of law at Fordham University He is the editor of numerous works including The Emergence of German Idealism Robert E Wood is professor and former chair of philosophy at the University of Dallas He is the longtime editor of the American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly and author of three books and numerous articles Contributors Thomas Anderson Jennifer Bates Michael Baur John Burbidge Thomas Busch James Crooks Daniel O Dahlstrom John Deely Martin Donougho Jude P Dougherty Louis Dupr James Kow Jay Lampert John C McCarthy Ralph McInerny John Russon Daniel E Shannon and Robert E Wood

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK The editors of this book have done a great service in drawing attention to the notable excellences of Schmitz s work excellences both systematic and historical Perhaps this will provide some impetus to make available more of his essays surely worthy to be communicated to as wide an audience as possible

The Thomist In his work Kenneth Schmitz seeks to unify the disparate and argumentatively to seek the common ground on a diverse gathering of opinions Not that he is blind to difference or so tolerant that criticism is suspended Rather his principal convictions enable him to favor the principle of charity in interpretation and respect in critical assessment That these qualities have been communicated to his former students and colleagues is apparent in these essays This collection brings the facets of Schmitz s philosophical thought into a fruitful exchange and introduces the lifework of an incredibly gifted and original thinker

Thomas R Flynn Samuel Candler Dobbs Professor of Philosophy Emory University American Catholic Philosophical Quarterly ,2007 A Twentieth-Century Collision Peter M. Collins,2010-07-08

A Twentieth Century Collision explores intellectual culture in the United States during the twentieth century a topic which cannot be understood without attention to the gradual narrowing of the scope of academic philosophy and its diminishing influence This narrowing signifies a growing indifference to and elimination of genuinely metaphysical and prescriptively ethical questions as well as the bifurcation of faith and reason

American Catholic universities it is contended in this book can render a seriously needed contribution to combating the negative effects of this historical development one of which is the separation of questions concerning the ultimate meaning of life from rational inquiry This thesis is pursued by 1 reviewing a highly selective but also highly representative sample of pertinent mainstream philosophical principles and 2 comparing them with principles of Pope John Paul II found in three documents in which he elaborates his views on the nature and role of philosophy and its relationship to theology in Catholic higher education This project is not unrelated to recent persistent criticism that American Catholic universities have forfeited their identity and thus their unique contribution to American cultural pluralism

Building a New World Luce Irigaray,Michael Marder,2015-06-08 With an original introduction by Luce Irigaray and original texts from her students and collaborators this book imagines the outlines of a more just ecologically attuned world that flourishes on the basis of sexuate difference

Catholic Higher Education Melanie Morey, John Piderit, 2010-05-28 Today Catholic colleges and universities are dealing with critical questions about what constitutes Catholic collegiate identity Based on their research Morey and Piderit describe the present situation and offer concrete suggestions for enhancing Catholic identity culture and mission at all Catholic colleges and universities The authors define the critical issues and analyze and address them by using the rich construct of culture particularly organizational culture and they provide four different models of how Catholic colleges and universities can operate and successfully compete as religiously distinctive institutions in the higher education market

People of Faith John Schmalzbauer, 2018-10-18 Over the past two decades a host of critics have accused American journalism and higher education of being indifferent even openly hostile to religious concerns These professions more than any others are said to drive a wedge between facts and values faith and knowledge the sacred and the secular However a growing number of observers are calling attention to a religious resurgence journalists are covering religion more frequently and religious scholars in academia are increasingly visible John Schmalzbauer provides a compelling investigation of the role of Catholic and evangelical Protestant beliefs in the newsroom and the classroom His interviews with forty prominent journalists and academics reveal how some people of faith seek to preserve their religious identities in purportedly secular professions What impact he asks does their Christianity have on their jobs What is the place of personal religious conviction in professional life Individuals featured include the journalists Fred Barnes Cokie Roberts Peter Steinfelds Cal Thomas and Kenneth Woodward and the scholars John DiIulio Elizabeth Fox Genovese Andrew Greeley George Marsden and Mark Noll Some of the journalists and academics with whom Schmalzbauer spoke qualified displays of personal religious belief with reminders of their own professional credibility drawing a line between advocacy and objectivity Schmalzbauer highlights the persistent tensions between the worlds of public endeavor and private belief yet he maintains there is room for faith even in professional environments that have tended to prize empiricism and detachment over expressions of personal conviction

Faith and Secularisation in Religious Colleges and Universities James Arthur, 2006-09-27 This book is a detailed study of higher education institutions affiliated to particular religions It considers the debates surrounding academic freedom institutional governance educational policy mission and identity together with institutions relations with the state and their wider communities A wide range of institutions are examined including Christian Islamic and Jewish universities in the US Europe and the Middle East Essentially this volume questions whether such institutions can be both religious and a university and also considers the appropriate role of religious faith within colleges and universities
