PhotoBookMuseum,2014 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent,2018-09-22 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City engages in alternative ways of reading foreign visual representations of Havana through analysis of advertising images documentary films and photographic texts It explores key narratives relating to the projection of different Havana imaginaries and focuses on a range of themes including pre revolutionary Cuba the dream of revolution and the metaphor of the city frozen in time The book also synthesizes contemporary debates regarding the notion of Havana as a real and imagined city space and fleshes out its theoretical insights with a series of stand alone important case studies linked to the representation of the Cuban capital in the Western imaginary The interpretations in the book bring into focus a range of critical historical moments in Cuban history including the Cuban Revolution and the Special Period and consider the ways in which they have been projected in advertising documentary film and photography outside the island Paris and the Cliché of History Catherine E. Clark,2018-07-19 This book turns a compelling new lens on thinking about the history of Paris and photography The invention of photography changed how history could be written But the now commonplace assumptions that photographs capture fragments of lost time or present emotional gateways to the past that structure today's understandings did not emerge whole cloth in 1839 Focusing on one of photography's birthplaces Paris and the Cliché of History tells the story of how photographs came to be imagined as documents of the past Author Catherine E Clark analyzes photography's effects on historical interpretation by examining the formation of Paris's first photo archives at the Musée Carnavalet and the city's municipal library their use in illustrated history books and historical exhibitions and reconstructions such as the 1951 celebration of Paris's 2000th birthday and the public's contribution to the historical record in amateur photo contests Despite the photograph's growing importance in these forums it did not simply replace older forms of illustration visual documentation or written text Photos worked in complex and shifting relation to other types of pictures as photographers popular historians and publishers built on the traditions and iconography of painting and engraving in order to both document the past scientifically and objectively and to reconstruct it romantically In doing so they not only influenced how Parisians thought about the city's past and how they pictured it they also ensured that these images shaped how Parisians lived their own lives especially in deeply charged moments such as the Liberation after World War II This history of picturing Paris does not simply reflect the city's history it is Parisian history Understanding Photobooks Jorg Colberg, 2016-11-10

Precarious Times Anne Fuchs, 2019-10-15 In Precarious Times Anne Fuchs explores how works of German literature film and photography reflect on the profound temporal anxieties precipitated by contemporary experiences of atomization displacement and fragmentation that bring about a loss of history and of time itself and that is peculiar to our current moment The digital age places premiums on just in time deliveries continual innovation instantaneous connectivity and around the clock availability While some celebrate this 24/7 culture others see it as profoundly destructive to the natural rhythm of day and night and to human happiness Have we entered an era of a perpetual present that depletes the future and erodes our grasp of the past Beginning its examination around 1900 when rapid modernization was accompanied by comparably intense reflection on changing temporal experience Precarious Times provides historical depth and perspective to current debates on the digital now Expanding the modern discourse on time and speed Fuchs deploys such concepts as attention slowness and lateness to emphasize the uneven quality of time around the world
